LOCAL BRIEFS.

W. M. Elliott Seriously Ill.—W. M. Elliott, the well known woodman, is seriously ill at St. Mark's hospital with Bright's disease.

Hurt in an Elevator.—An elevator in the McDonald Hotel, fact fell yesterday afternoon, with William Holquist on it. He was bruised about the head, but not seriously.

Disappears From Bingham.—John Greenwald has disappeared from Bingham, leaving no clue as to his whereabouts. He is 35 years old, and a former citizen of Russell, Kansas.

May Use State Taxes.—In response to a query from State Supt. Nelson, the attorney-general rules that the legislature may set aside school funds for high schools, from the state taxes.

Lake Still Rising.—The level of the great lake is within two inches of the highest level of last summer, so that fine bathing is assured for the coming season, with a further raise promised of at least 14 inches.

Bought State Street Lots.—John T. Hodson, W. J. Craig and Alex. Cook have bought from Lindsay E. Sprague 15 lots with right of way, north of the Evans building on State street, for $18,450. The purchasers have not decided what to do with the property.

New Night Jailers.—The county commissioners have selected the night jailer at the county jail to succeed John Larson, who resigned after being suspended by the sheriff pending an investigation of his escape of Charles Rile while he was on duty.

Primary Institute.—An institute for primary teachers was held yesterday afternoon, at the Lafayette school, where addresses were made by Supt. Christensen, Prof. W. A. Weston, Miss Pollock and Miss Martha Johnson. The teachers of the grammar grades will hold an institute this afternoon.

Fruit Growers Organize.—Fruit growers of Salt Lake county met yesterday afternoon, in Vander ward and organized the Granite Fruit and Commercial company, with capital stock at $50,000, with shares at $1 each, no stockholder to hold more than 500 shares. Another meeting will be held next week for election of officers.

Marsh Family to the Fore.—Robert Marsh has returned from a three-months absence in New York. He reports his son, a senior in the Columbia School of Mines, having passed his final examinations, and is ready to graduate in June. The young man is a noted athlete, and is participating in contests this week in Boston.

J. H. Wagner, Superintendent.—J. H. Wagner of Denver is the new superintendent at Canyon Creek ranch. He is a graduate of the University of Colorado, and worked in this line for many years. Mr. Wagner will also teach horticulture at the Canyon Creek ranch, and will be in charge of the boys' blacksmith shop for the boys this spring.

Directors Are Chosen.—The annual meeting of the Consolidated Wagon and Machine Company was held yesterday afternoon, when directors for the current year were chosen as follows: Joseph P. Smith, W. S. McCormick, George Romney, George T. O'Neil, F. R. S. Smith, John Henry Smith, L. S. Hills, C. S. Burton, James H. Moyle, Melvin D. Wells, Francis M. Lyman, Thomas R. Cutler and Grant Hampton.

Praise For Schools.—W. G. Hartman, of Seattle, Wash., who addressed the county teachers' institute on Saturday, accompanied County Supt. of schools Smith yesterday on a visit to five of the county schools. He was very much pleased with the schools and stated that they were better centralized and better graded than any schools he had visited in the western country.

Applications For Water.—The following applications for water have been filed with the state engineer as follows: Anton Watkins, et al. of Vernal, for 5-1-7 second feet from the Green river in Wasatch county, for irrigating 250 acres; Daniel Mining and Development company of Carbonville, 2 second feet from Middle Big Six miles spring, for domestic purposes; Bingham Metal Mining company, 2 second feet from Middle spring, Tooele county.

Two Poles Knocked Down.—Car 79 jumped the track at First South and Eighth West streets at 9 o'clock last evening, and knocked down two street poles. As these poles carried the electric light wires from Ogden the demolition cut off the city's supply for 16 minutes until currents from other sources could be switched into service. A boy named Harry Dunham in the street car was thrown against a seat and bruised, but no one else was hurt. The theaters suffered with the rest of the town, but there was no excitement.

E. B. Critchlow Withdraws.—E. B. Critchlow, the prominent lawyer of this city, has withdrawn from his connection with the land cases instituted by the government some time ago. His resignation has been in the hands of the attorney-general in Washington some time. Mr. Critchlow will not discuss his resignation or the affairs leading up to it. While representing the government Mr. Critchlow has created no end of unfavorable notice. He prepared the final brief filed by the government in the cases now on against the Utah Fuel and Pleasant Valley Coal companies.

Losses at High School.—Some of the high school manual training class are working up a little game on Eaton. Some time ago a local paper printed the headline over an article that "Prof. Eaton had a right to smile" over the fact that the fraternities had been successfully excluded from the high school. The deep dark plot among the students came out yesterday, when a large streamer was suspended between two trees directly over the main entrance to the high school containing these words: "The Eaton Has no Right to Smile." Among the students the professor is called "the czar." The fraternity perpetrating the above "hoax joke" is "laying mighty low" these days.

FIFTEEN MILES OF PAVED SIDEWALKS

City Council Passes an Ordinance Authorizing Putting Down Big Improvements.

BUT WHERE TO GET MONEY?

Black Says There is No Need to Worry But Pass That Along to "Galveston Plan" Commissioners.

Without one thought as to where the city will get the money to pay for its portion of the improvement, the city council last night passed an ordinance levying an assessment for cement sidewalks in a district bounded by Ninth South street on the north, Thirteenth East on the east, the city limits on the south and State street on the west. The area includes 50 miles of walks and the residents will be allowed to pay for the improvement in installments covering a period of five years.

Fernstrom warned the council that it was going too fast in the matter as it was passing a law which would keep it busy for the entire year and probably more than it could pay for. He thought that it would be better to complete what is on hand first, then find the money to pay for the new extension before authorizing work on it. Black said that he did not intend to work about the money, but would let the new commissioners be elected under the "Galveston plan" and find some way of getting it. The ordinance was passed and bids will be opened for the improvement March 1.

City Engineer Kelsey submitted his new map of the city in which the names of some of the streets are changed. The ordinance authorizing the changing of the names was also introduced but on motion of Fernstrom action on them was postponed until after the recent storm, the sidewalks of the city are in such a state of confusion that it is difficult to find the names of several streets.

The ordinance providing for the annexation of Westminster Heights as petitioned by Earl Dunstree and others was passed by the council and the date fixed for the ordinance to go into effect.

The city engineer recommended that the city acquire the land on the Utah Light & Railway company, at the dam in Big Cottonwood for the purpose of constructing a house for the waterworks committee and the city attorney will consider the matter.

The Utah State Fair association, the Salt Lake Real Estate association, the Manufacturers & Merchants' association and the state board of horticulture entered a protest against the bad condition of Third South street between Main and West Temple streets. During the recent storm the sidewalks were flooded with mud from the alleys on the north side of the street so that tourists could hardly reach the entrance of the fair grounds. On account of so many visitors passing along the street in order to reach the chamber of commerce, the signers of the communication asked that the street be kept in better condition.

A protest was received from the Elgin Dairy on east First South street against the street lunch stand one door east of its place of business. It is claimed that most of the food is cooked on the sidewalk and the fumes from the same enter the dairy company's plant, and have greatly damaged its products. The company asked for some relief from the conditions which now exist. The matter was referred to the city attorney and health commission with instructions to enforce the ordinance against street lunch stands, and it is probable that a test case will be filed in the matter.

A petition was submitted from Frank E. Stephens and a large number of other property owners, asking that First South street be macadamized, curbed and guttered from Second East to Third East, and the street be named Third South street. The matter was referred to the streets and engineering committee.

A resolution was introduced by Carl A. Ek, A. F. Lawson and others, asking that certain streets in the southwestern part of the city and west of the Jordan river be drained of water, which has heretofore stood on the streets the entire year and become stagnant, thus creating a nuisance. The petition was referred to the streets committee.

Heller introduced a resolution appropriating $5,000 for building a new band stand, cleaning the lake and making other needed improvements at Liberty park before the season opens. The public grounds committee will consider the matter.

City Treasurer Swenson asked authority to employ an extra man to assist in getting out the second notices to delinquent taxpayers to pay the taxes on sidewalks extensions for a period of 90 days and at the wage of $3 per day. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

A resolution was introduced by Mulvey authorizing the mayor to appoint a watchman at the Big Cottonwood dam at a salary of $75 per month. The resolution was adopted.

CHILD'S LIFE SAVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

Mrs. John Engelhardt, of Gera, Mich., tells of the anxious moments spent over her little two-year-old daughter who had taken a hard cold resulting in a cough. She was satisfied that if it had not been for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy she would have lost her child. The child was coughing very much and she soon began to throw up the phlegm. I can recommend it to the highest praise. I have never known a child cured in the same way." Sold by all druggists.

WILL MEET COLORADO.

University Debating Team Leaves for Boulder Tomorrow.

The university debating team, which will meet in annual intercollegiate debate the team from the Colorado university will leave for Boulder tomorrow afternoon for Boulder, Colo., where the debate will take place. The question to be discussed is as follows: "Resolved, that the best solution of the Cuban question is annexation to the United States." The Utah boys will take the negative side of the question. The team is composed of the following well known debaters: Percy Goddard, Ernest Bramwell and J. W. Brown.

A contract has just been signed by J. Percy Goddard, manager of the University Debating club, whereby the University of Oregon agrees to meet the University of Utah in debate annually during the next two years. The first of these will be held in Salt Lake city in the month of March, and the second a year afterward at the town of Eugene, Ore. A meeting of the students interested will be held tomorrow to decide what the question of debate shall be. The proposition will then be submitted to the Oregonians for their approval.

OPINION ON BOUNTY FRAUDS

Attorney General Breeden Sends A Communication to Speaker Joseph of House.

HOLDS CLERKS RESPONSIBLE.

He Maintains That County Officials and Bondsmen Are the Proper People to Make up Losses.

Speaker Joseph of the house of representatives received yesterday afternoon, an opinion from Attorney General Breeden on the bounty frauds, in which he holds county clerks and bondsmen responsible. The document is as follows:

Feb. 11, 1907.
Hon. Harry S. Joseph, Speaker, and Members of House of Representatives:

Gentlemen: I beg to acknowledge receipt of two resolutions of your honorable body passed on the 29th ult. relating to bounty frauds and instructing this office to proceed without unnecessary delay to make a report thereon. The law from the several county clerks, or their bondsmen, the amount paid by the state on fraudulent bounty certificates, in reply I will state that I am informed by a state auditor that there are now filed with him unpaid bounty certificates aggregating about $25,000, all of which have been examined by said officer and the state board of examiners in accordance with section 3 of chapter 109, Session Laws of 1905, the larger part of which were found to be illegal and fraudulent or tainted with fraud. This office is prepared at all times to institute suit for the recovery from the responsible parties of every dollar unlawfully abstracted from the state treasury, but it can not proceed until the legislature has decided that it is to say, in no event could the state have any standing in court in this matter until money was actually paid out on fraudulent certificates.

The legislature in its last session passed an act authorizing the payment of illegal or fraudulent bounty certificates. In the act it is provided that the state shall be liable for the payment of illegal or fraudulent bounty certificates. The act also provides that the state shall be liable for the payment of illegal or fraudulent bounty certificates. The act also provides that the state shall be liable for the payment of illegal or fraudulent bounty certificates. The act also provides that the state shall be liable for the payment of illegal or fraudulent bounty certificates.

The general principle of suretyship applies with equal force in the case of the state as it does in other cases, and where any change, without the consent of the surety, is made in the contract where sureties are bound, such change will operate as a discharge of such sureties. It does not matter whether such change is made by the state or by the sureties, or not, the legal effect is the same. This act partakes of the nature of a voluntary donation, and not as a payment of a claim. That is to say, the state is not bound to pay the sum of money which it was not bound to pay.

My opinion contemplated the payment of such certificates in the usual and regular way at their face value, and not otherwise. I distinctly held that the state was in no sense legally liable for the payment of illegal and fraudulent certificates. By the above I do not intend to change my former view, viz.: that if the state had paid these certificates in the regular way, the state would be liable for the same. It will be plainly seen that this act changes the contract of suretyship, and therefore affects the whole legal phase of the case.

The resolution herein referred to extends the time for filing these illegal or fraudulent certificates to the 1st of January, 1908, and hence it would be novel (even if there was no doubt about ultimate recovery) to institute to recover funds which are still in the hands of the state. The public grounds committee will consider the matter.

City Treasurer Swenson asked authority to employ an extra man to assist in getting out the second notices to delinquent taxpayers to pay the taxes on sidewalks extensions for a period of 90 days and at the wage of $3 per day. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

A resolution was introduced by Mulvey authorizing the mayor to appoint a watchman at the Big Cottonwood dam at a salary of $75 per month. The resolution was adopted.

WAYS ALWAYS COME

Society Women and Officers. U. S. A. Have Novel Experience And Painful One.

TEAM BREAKS THREE TIMES.

Dr. W. L. Kellar Hurt and Private's Arm Bruised—Others Escape With Bumps and Tattered Garments.

A series of three runaways disturbed the usual quiet and dignity of Fort Douglas yesterday afternoon. The first mad dash occurred on the reservation. The light carriage, careened from side to side, threatening to tip its occupants out on the hard boulevard. Seeing this, Lieut. Campbell pulled all his strength upon one rein, guiding the horses into the rougher, softer ground to one side of the road. With the horses tearing along at a furious gallop, the team threatened to overturn. The women and friends were thrown to the ground with terrific force, but luckily did not become entangled with the lines or carriages. The horses were stopped, and when Dr. Kellar found his injuries were quite severe, he was taken to the fort.

THROWN OUT AGAIN. The trip towards town was made once more. Lieut. Campbell at the reins and the women in the carriage. A second time the foot brake broke into a wild gallop, and a second time were pulled to rough ground on the side of the road. Ditches and bumps threw the occupants of the carriage out a second time, and again a few bruises and rips and tears constituted the extent of damages. Not caring to experience a third bouncing in one afternoon the party turned the team and huddled carriages over to a couple of soldiers who caught the escaped outfit. A third runaway resulted in injury to one of the soldiers' arms. He is now in the hospital. Lieut. Campbell took his fair guests, surprised in reaching town safely in the post "bus."

PLEASANT AND MOST EFFECTIVE. T. J. Chambers, Dr. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1906: "With board and unaided by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have a family in my family and been cheerful and affable. It is the most effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used. Sold by C. M. L. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street."

"PURE DRINKING WATER."

How Some Settlements in Southern Utah Get Their Supply.

Inspector Clark of the state board of health has returned from an extended southern trip, during which he noticed, to his astonishment and regret, that in a number of villages which he visited the inhabitants had been wont to drink water from ditches and ditches, not contaminated by sewage from corrals and stables, but which were in places where the liquid filth of the year drained, and saw to his dismay the owner drinking water not over 15 feet below the level of the ditch. He remarks that such conditions are only productive of disease and are a disgrace to the community. He recommends that where such conditions obtain he mentions Eldorado, Annabella, Central, Glenwood, Venice and others.

A STITCH IN TIME Will save nine. So will a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup always kept on hand to cure a cold, cough, croup, whooping cough, Mrs. S. H. Hot Springs, Ark., writes: "My little child of Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my medicine chest and thank my forefathers for the relief it has given me. It has cured my child of a cold, cough, croup, whooping cough, and all the other ailments of childhood. Sold by C. M. L. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street."
