CRISMON OFFERED TO SELL

Matter Was Considered by Waterworks Committee of Council-Looking Into the Title

After having occupied the land at the mouth of Parley's canyon for a reservoir for years, the members of the city council are now confronted with a question as to whether or not the city ever owned the land upon which the reservoir is located. The matter was brought to the attention of the council Monday night by a communication from Charles Crismon who offered to sell the land to the city for $15,000 and offered to arbitrate the matter of damages done to his gravel and shale beds by the construction of several buildings on the land by the city. The matter was referred to the waterworks com-mittee and was considered by the committee last night. Attorney W. H. Bramel appeared be-fore the committee in behalf of Mr. Crismon. It appears that the reservoir site was formed as a second Site was formerly a mill pond for the old Deserct Woolen mill and was built by Mr. Crismon, and the land was fied on by him. He has resided there ever since and claims that the city merely purchased a right of way from him for the Parley's conduit but has never purhased the land on which the reservoir located A. F. Doremus, who was city en A. F. Dorenus, who was city en-gineer at the time the reservoir was constructed, informed the committee that there had been a question raised as to the ownership of the land before but that he understood that Mr. Cris-mon did not file on the land until after the city had accupied it as a reservoir

The question of title to, the land was referred by the committee to the city attorney and the engineer with city attorney and the engineer with instribuctions to report next Monday night at which time it will be decided whether or not the city will have to purchase the land. In the meantime P. J. Moran, who has a contract for fepahring the reservoir at a cost of $15,-600, will not be permitted to start work on the fob. with Excuses were sent in three days saying that Johnnie was sick, but when his report came home his mother inquired about the absent marks and it was then that she went to the teacher and looked at the excuses and declared them forgeries. The matter was then brought to the attention of the juvenile court with the result stated above.

AMUSEMENTS.

The winter course of recitals and lectures inaugurated by the University of Utah opened auspiciously last night. The attraction was the famous baritone Gogorza, and the Methodist church was fairly well filled with a most enthusiastic audience. Gogorza is so admirable a singer that his bearers wonder why he is not located at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, instead of confining his talents to the concert platform. Certainly few of the grand opera baritones excel him, and many do not approach him. His program last night, included songs in five languages, his native Italian, and English, French, German and Spanish. He was perfectly at home in all, and barring a little trip in such words as 'pretty" in the fetching little song, "The Pretty Creature," there was nothing in his accent to denote that he was not English born. He was down for eighteen numbers, but most of them were short, and from the enthusiasm of the audience, one might have judged that it could have sat through the rendition of eighteen more. The program ranged through the grave, gay, and severe, including diffi-cult numbers like the prologue from

"Pagliacci," the rattling factorum song from "The Barber of Seville," the intricate Strauss number "Cacilie," the always tender "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," two bewitching Spanish songs, and the beautiful Kipling verses "Mother O'Mine." Gogorza's ringing voice was at its very best and whether in the dramatic moments, or, in the songs calling for pure tenderness of tone, he satisfied every longing. The song of "The Diver" was an admirable instance of refined feeling. The Eng-iish selection "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" was taken at a little more rapid tempo than when he sang it at the Eames' concert, and we think loses slightly by the change, but Gogorza's work is almost beyond criticism, and it is sufficient to say that the audience was charmed from first to last. He was admirably supported by Wil-

He was admirably supported by war-lard Weihe, who readered two violin solos in his best style, and was re-called both times, and by Arthur Shep-herd, who aced as accompanist in a most capable manner. Indeed, Go-gorza paid Shepherd the tribute of saying that his work at the plano was worderful and at the close when the wonderful, and at the close when the audience remained to applaud the sin-ger to the echo, he insisted on the accomponist rising and sharing the plandes with him.

Frior to the program, Prof. Cum-mings of the University of Utah fac-uity made a brief address, announcing the recital and lecture course.

The next attraction will be the sensational comed dock Bitters made me frama entitled "A Man Without a Grand—A large and enthusiastic audience last night witnessed the open-ing performance of Mr. Theodore Lorch's concluding engagement, for the present, in Salt Lake. "A Lion's Heart" was the Bill, and the manner in which it was played by the popular actor, by Miss Deffry, the talented leading lady, with an evenly balanced company, was highly pleasing to the people present, who were very liberal in the applause given to the principals. Interest in Mr. Lorch and his company has been steadi-ly growing since the opening of the engagement, and it is safe to say that they could draw a heavy patronage to Bostonia Sextette Club with Shanna 'umming, November 26, M. WOUNDS, BRUISES AND BURNS. By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Cham-berlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is antiseptic and when applied to such highrles, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and sources and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the in-convenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by all druggists,

TROUBLES OF HARPER FAMILY. Mother Sent to Mental Hospital; Son

To Industrial School.

The domestic troubles in the family of R. B. Harper, a master steamfitter, received the attention of the juvenile court and the district court yesterday, with the result that Mrs. Harper was examined as to her saulty before Judge Armstrong and was committed to the State Mental hospital at Provo, and her 16-year-old son, Arlie, was committed to the state industrial school at Ogto the state industrial school at Og-den by the judge of the juvenile court. The mother, in her demented condition, did not realize that her son had been committed to the industrial school when she bade him goodbye at the county jail last night, and was taken to Provo

According to the evidence in the ju-venile court, the father of the boy had some trouble with the union some time ago and was placed on the black-list, He was thus unable to secure work at his trade and was soon placed in very straightened circumstances, and was unable to provide for his family. The boy because unable boy became unruly and caronaed around with bad companions and drank a great deal. Mrs. Harper brooded over their troubles until her mind be-came weakened and it became necessary for her to be sent to the mental hospital. The boy declared to the juvenile court that his father simply wanted to get rid of both he and his mother, and pleaded with the judge not to send him to Ogden. A further investigation into his case will be made by the juvenile court, and the lad may be sent to the Camyon Crest farm or may be placed at work where he can be watched by the probation officer.

Over 200 Guests Were Entertained by Antlered Herd.

'The Elks' club house was well filled last evening, on the occasion of the first social of the season. There were over 200 guests present, and the entire house was thrown open, with Christenson's orchestra to furnish music, until midnight. There was dancing, card playing, billiards and bowling, and the entertainment comcittee certainly made a success of the evening. The decorations were in purple and white.

Before going into the marble palace business on a large scale they want to further test the stone, as this is the first time in Utah a marble deposit has opened up with prospects of furnishing really high grade rock, W. S. Lam-oreaux who with Moses Thatcher and H. E. Hatch, is interested in getting the sione quarry opened, brought a couple of samples of polished marble to Salt Lake this morning. One is of a black texture, and the other of mottled white and purple. Both are very bestutiful, and experts who have looked them over pronounce them of highest quality, the Mr. Lamoreaux said that he was ne gotiating a first order of the stone with Nephi L. Morris, for use in Salt Lake. He is very hopeful of the future of the proposition, and is convinced that Utab has another field in which money can be kept at home to take riches out of the soil. The company has bought from the state a tract of 1,500 acres of land in the vicinity of the deposits, and owned the land be fore the deposits were thought to be of any value, the original intention being to operate a saw mill, which was ac-tually installed eight years ago on the property.
