

JUNCTION CITY NEWS.

A Gentleman Meets With a Shocking and Fatal Accident.

PREPARING FOR COLUMBUS DAY.

Deaths in Judge Miers' Court.—The Almond Smasher, Sheepskin.—The Rhodes Williams Fight.

Globe "Scandals."

Stager Phillips, the nineteen-year-old son of W. H. Phillips, a resident of the San Joaquin Pacific, was last night about 10 o'clock shot from the top of a telegraph pole by a passing train. He was instantly killed, four men having been present at the time. Phillips had been exploring the country just west of his home when he was shot. His body was found near the scene yesterday morning. His wife, J. E. Cooper, of American Park, has based Columbus offerings on one thousand dollars.

The body of "Nest" was recovered last night at the Greek Haven.

Frank Ober, small time capitalist, is from Ashby, his present home.

The Board of Education held a meeting last night and appointed county heads of boards. The lack of school room accommodations is especially demanding the attention of the board. A new school house in the south part of the city has been completed, but it is questionable whether this will be equal to all requirements.

Philo, Oct. 20, 1892.—The following business was yesterday transacted by the court of the District court:

The arguments in the case of the United States vs. J. J. Dow, accused Indian policeman, were concluded, and the case was submitted to the jury. After being out nearly the whole of the day the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Ed. A. Day withdrew his plea of not guilty and entered one of guilty to the charge of robbery. As his wife was 22 years old and required his attention, the court adjourned without further action.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892. The sentence of bonds was ordered, and new bonds were fixed at $10,000.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

Utah City and Weber county will appropriately celebrate Columbus day tomorrow. The Indians of the Eastern Grand Army of the Republic and Parrot Head academy, and after holding several meetings the combined forces formulated a splendid program, which will be followed by patriotic songs, singing, inspection and drill of the various fire departments, speeches, singing, pledging and saluting the flag and many other exercises. The city and county schools will be closed.

The Indians of the Tenth Cavalry will be gathered in the rear of the temple buildings and conduct in time for the children to take part in the parade which moves promptly at 10 o'clock. The Western Heart, Weber Stake, New West and other amateur units will also enter the city during the day and the programs which have been prepared are of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

Sheriff Peeler left last night for Davis Millard county, in response to a request from the officers of that place that they had captured and had the sheriff wanted for stealing a dapple gray horse a harness and buggy, the former the property of D. W. Peeler, Lodi, and the latter of James H. Gandy, of the same place.

Henry Beck, a young man about 18 years of age, at approximately a few days after three hours from a house in the fall, murdered him unmercifully, in which condition he remained until Tuesday. The day before Dr. Shatto, his attorney, received him in consultation, and obtained his confession. His act is still very critical.

The Democrats of this city have nominated the following candidates for general offices: Justice of the peace, R. A. Wedgewood and V. O. Alexander; for constable, William Strong and John Warner.

Prizes welcome among the participants and Dr. J. H. Johnson, former of the Salt Lake City, was to be succeeded with W. W. Taylor and Dr. Marbury will occupy the building with Dr. Peeler just vacated.

The Pleasant Grove city council have indulged the right of control over the flowing streams of Pleasant Grove, and now meeting of citizens has been held to consider the matter, and a committee of nine was appointed to draw resolutions in regard to incorporating, and the best means of effecting an incorporation of citizens for the control of irrigating water. Another meeting will soon be held.

A. H. in the drug store of Dr. Peeler of Pleasant Grove, was yesterday morning checked in his conscience.

It is expected that a large number of Utah people will be in Pleasant Grove Friday and attend for the annual festival in the Salt Lake Tabernacle.

On Saturday.

Pleasant Groves citizens this morning observed a couple of men whom they thought were acting suspiciously. They entered a pawnbroker's shop and tried to secure a small sum, giving no account that one of them carried a bundle under his arm as security.

The officer placed the men under arrest, charging them with petit larceny, investigating they had stolen the money, secured the police station, and said that they were doing some great injustice. They were, however, put behind the bars, where they await judgment hearing. They gave their names as E. H. Hughes and John Day.

PROVO LETTER.

Chief Clerk Intelligence and Paragraphs of General Interest.

Accident of the (Continued from page 1)

Provo, Oct. 18.—Achilles Gray was found dead by drowning in a slender, thin sailor's garment hanging to his mother. The line was made thus tight when Gray got possession of the sailor's suit.

About three hundred people attended the Utah Athletic club rooms and evening to witness the fight between 20 pounds of John D. and Henry Williams, the Salt Lake champion. Williams was 200 and 2100 pounds. Eighty rounds were fought and Williams was knocked out, having been severely injured by his opponent.

ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED.

Allen T. Park Found Dead in Big Creek, Near His Home.

Mr. Allen T. Park, of Mill Creek, was drowned in the waters of the Big Creek, which runs through his residence. Mr. Park lived near the banks of the Big Creek and yesterday morning was about 7 o'clock and a little later left the house with a gun for the barn yard, to kill his hawks as was his daily custom. He did not return, however, and his wife became alarmed and went to search him. Falling in her efforts she was joined by her neighbors and it was found that he had been drowned in the stream, not more than twenty rods from his house, his feet being held in a clutch of willows.

It is believed he had accidentally fallen into the creek and that he was carried to where he was found by the force of the current. The deceased leaves a wife and three children. His family services will be held at his residence at 2 o'clock tomorrow.

Another Business Failure.

In addition to the assignment of Adler & Son, as mentioned in last evening's News, the Workington Co., situated at the corner of First South and Third West streets, was assigned. The paper said in the usual manner that the firm showed the usual difficulties as follows:

An acre of land in Tooele county, forty acres, natural lighting and a delivery wagon, also all goods, wares, merchandise, consisting of a full stock of groceries and general merchandise, with fixtures and the amount of which is not known.

The business was given up because the firm had no capital.

The business was given up because the firm had no capital.

Other debts amount to $1,000. The assignee is Charles Sams.

Amusements.

The opening performance of the Union Russell comic opera company, place at the Theater, taught by "The Chorus," Adrain's "Inland Opera," this place will be reported tomorrow, to be followed by "The Musical Comedy," and "The Standard," which are always most interesting and well-entertaining.

The air is free from malaria, is bright with the rising sun, and generally clear, though the weather is not so favorable as to make it a good day for outdoor sports.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jenny Lind, and the appearance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be displayed on all streets and public buildings and the city will take part in the anniversary.

In preparation made by Mayor Turner there will be a practical observance of these during part of the day and many business houses will give their employees the day off. The organization, officials, business and citizens will all participate in the observance of the day.

SHERIFF.

This week's performances include, according to announcement, Prof. George Cram, with the assistance of Miss Jessie Bond, and the musical comedy "Cape Charles." Miss Bond, a special company, plays at the theater.

Orson F. Whiting is among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

At the Tabernacle

tomorrow the great concert will be given, as previously announced. A speech by Chief Justice Hale and the resignation of an original poem by Bishop Orson F. Whiting are among the great attractions of the program. The entertainment will be given at 2 and 4 p.m. at 8 o'clock p.m. and one ticket admits to both.

W. W. Evans was arraigned on a charge of piracy committed on May 11, 1891, in the U.S. Justice Parks of the Southern District of New York. He pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for Oct. 26, 1892.

The case of the United States vs. Samuel Allsworth and Sarah Whitehead, deceased, was tried. The case is notorious one. Allsworth and Miss Whitehead are accused of being the instigators of the massacre of the Sioux Indians in the Black Hills of South Dakota in 1877, while a fourth man was also indicted for the killing of the women and the programme which have been the subject of unusual interest. Flags will be