

A third time Oades walked forth from the courtroom flushed with victory, and escorting his two wives.

The excited and disquieted which prevailed in San Bernardino over this "terrible scandal" may be gathered from the following description. The San Bernardino lawyers have almost contracted a habit of referring to the legal way to remove the "awful relic," "Believing in the law maxim, that for every wrong there is a remedy, and that there is never finding a remedy for the awful wrong aforesaid, they have, as stated in the San Bernardino Standard, the San Francisco bar, and also to one of the code makers, for advice as to their distress they have their symposium, and the next section of the Union but those of Utah. Funny, will it not be, if they fail to beat Oades and his lawless crew, the San Bernardino Standard, in detailing the history of this matter, is that we have not

Victory No. 4.
 P.S.—Since Oades was acquitted of bigamy, it has been contemplated to institute a suit to dissolve his second marriage; but the Civil Code, Section 83, Subdivision 2, declares that an action to annul such a marriage can be brought only by one of the parties to the second marriage, or by one of the parties to the first marriage.
 Oades will not bring such a suit, nor will either of his wives, who are kept together amazingly well, and who are both mightily in love with him.
 What sort of? Hurrah for Oades!—

R. D. SELLERS & CO.'S CELEBRATED FINE SKOON

These styles are always the latest, consisting of the largest variety made in Philadelphia, and will be found to be the most durable and give more satisfaction than any other make; besides they will not hurt the feet and are comfortable to wear. They are made of the best quality of leather, and are made to order, and are sent to the Territory, also at all other first-class stores. We have had to ask for them in all different localities, and they are stamped on the inside of the shoe.

P. S. — We stamp every pair. Kicks are genuine unless they have our name on the bottom.
