

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—In the morning Elder Elias Morris addressed the congregation, and bore an excellent testimony to the truth of the gospel; in the afternoon the time was occupied by Elders Cannon and Woodruff.

THAT MEETING.—A meeting of the Association for the introduction of Stock, Bees, Fish, &c., will be held at the City Hall, this evening at six o'clock. Members are requested to attend. The meeting will also be open to all interested in the object of the Association.

WARD CO-OPERATIVE BUTCHER SHOP.—We understand that a movement is on foot, in the Twentieth Ward, to establish a Butcher Shop, in connection with the Co-operative Store. Such an institution will be considered a boon by those living in that neighborhood, as they will be saved the inconvenience of having to travel so far to purchase meat; besides, it is the opinion that the principle applied to that branch of trade will greatly reduce the price of meat, which is an object of desirable attainment. The subject is to be brought before the City Council at an early date, and if the establishment of this butcher shop meet with the concurrence of the City Fathers, it will be started immediately under the management of Brother Charles Sansom, and as he has given complete satisfaction to all interested in the Ward store, there is no doubt that this new department will be equally prosperous under his supervision.

INFORMATION WANTED.—The following is from the Gold Hill News, of the 9th inst.: "Alphonso Hart, of Revere, Portage county, Ohio, executor of Sheldon Farmham, deceased, wishes to learn the present whereabouts of John H. Farham, who is interested in the estate of deceased. He was between Salt Lake and Denver when last heard from."

DEPARTURE.—Elder W. D. Roberts will leave this city for the east to-morrow (Tuesday) morning, for the purpose of attending the National Bee Convention and transacting business as the agent of the Society for the introduction of stock, bees, &c., of this city. All our citizens who wish to procure bees and have not yet made arrangements would do well to see to it immediately. Monies for the purchase of bees are received by brother Robert L. Campbell, at the Historian's Office.

DEAD.—Garret, one of those who made such a desperate attempt to escape from the Nevada Penitentiary, died from the wound received in the encounter, on the afternoon of the 8th inst. This is the third, out of the four prisoners concerned in that affair, who has died from his wounds. The fourth, Herraman, is likely to recover. So says the Gold Hill News.

RECOVERING.—We are informed that John C. Vance, the young man who was accidentally shot while on his way to the canyon on Wednesday morning last, is rapidly recovering.

RELEASES AND APPOINTMENTS.—Elder G. G. Bywater has been released from the presidency of the Glamorgan Conference, with permission to return home, on account of his imperfect health, and his own affairs requiring his attention.

Elder D. McAllister has been released from his labors as Travelling Elder in the Glasgow Conference, with permission to return home, on account of ill health. Elder Eliezer Edwards has been appointed to preside over the Glamorgan Conference.—Millennial Star, Nov., 15th.

NEWS FROM ST. GEORGE.—We are pleased to be able to lay before our readers, from time to time, interesting items of news from the south, which are confidentially furnished us, over the Desert Telegraph Line, by President George A. Smith.

St. George, Dec. 11. Desert News.—At the theatre, last night, the "Golden Farmer" and "Andy Blake," were played. The performers won golden opinions from the audience. President Young was in attendance.

Meeting, at 11 a. m. today, was addressed by M. McCune, M. D., and in the afternoon by myself, B. Young, Jr. delivers an address, at the 4th Ward school-house, to-night. High Council met at St. George Hall yesterday. It was a regular meeting, but there was no business on hand. This speaks well for the Bishops and people, who furnish no appeal cases. A meeting of the Directors of the Rio Virgen Manufacturing Company was held in this city last evening. A portion of the new machinery at their Factory, at Washington, was put in successful operation yesterday. GEO. A. SMITH.

SOMETHING NEW.—OPENING OF THE EXCHANGE AND READING ROOMS.—Few of our citizens but are aware of the projected Salt Lake Exchange and Reading Rooms, but how successful the proposed scheme has thus far proven is not generally understood. On Saturday evening last the formal opening was had at the rooms selected by the managers on East Temple street, one door north of Third South street. Both upper and lower stories of the building will be used, but at present only the lower floor is prepared for the uses of the Exchange. On either side this large room are steep desks, upon which rest files of newspapers, local and from various parts of the country. San Francisco, Chicago, Omaha, St. Louis, Boston, Philadelphia and New York are represented in the exchange, and before long the foreign papers will be regularly received. In the body of the room are capacious tables covered with magazines, periodicals and illustrated weekly papers. In the rear of the main room is the office of the Secretary, Benjamin Fabian, Esq., under whose supervision the rooms have been furnished and decorated.

THE OPENING.—As we have said, the formal opening was had on Saturday evening. At an early hour Gen. Morrow and several officers from the post arrived, bringing with them the full brass and string band of the camp, a compliment the better appreciated by the Directors because so entirely unexpected. Then the members of the Exchange, with such friends as had been informally invited, came pouring into the hall until it was more than filled, a fair proportion of the assemblage being made up of ladies. After music by the U. S. band, the company passed into the larger hall where seats had been placed. At the head of the hall a raised platform was occupied by Warren Hussey, Esq., President of the Exchange, A. S. Gould, Esq., orator of the evening, Associate Justice H. M. Hawley and others. In a brief business-like manner, Mr. Hussey introduced the orator, who proceeded to read his ADDRESS.—We regret that lack of space forbids giving the interesting remarks of Mr. Gould in full; but we must be content to lay a very brief synopsis before our readers.

After a flowery introduction, in which the speaker placed himself in the position of special pleader and constituted the audience a jury, he touched upon the objects of the Exchange and Reading Rooms. No city possessing a population of ordinary magnitude and education but has made some effort to establish some institution which may combine the efforts of the people for the development of taste and the country's resources. Particularly was such an institution needed in Salt Lake, and this want it is proposed to supply in the establishment of the Exchange and Reading Rooms. The speaker believed that the antagonism which exists in Salt Lake is unnecessary. Both parties, if they may be so called, have been ever suspicious and exclusive. It will have existed where concert of action and mutual forbearance should have had place, and it is as much to aid in settling the spirit of intolerance as for anything else that the Exchange has been established. With religious matters the Exchange has nothing to do. It proposes to open its doors to all, regardless of what their private convictions may be, and it will be independent because it can respect the honest belief of every one. The Exchange desires the prosperity of Utah, the development of its resources and consolidation of individual effort for these purposes.

The speaker dwelt at some length upon the mineral wealth of the Territory and the causes which have conspired to retard the development of the mines, and closed with a prediction that the future of the State to be, would be as glorious as had ever been dreamed by those sturdy pioneers who cleared and populated Utah when it was an unknown land.

The address was listened to with marked attention, and the orator warmly applauded at its close.

Hon. C. H. Hempstead being called upon, responded at length, and temporarily making a very considerable speech after having announced that he would do nothing of the kind.

THE DANCE.—President Hussey, having announced the termination of the literary exercises, the audience passed down stairs. The room had been cleared and with the music of Camp Douglas discoursing the measured music, it soon became evident that Terpsichore had assumed the direction for the evening. The dance was kept up until the two hands of the Exchange clock pointed to the figure twelve, when clocks and hats were in demand and the company, delighted with the entertainment, sought their several homes.

We must not forget to note that during the evening, Wm. Jennings, Esq., presented the Exchange with a check for $50 as an earnest of his interest in its progress.

The institution is now open and in running order, and the Secretary ready to impart all information as to its object and purposes to such as desire to become members.

THEATRE.—The performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," on Saturday evening was a fine affair in every particular, the actors and actresses acquitting themselves in first class style. Mr. McKenzie as Uncle Tom, Mr. Thorne as George Harris and Lagree, Mr. Margot as Phineas, Mr. Graham as Marks, Miss Adams as Eliza and Cussy, Miss Delle Clawson as Topsy and Miss George Clawson as Eva deserving special mention for their playing was indeed a treat to witness.
