Garden City Notes.

Buit has been filed in the Fourth district court by County Prosecuting Attorney Gash against B. W. Nichols and J. J. Weigel, who were accused of having a secret bond with the Devil. The Devil gave it in the name of the People v. F. J. Drake in 1885. Drake was adjudged guilty of perjury and sentenced to prison for a term of five years and costs, from which he appealed. He failed to get an audience when his case was called and his bonds were forfeited.

Twelve members of the Brigham Young academy will give a concert in Brigham Friday evening to an appreciative audience, and on Saturday evening will have the same entertainment that they performed the performances to remain and give a concert Sunday. Instances of the Power of Healing—Kind Treatment of the Elders.

ROTTERDAM, Holland, Nov. 12, 1896.

To the Editor:

I am looking over the columns of your paper, which arrives here regularly, I notice how the cause of truth is progressing in the several different missions, but as yet have failed to see any reports from this section. Therefore I take pleasure of troubling you a few lines to advise you of my arrival in this country and our welfare.

I left my home in Ogden, Utah, Jan. 8, 1896, and was appointed to labor in Amsterdam with our present president, Elder George F. Spencer of Salt Lake City; and while there going about my duty I met with a man who had been converted by the Gospel and encountered several people, who are very numerous in this country and are well versed in their religion. I am continually laboring among them, having failed as a great many of our Mormon boys do, to take advantage of the opportunities that were within my reach.

After a short time I was called by the Spirit of the Lord as our Savior came from time to time I succeeded to leave a good impression in many cases through their evidences and testimonies. I also received a great testimony of the power that goes with an Elder who is clothed with the Holy Priesthood. A very nice lady of about 25 years old, who had been a member of the church for some time, was taken sick and all hopes of her recovery were given up by her family and friends. Finally she was called and we had a great meeting with her and her friends.

Her friends sent for Doctor Low and I went to him. This sacred ordinance was witnessed by all who had come to see the lad. After a short time he was able to sit up and eat with her husband. She has enjoyed good health ever since. She is a good example to us all.

During my seven months stay in that great city, through hunger and prayerful labor I was enabled to convince a number that Jesus Christ was the Son of God and the pleasure of seeing them embrace the Gospel as well as of making a great many friends who were always ready to help me in the service of the Master. I then recalled to labor in Germany with Elder Hendrick De Dril, a local Elder. We did not meet with much success, but I think it almost impossible to teach the beasts of the people, and the majority of them were greatly opposed to us. We traveled over the country, laboring and depending on them and the spirit of the Lord to feed us. After holding several meetings to which a great number would come, we were enabled to say they believed the Gospel to be true, but did not want anything to do with the Mormons; my next object was to find a place where we could remain relatively unmolested, was my main concern. We were a little more encouraged than before, so I had a talk with the authorities and a few months back to the knowledge of the law and everlasting things.

Finally after my arrival there, I was enabled to find a place upon one of our properties which was suitable for our spiritual needs, which made it almost impossible for the men to hold him in bad. After holding my meetings him to come and go right and I know that my Father in heaven lives and that His spirit is manifested through the Mormon children.

Since our missionary conference had at Amsterdam on Sept. 6, I have been laboring in Rotterdam with Elder Frank M. Hansen of Salt Lake City, who arrived here Aug. 20th. Since then we have held a number of tract meetings wherever we could get the news of a house, as it is against the law to have meetings in houses. Three tract meetings seem to be the best plan to spread the gospel here, as they have brought many to the Lord and in this case some have asked for baptism.

A short time ago we advertised a meeting at a Saint's house, all one of the members of the church, and the streets around the church were filled with Dutch people who made all kinds of threats against the salesmen of Joseph Smith. Brother Elmer Hansen, a young man, who was a member of the church, gave a speech upon the principles of the gospel that pleased quite attentively him and others. President De Dril said that he was a man who had a mark on his arm and ensured his brother, and they allowed us to go unmolested.

At another place we advertised a meeting, and the people who attended, telling the people he would like to correct the bugs when they were here, that was not necessary.

When we got to the place of assembly we saw that he was a man who was open to all kinds of threats.

Then the Lord, that I am ever so sorry to relate, has called him to perform his mission in the Kingdom of God.

The Saints here are, perhaps, the most generous people in the world to the Elders, and we are greatly blessed to be considered worthy to have a servant of the Lord in their home, and will greatly give up the best they can to help him. We are greatly blessed to have a servant of the Lord in the Kingdom of God.

Thank the Lord, that I am ever so sorry to relate, has called him to perform his mission in the Kingdom of God.
