EDITORIAL NOTES.

The silver bill has become a law. Both Houses of Congress have passed the bill over the President's veto. Silver is master of the situation; let the "Gold-bugs" sleep.

The telephone has been introduced into the House of Commons and the London Daily News has said parliamentary reports transmuted by this method. The adoption of this instrument is rapid throughout the civilized world.

Almonds are becoming a productive crop in California. It is said they will grow where the peach will flourish. Utah should be a good almond district. One grove in California had 13,000 pounds last year's crop, worth at $1.50 per pound.

The "hell" controversy still now to subside. The school desecrating society of a small district in Clark County, Kentucky, have decided definitely that there is a hell. They will soon settle the question of the nature of eternal punishment when the theologians retire and take a rest.

Philip C. Bell, a New York upholsterer, had at different times six persons from drowning. Six times he risked his own life to save that of others. On the instant, he was presented with a broad-some gold medal worth $200. It was given by the Treasury Department at Washington and presented by the Mayor of New York.

A Boston confectioner has been found guilty of adulterating candy with chrome of lead. In his defense he showed that English candy manufacturers used it extensively, and that chrome yellow was used by every large confectionery establishment in New York. Fancy candy stores, if you must have such things, don't patronize the pretty but poisonous dainties full of deadly temptation.

One million, three hundred and thirty-nine thousand, three hundred and thirty-three dogs were taxed in Great Britain last year, netting about $1,750,000 to the government treasury. Yet it is contended that this is only about a third of the amount which would have been paid if the tax on all the dogs had been collected. Four million dogs in a large number. No wonder there has been so much barking in Britain during the Russo-Turkish war.

The Popular Science Monthly for March contains, as usual, a number of very interesting and well-written articles, among the chief of which are the second part of "Evolution of Ceremonial Government" by Herbert Spencer, and the second part of "Spontaneous Generation" by Professor Tyndall. This excellent magazine is always present with suggestive matter and frequently sound and readable articles. It can be obtained, other current literature, Dwyer's.

"LIBERAL" DESPOTISM.
THEIR has been a great deal of nonsensical talk about despots in Utah. Priestly tyranny and bondage of women have been presented as the prevailing characteristics of model life in this Territory. They have formed the subject of the newspaper correspondent, the political office-seeker, and the pietistic preacher, seeking for "sisters to aid in Christianizing the "Mormons."

But there has been no actual tyranny in Utah which is at all comparable to that exercised by a portion of the so-called "Liberal" party. Neither has there ever been among the ungodly scoundrels of the "orthodox" Church anything like their Jewish subversives and successors of Judah, exalted by certain ravilers of the "Mormons" under the lash of their appointed censors and dictators. This tyranny has for no time past extended not only to political matters, but to social interests and private affairs. The ungodly of Utah must sign all manner of documents before they can get into Congress however ridiculous and contrary to his sense propriety they may be, subscribe in all funds started by them in aid of crusades against the "Mormons," support all the monstrous intrigues fomented from a blackguard priest or the platform of a rabble-assembly, and snuff, when the clique takes snuff, or be branded with the terrible name of "Jack-Mormon," suffer the abuse of literary scoundrels and the plottings of unscrupulous adventurers.

If in official position he may not be seen speaking to a "Mormon," much less entering a house where any "Mormon" resides, if brought into business contact with any of the people who make the Territory he must treat the with discounting or supercilious contempt. Falling in such a case he may expect the vengeance of the clique and look out for what effect his removal from office.

Men of education and previous respectability have been woman enough to submit to this, and bow down in the dust under the yoke of these "Liberal" vagabonds and yet they will talk about bondage of the "Mormons." We have drawn the words for the sake of principle, and when the field of authority do as from hell for the accomplishment of objects which are dearest to them, they live.

The howl that has been raised during the past few days again.

Governor Emery for simply changing the duties of his office, show to what lengths these "Liberal" dictators will go to keep up their degrading despotism. Is it not true that the best portion of the non-Mormon element should cut entirely loose from these galling bonds and practice a little of that freedom which they prize of the "Mormons?" The epithet "Jack-Mormon" with which they are threatened seems to paralyze them with terror. The fear of abuse from a licentious press seems to take all the stiffness out of their backbones, and men who have been brave in the face of whistling bullets and gleaming steel become the veriest cowards at the shadow of the "Liberal" whip. They should be ashamed of such pandering to the creatures who have assumed to control them, and be determined to bow no more to their unprincipled masters.

We hope to see the predictable portion of the non-Mormons of Utah make a stand against the despotic clique from whom comes the abuse of the "Mormon" people. It is emanated, and while contending against anything which they honestly consider improper or untrue, have the manhood and the courage to endorse measures or principles which are for the public good, even if they are brought forth by the maligned and unpopular "Mormons." Until they do so they should never open their lips about "despotism in Utah."

Purchase of the Panama Transit Co. by the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.

NEW YORK, 28.—The World says the protracted negotiations between the Pacific Mail Steamship Co. and the Panama Transit Co., for the purchase of the property of the latter company by the former, were concluded yesterday afternoon.

Rauf Pasha, minister of war, has thanked the Grand Duke Nicholas for the excellence of his arrangements. Crowds of visitors and policy makers, from Constantinople, are seen in the Russian camp daily.

It is confidently stated that 45,000 troops are ready to start from Bombay at short notice.

The Elswick ordnance works were recently ordered to manufacture one hundred torpedoes for the government, with unusual speed. The order has been increased to 500.

A Vienna correspondent states that the Russian concession touching the limits and length of the occupation of Bulgaria, is quite sufficient, with the understanding of the Austrian government to give more confidence. Austria is content for the moment, and looks to the conference for the rest.

Another correspondent writes.

The extension of the principality of Bulgaria to the Egean Sea would practically mean the securing of a naval station for Russia, just as the grant of a port to Montenegro would mean a Russian naval station in the Adriatic.

Still another telegraph says the position appears extremely critical. Notwithstanding the tranquilizing utterances of the ministerial papers concerning the progress of the conference, it is regarded in Austrian political circles as advanced, sic sic die.

A Berlin dispatch says the conference has entirely failed.

GEORGIA.

THE ESKERS QUESTION.

LONDON, 28.—The Standard, in a leading article, says: All that is really implied by the election of Lord Napier of Magdala, as commander-in-chief, and Sir Garnet Wolseley his chief of staff, is that the terms of peace, if unmeasured, cannot be sanctioned by England.

We have been brought face to face with war by the arrogant and aggressive policy of Russia.

The Standard publishes another article discussing the probable landing places of the British force near the Suez Canal.

The writer thinks Berlin has the most probable place.

This is the opinion of the non-Mormon element.

The morning papers repeat yesterday's announcement of the appointment of Lord Napier and Geo. Welby, now giving it on authority.

The brigade of guards has been raised to the strength of 500 miles of telegraph wire, with temporary material necessary to construct temporary rail ways for the conveyance of stores and mounting heavy guns in siege works.

The war office has ordered that no soldiers shall be transferred to India until further instructions.

The Duke of Cambridge will personally inspect the recruits at Aldershot on Friday.

The Russian and Turkish lines at San Stefano are separated by a little river, the Karsus. The Russian and Turkish sentinels stand at either end of the bridge, one hundred feet long. The officers and men of the two armies fraternize in the most remarkable manner.

Rauf Pasha, minister of war, has thanked the Grand Duke Nicholas for the excellence of his arrangements.
