

Correspondence. SALT LAKE CITY, April 22, 1873.

The education of the youth of our common country is a subject of more than ordinary interest, and of the leading men of the world, who are rapidly coming to the conclusion that the very future of our country is at stake in their hands, and that the future of our schools, and the foundation for the future of our nation, is at stake in their hands, and that the education of the youth of our common country is a subject of more than ordinary interest...

The last six months, so far as the weather is concerned, has truly presented a picture previously unknown to the settlers of this country. It has been a picture of adversity and of suffering, and of death...

English Colonists. The Proverbs of two thousand, selected for Minnesota. The announcement having been made that 100 English farmers had emigrated on the City of Detroit, of the Tuman line, with the intention of settling in Minnesota, the colonists were riddled on their arrival...
