

NEW DEVELOPMENT IN GREEK VS GREEK

It is Now Leon Skirlis' Turn to Face Music in Court Room.

ATTIAS COMES BACK AT HIM.

Alleged Doctor Found Not Guilty This Morning—Local Interpreter Not Losing Any Sleep.

A new and sudden turn has been taken in the case of the State vs P. G. P. Attias, and some of the features are of a sensational nature.

It will be recalled that Attias, a Greek labor agent, was arrested this week on the charge of practicing medicine without a license. He was tried before Judge Diehl, and witnesses testified that Attias prescribed for Greeks and took fees from them. The defendant denied everything.

Leon Skirlis, a Greek interpreter, was interested in the matter and was instrumental in filing charges against the alleged physician.

When the case was submitted to Judge Diehl, he took the matter under advisement until this morning. He decided that the prosecution had failed to make out a case, and ordered that Attias be discharged, and his bondsman released.

Skirlis was in the courtroom this morning, eager to learn the result of the hearing. As he was leaving the courtroom, Officer Sperry approached him, and armed with a warrant, arrested Skirlis on the charge of conducting an employment agency without a license. Skirlis took his arrest good naturedly and said he had no fear as to the outcome. He was at once arraigned before Judge Diehl, and released on his own recognizance. The complaint against Skirlis was sworn to by John Halvoren, license inspector. Mr. Skirlis will be in court either this afternoon or tomorrow morning to enter his plea.

It is generally believed that Attias was the instigator in the complaint against Skirlis.

THERMOPYLAE ON ATTIAS.

Literal translation from the Greek newspaper Thermopylae of New York City, Oct. 29, 1904:

The very much known impostor Attias, who some times appears as a pedagogue, other times as a doctor, and other times as an enterprising person, arrived in Salt Lake some time ago, and started disseminating among the Greek laboring men living in that city. If they knew him well they would drive him out of town with a club without any doubt. This man appeared a few years ago in New York as a pedagogue, and a publisher of a newspaper, that he would publish it during his travels throughout the different cities and collect the subscription of the said paper, but he never published it. Attias, who turned up in Jacksonville, Florida, with the false name Hamilton, and after a little while as an enterprising director in Boston, and during his length of time he went through Pittsburgh and other cities and fulfilled many peculiar blood drawings and left many insoluble. He now comes to Salt Lake as a political leader in Salt Lake, and an organizer of labor unions. While it is well known that in Utah and Colorado sympathize with such unions or the Western Federation, Attias comes into the city of the newspapers against Mr. L. G. Skirlis, the interpreter, because Skirlis annihilated Attias' schemes, and 250 Greeks working at various places, published their declaration in the Deseret News denouncing Attias' plans and praising Skirlis' work in relief of them and they are united with Skirlis. There is enough published about this impostor Attias in the Greek newspapers in this country and consequently he is very much known. We hope that his wretched continuance will be disagreeable among the Greek laborers."

PERKINS GETS HIS PAY.

Sequel to Trouble Over Clerkship of Board of Public Works.

The trouble in this city council over the appointment of a clerk of the board of public works during the month of November, 1904, has resulted in a judgment secured in the district court by P. O. Perkins against Salt Lake City for $5.00 for services rendered as clerk of the board for the last half of November. At the time of the trouble John M. Whitaker was removed from the position of clerk by the board, but the city council refused to concur in the action of the board and also refused to confirm the appointment of Mr. Perkins as successor to Mr. Whitaker. Further than that the council instructed the city auditor not to issue a warrant for services as clerk to any other person than Mr. Whitaker.

For a number of days there were two clerks of the board, and at the end of November, Mr. Whitaker was paid for his services but Mr. Perkins' claim was refused. Later Mr. Perkins presented his claim to the city council, but it refused to order the auditor to pay it. Mr. Perkins was finally instituted by Mr. Perkins in the city court and he recovered judgment against the city council for the same amount with interest and costs. So that the city will have to pay two salaries for clerk of the board of public works for the month of November, 1904, and the trouble between the board of public works and the city council has again been rather expensive to the city.

UNIVERSITY PREPS.

Meet and Organize Independently of College Student Body.

The sequel to the atmosphere of academic aloofness which the college men and women of the University have drawn about themselves in excluding the preparatory students from their assemblies and organizations, came out yesterday when the "preps" of the University met and organized into a student body of their own.

There was sectional rivalry even in the lower classes with the normal school pitted against the arts and science "preps." The result of the election was the choosing of a normal school president, an arts vice president, and a science secretary. The officers are George Andrus, Earl Bennion and J. E. Madison.

OBERNDORFER ACCEPTS.

Will be American Party Nominee from The Fifth District.

Joseph Oberndorfer yesterday gave his permission to being an American party candidate for the school board, from the Fifth precinct, vice W. J. Halloran, resigned.

The American party campaign is being conducted from party headquarters, where letters have been prepared and addressed to the parents of school children, urging them to vote the American party ticket. The letters assert that a determined effort is being made to place the schools under ecclesiastical control, and quote extracts from the course of the "religious" classes, which they attempt to suggest as a part of the regular school system, instead of being entirely independent of it, as is the fact.

DAILY GRAIN LETTER.

Messrs. Logan-Bryan of Chicago telegraph their local correspondents, James A. Pollock & Co., over their private wire, on the grain and provision situation, as follows:

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Wheat—Broomhall caused a lively market in Liverpool caused by unsettled weather in Argentina and offers of Northern Russian wheat being scarce coupled with good speculative buying. Argentine shipments estimated at about last week's figures. Price current says no change noticeable in wheat crop situation. Time not yet reached when positively discouraging view is called for. Influenced by higher cables market opened 1/4 higher and on short covering and buying by pit trader advanced 1/4 above yesterday's close. At this point free offerings broke market down 1/4 at which point strong interest appeared in support of prices. The tone of the market at this advance was distinctly weak but on all declines seems to meet with good buying orders by strong interests. The trade is discouragingly slow and traders generally are very much mixed on the course of market. While the domestic situation is bearish the uncertainty prevailing over Argentine offers any extensive short selling making a slow scalping market. We continue to feel on breaks market can be bought and sold on the bulge for moderate profits. It is still a waiting market.

Corn—Market continues to rule with narrow limits and is largely of a waiting nature. Trade at the moment entirely professional. The short interest remains large and available stocks of contract stuff unchanged. We still feel purchases of corn on moderate set backs will make money for the time being.

Cattle—Trade continues intensely dull with no feature worthy of mention. Until more interest is taken in this market by the outside public we doubt very much if market will do much in either direction and advise taking profits when in sight.

Provisions—Markets seem content with present conditions supporting prices on breaks and selling a little on the bulge. We continue advise taking profits when in sight.

Amusements

Who was it said "The play's the thing?" Last night it was the player, and the crowded house assembled at the Grand to see James Jeffries, and to accept Davy Crockett because that was the only available way of seeing him. A friend of Mark Twain's once remarked that only his acquired reputation as a great humorist prevented him from making another, as a great philosopher. It is hard to say how Davy Crockett would have impressed the audience last night if Jeffries had been unknown as a ring champion, as hard as it is to decide whether the sporting or the dramatic reviewer ought to have been detailed to write up the performance.

The thing of overwhelming interest last night was the personality of Jeffries—and it was an interest because the champion held as much because of his peculiar build and droll manner of speaking, as because of his reputation. At the end of the third act, Jeffries as Davy Crockett received an enthusiastic

KILLS CATARRH GERMS

Breathe Hyomei and Be Cured of Catarrh—Costs Nothing if it Fails.

Breathe Hyomei for a few minutes four times a day, through the next pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, and benefit will be seen at once. Continue this treatment for a short time, and your catarrh will have been cured by Hyomei.

This treatment has been so successful, curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by F. C. Schramm under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not benefit. You run no risk whatever in buying Hyomei. If it did not possess unusual powers to cure, it could not be sold upon this plan.

The complete Hyomei outfit costs $1.00, and comprises a hard rubber inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei and a dropper. The inhaler will last a lifetime; and additional bottles of Hyomei can be obtained for 50 cents.

EX-CONVICT'S GRATITUDE.

Thomas Williams Pays Handsome Installment to Attorney Armstrong.

Attorney S. P. Armstrong was the recipient of a substantial remembrance yesterday from Thomas Williams, who was pardoned from the state prison on Nov. 19. Mr. Williams called on Mr. Armstrong yesterday, and handed him $300 in appreciation of the services which the attorney rendered in securing his pardon. He further informed the attorney that he was not through with him yet, and said that he would remember him again soon.

Mr. Williams was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1881 for the murder of a man named Hatching. For 16 years the attorney has been endeavoring to secure a pardon for Williams, and about a year ago he secured the man's release on parole. At the last meeting of the board of pardons, on Nov. 15, Williams was granted a pardon.

Mr. Kelsey has been ill for two years, but only a short time seriously.

SCANDINAVIAN FAIR.

Interesting Program Marked the Opening of Festival Last Night.

The fair in the Fourteenth ward assembly rooms for the benefit of the Latter-day Saints' mission in Stockholm, opened last night. The hall was beautifully decorated and the various booths were filled with things useful and ornamental, donated by friends of the mission. Here and there a national picturesque costume was seen, adding interest to the occasion. The hall was crowded with visitors all the evening, and the business was brisk.

One great feature of the evening was the program which was followed with lively interest. The tambourine dance by Miss Irene Tuckett, and the final tableau were especially enjoyed, but all the numbers were good and very much appreciated. The program this evening is:

Accordeon duet.
Duet by Noel and Wood Pratt.
Piano duet by Misses Ruby Condie and Lillian Malquist.
Duet by Misses Wilfred Christoperson, singing by a ladies' quartet, consisting of Misses Poulton, Owen, Hudson and Walsh.
Tambourine dance by Miss Irene Tuckett.
Tableau, representing America, Sweden and Norway.

A FATHER'S EXPERIENCE

Trying to Give His Little Girl Cod Liver Oil—Says He Had Regular Circular.

An interesting incident was told by a man in Druehl & Frank's drug store the other evening.

The man came in and bought a bottle of Vinol, and while waiting for change engaged the clerk in conversation.

Said he: "We were told to give our little girl cod liver oil. I bought a bottle and took it home. We had a regular circular trying to get the child to take it. Then it did not agree with her at all, the oil upset her stomach. She did not get any better, so I told the doctor how we had failed, and he at once recommended our Vinol, saying that it contained all of the curative, healing and strengthening properties of cod liver oil, without a drop of oil, and that children all love it."

"I took home a bottle and we began to give it to our child right away. At most from the first dose we noticed a change, and she has gained flesh, strength and appetite and sleeps well every night."

"I don't believe any one should give a delicate child old-fashioned, nauseating cod liver oil or emulsions when Vinol is so delicious, and it will do so much more good than any other tonic. It is simply a wonderful medicine for weak, puny children, and I am recommending it to my friends."

We guarantee Vinol will make weak, puny children strong, robust and rosy, strengthen and invigorate old people and build up the run-down, tired and debilitated as nothing else can. If it fails we willingly return every dollar paid for it. Druehl & Frank also Smith Drug Co., Druggists.

ODD ORIGINS OF WORDS.

Titter originally meant courtship. Goodby is a contraction of "God be with you."

Deuteronomy is from two Greek words meaning second and law. The fifth book of Moses is so called from its being mainly a repetition of law previously enumerated.

Fashion was the old name for a certain disease of the horse. It is alluded to in "The Taming of the Shrew," where Petruchio's horse is said to be "infected with the fashions." The complaint is a common one, but not among horses.

At first sight there appears to be little connection between flattery and the wagging of a dog's tail. Yet in nearly all the northern languages the same word signifies both, and flattery is certainly derived from the word signifying to wag the tail. In the old Norman dialect flatter signifies to flatter and also to wag the tail.

HE DID NOT MIND.

"Oh, Mr. Aven," said a pretty girl artist to an innocent countryman, "would you mind letting me stand in your garden for an hour or two occasionally? I would so much like to sketch those lovely trees of yours!"

"Not at all, honey," was the prompt reply. "Ye are welcome to stand there all day an' every day. I'll save me the bother o' puttin' up a scarecrow!"

CATARRH

Cannot be cured by Sprays or other Local Applications

Catarrh is not, as is generally believed, a local disease, but in due to serious causes deep-seated in the blood. Blood Taint and Lowered Vitality are the conditions which give rise to Catarrh and sprays, washes, smoking preparations or other local remedies cannot do more than temporarily relieve the symptoms and can never reach and cure the disease itself. Many doctors direct their efforts to relieving the more symptoms of Catarrh, treating it as a strictly local disease and totally losing sight of the real cause that underlies the outward signs of this malady. Catarrh, if not promptly arrested and cured, may cause consumption or lead to very serious diseases of the digestive organs.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) cures Catarrh quickly, thoroughly and permanently. Its curative properties act directly on the blood, driving out the poison, fortifying and strengthening the whole system. It relieves immediately the disgusting symptoms of Catarrh, such as hoarseness, spitting, nose bleeding, ringing in the ears, the dropping of a catarrhal matter into the throat, sick stomach, etc. It absolutely and permanently cures all forms of Catarrh—Catarrh of the Nose, Ear, Throat, Eyes, Lungs, Stomach, Liver or Kidneys. If you have any of the symptoms of Catarrh, don't waste time and money on worthless local remedies but get B. B. B.—the medicine that is guaranteed to cure.

Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per large bottle. If taken in sufficient quantity according to directions on label and not cured, money is refunded.

How is it with you?

There's Nothing in Illness

You have noticed the yellow skin of your neighbor,—the dullness, the yellow whites of another's eyes, but if you feel as you look this morning, you need a little help yourself. Flatulence, Headache, a bad taste in the mouth are bad enough, but they are precursors of worse to come. If you have any of them, or if you are bilious or constipated, you need a gentle, effective, harmless corrective; that is, you need Beecham's Pills.

Constipation is the common foe of modern human life. From it spring full half the ills of humanity. Beecham's Pills cure CONSTIPATION; they keep the Stomach, the Liver, the Kidneys and the Bowels up to the mark.

cure the present minor sicknesses and prevent the more serious troubles which will come if you don't right the wrong. All over the world their merits are known. A remedy so good for so many should be good for you. Folks are pretty much alike the world over. Beecham's Pills have a way of restoring vigor to worn and wearied organs; they work for health, for clear brains, strong muscles, sound nerves.

Women, at certain times, should take especial care that Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are working properly and satisfactorily. Else will follow depression, sick headache, nervousness,—a train of almost unbearable troubles. When so simple a remedy as Beecham's Pills will do so much good, their use should become a good habit. They have saved the lives of many women who have followed the directions with every box.
