

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

D. F. Cahoon is the local postmaster in charge of the Murray postoffice station.

The editorial department of the Herald has presented to Cashier H. S. Stowe with a fine umbrella.

C. M. Brough, a prominent G. A. R. man, has lost the use of his right eye, in Los Angeles, through neuritis.

William Carruthers of 534 South First West street is not expected to live, and eastern relatives are en route here to his bedside.

Joseph Larsen of 472 Sixth street, is suffering from a broken leg, due to his horse falling on him Saturday afternoon, on Market street.

Patrick E. Rooney, a Bingham mining man, died yesterday of consumption at his home in Riverton, aged 59, leaving a wife and five children.

A number of the members of the board of education went to Murray Saturday to visit and inspect the new school building in that city.

A "Get Acquainted" party will be held Thursday night, at the Elks' house, and all those intending to attend the Elks' excursion at Los Angeles are invited to be present.

Miss Vera Patterson of Waterloo gave a piano recital Saturday evening at the residence of her instructor, Miss Ethel Nettleton, assisted by Miss Calla Crane on the violin.

The sixth number in the Star course of entertainments at the Y. M. C. A. will come next Thursday evening. It will include vocal and instrumental playing and elocution.

Deputy Sheriff Reid arrested two men at Garfield yesterday upon the charge of drunkenness, and disturbing the peace, and brought them in to the county jail. The men are Joseph Clark and J. L. Wright.

Charles P. Heid has bought out the interest of the other stockholders in the Hope Engineering company of this city, and is now in control of the company's affairs. Mr. Heid will enlarge and improve the business.

The Bell Telephone directors will meet on the 26th inst., when a proposition will be made to increase the capital stock from $2,000,000 to $10,000,000 on account of the largely increased equipment and construction over all the system.

A large congregation at St. Mary's cathedral, including little children, had their throats blessed Saturday in honor of St. Blasius, the patron saint of those afflicted with sore throats, it being St. Blasius' day. Revs. Curran, Ryan and Deneaf officiated.

D. A. Callahan characterized President Eliot's philippic against football as childish. He says the president does not attend the games, and really knows nothing about football. Mr. Callahan thinks, per contra, that President Haskins' position is a sound one, and that he will stay with the game.

Local traveling men say there is no overproduction of commodities as claimed by the other stockholders, and that the general trade of the country is better now than ever before. Prices have advanced 15 per cent in the last 18 months, and yet there is no decrease in the demand, and manufacturers can not fill their orders.

The State Prison society of Christian Endeavor was addressed yesterday morning by Rev. Richard Wake, pastor emeritus in the Methodist church. He spoke on God's love towards all men, and exhorted the interest of his hearers. Miss May Deakin favored the audience with two vocal solos, which were much enjoyed.

The Indian war veterans are invited to be present at the annual reunion to be held Friday evening, Feb. 9, at 7:30 p. m., at the Thirtieth ward assembly hall. Medals for the veterans, provided for by act of the last Legislature, will be distributed at this reunion. All members of the Nauvoo legion and the Veteran Firemen are also invited to be present.

Tickets for the Elks' excursion to Los Angeles are now on sale at the secretary's office in the Elks' building. Accommodations will not be held after Wednesday night, that are not paid for. A word of welcome was received today at the Elks' club from the board of trade of San Bernardino, inviting the excursionists to make themselves feel entirely at home in that town, and to accept the freedom of the city.

Steve G. Skilris, brother of the contract labor agent, Leon Skilris of this city, and Miss Hazel M. Edgington of this city were evidently married in Denver Saturday, as a license was issued to them then in that city. Mrs. Edgington positively refused to talk on the subject when approached, beyond saying that her daughter was not at home. The bride is a very prepossessing young woman, and was formerly a clerk in Keith-O'Brien's dry goods house.

SPENT SOME SEEING CONDUIT

Seven Councilmen and Other City Officials View the Work Done.

HEADQUARTERS CAMP MORAN.

Close Inspection of Completed Portion of Work, After Which Turkey Dinner is Served.

Seven members of the city council, the five members of the board of public works, City Engineer Kelsey, Assistant Engineer Chaney, City Recorder Moreton and three newspaper men paid a visit to the Big Cottonwood conduit yesterday and spent a very enjoyable and instructive day. The start was made at 10:15 o'clock, when the party took a car to Murray, where it was met by Contractor P. J. Moran, who had conveyances ready to start for the conduit. The party was driven to Camp Moran, which is located at the old paper mill, and thence to the dam and intake of the conduit.

THE WORK INSPECTED.

From that point the members of the party walked over the completed portion of the conduit, which covers a distance of 8,000 feet, and inspected the same. President Davis of the council, and several others crawled through the conduit for about 500 feet, so as to inspect the interior work. The entire length of the conduit when completed will be 29,000 feet and it is now completed for a distance of 8,000 feet from the intake, while the excavating for almost the entire distance has been completed ready for the concrete work. The conduit is 34x4 feet in dimensions and the side walls are six inches thick, the bottom eight inches and the roof four inches. The concrete work is reinforced by steel bars placed six inches apart in the roof and nine inches in the walls.

TURKEY DINNER SERVED.

After the party had gone over as much of the conduit as it desired, it returned to Camp Moran where a fine turkey dinner was served. The party started on the return trip about 3 o'clock and arrived in the city about 5 o'clock. Those who went are Councilmen A. J. Davis, Mulvey, Crabtree, Forstrom, Carter, O'Donnell and Hobday, and Chairman Fred I. Leonard, C. P. Brooks, W. J. Halloran, S. M. Barlow and C. D. Rookledge, of the board of public works, and the city officials named above.

LANE ACK.

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and may be cured by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm two or three times a day and rubbing the parts vigorously. It has become a household remedy and affords relief in a matter of minutes. It is sold by all druggists.

POWELL LIBERATED.

County Prisoner Released on Writ of Habeas Corpus.

The application of James E. Powell for a writ of habeas corpus was granted by Judge Armstrong on Saturday afternoon, and the man was released from the county jail. Powell was convicted in Justice Dana Smith's court over a minor charge of failing to support his minor child and was sentenced to 30 days in jail and to pay a fine of $20. He served his sentence but the sheriff refused to release him, as the fine had not been paid.

Attorney James F. Smith filed a petition for Powell's release under a writ of habeas corpus and Judge Armstrong granted it. The court, in deciding the question, cited the case of Harry J. Roberts against Sheriff John T. Howells, which was decided by the supreme court and in which that court held that an attempt to imprison a man for a fine after he has served the term of imprisonment imposed would have the effect of depriving him of his liberty without payment of a debt. It was also held that the state could collect the fine by issuing an execution against the defendant and levying on his property subject to execution.

A DOUBLE HEADER.

John P. Cowan Sued For Breach of Contract and Assessments.

Suit has been filed in the district court by George Busby and Lydia A. Busby against John P. Cowan to recover $1,500 as damages for an alleged breach of contract. The case arose from an agreement by which Cowan agreed to furnish Busby with employment with the Charm Mining & Smelting company for a period of one year at a salary of $150 per month.

MRS. WATSON'S FUNERAL.

Friends Pay Their Respects to the Memory of a Noble Woman.

The Sixth ward meetinghouse was crowded to the doors yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the funeral of Mrs. Harriet S. Watson, whose demise occurred several days ago. The services were presided over by Bishop James C. Watson and beautiful music was furnished by the ward choir, a quartet and several soloists. The selections including, "O My Father," "Angels Ever Bright and Fair," by Mrs. Mabel Poulton Kirk, "I Need Thee Every Hour," by the quartet, and "O Grave Where is Thy Victory" by Mrs. Louie P. Giauque and the choir. The speakers were Elder Hugh Watson, Bishop S. M. T. Seddon of the Fifth ward, Patriarch Jesse West, Elder W. N. Williams, Elder Joseph E. Taylor and Bishop Watson. All spoke of the sterling character of the deceased, and referred to her sunny disposition, her solicitude for the poor, her care of the sick and afflicted, and her love of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. That she was a noble woman, was the testimony of all who had had the pleasure of her acquaintance. There was an abundance of beautiful emblems and a long cortege followed the remains to their last resting place in the city cemetery.
