narcotic and the wonder is that he is now alive. He looks like a man that has been under much distress of some kind, as his features have become attenuated, and his form very thin, but he has improved rapidly since he arrived in Salt Lake. He says the report that he was doing the tenderloin to get material, to lecture on, is false, that his friends got into that district at all. His friends say that on arriving in San Francisco from Ben Lomond, he was arrested on a hotel on a resolution, in the very heart of that region infested by the toughest characters on the Pacific coast, of $100, which makes the object of his being drugged very palpable, and never regained consciousness until he got in the hospital. The Walkers then had him removed to a private sanitarium, and as soon as he was able sent him on home in charge of a friend. Although the young man is recovering rapidly, it will be some time before he will be able to see any one.

REJECTED THE BIDS.

Public Works Considered Priced for Iron Pipe Altogether Too High.

The bids of P. J. Moran and Midgley Bros. for supplying 5,600 feet of six-inch iron pipe have been rejected by the board of public works for the reason that they were considered altogether too high.

Partial estimates of City Engineer Kelsey to contractors were approved as follows: P. J. Moran, $7,500.50, for laying water mains in the western part of the city, and $1,074.60 on sundry water-main extensions; Excelsior Wooden Pipe company, $3,254.95, building reservoir. This makes $24,423.99 paid on its contract of $25,724.

REFUSED DENTAL LICENSE.

Miss Rose E. Bywater Petitions Court for a Writ of Mandate.

Directed Against State Board of Dental Examiners in Allegations of Complaint.

Miss Rose Ellen Bywater has petitioned the district court for a writ of mandamus directed against the State board of dental examiners to compel that body to issue to her a certificate to practice dentistry in Utah.

The complaint sets forth that on April 5, 1900, plaintiff made application to the defendant for a license to practice dentistry, and that she appeared before one of the members of the board at Ogden and answered 104 questions, some of which were in departments of knowledge as provided by statute for such examinations, and some were not.

Other applicants, petitioners says, were examined before the board in Salt Lake, all passing but one. The lady then goes on to say that she possesses all the qualifications necessary to entitle her to a certificate, but that the secretary of the board, after her Ogden experience, wrote her petition, that she had failed in the examination. Another letter threatened her with prosecution if she continued to qualify herself further.

Both letters, Miss Bywater says, were abusive and insolent and showed malice and prejudice on the part of the board membership. When the secretary of the board was asked by Miss Bywater's attorney to let him see the record of his refusal, the plaintiff was given a writ of mandamus directing the board to give her access to the records in question; also that the board be enjoined from making any additions or changes in the record as it now stands.

The members of the State dental board of examiners are W. H. Bucher, J. W. Thatcher, J. F. Snelaker, W. S. Chapman and George E. Ellerbeck.

MEET IN CITY PRECINCTS.

Majority of Names Selected Were Passed Upon by Acclamation—County Committees.

The Republican delegations of the five precincts in this city met last night and nominated candidates for justice of the peace and constable. Each precinct also nominated one member for each of the committees on credentials, permanent organization and order of business, and platform and resolutions, and two members of the county committee. The various nominations were for the major part made by acclamation, and the meetings were marked by harmony and dispatch.

FIRST PRECINCT.

Peter Lochrie for Justice of the Peace, and W. F. Hills Constable.

The city and county building was the scene of the first precinct convention last night, on which occasion Peter Lochrie and W. F. Hills were respectively nominated for justice of the peace and constable.

For precinct chairman, Joseph Weiler, and for secretary, Joseph McKnight were named by acclamation.

In the third precinct last night there were three nominees with a big percentage of those named declining the honor. Finally Mr. W. A. Holman received the nomination by acclamation for justice of the peace.

The nomination for constable brought out a number of names which included those of W. M. Elliott, Fred Gatehouse, E. B. Taylor, James H. Haslam and Hans Christopherson, who one and all declined the nomination as soon as their names were presented to the convention. Finally John E. Jones was induced to take the nomination.

F. M. Ringey was selected as a member of the committee on credentials for the county convention; H. E. Booth on platform and resolutions; M. W. Taylor on permanent organization and order of business. Frank M. Matthews and James H. Haslam were elected members of the county committee over A. F. Doremus and Hans Christopherson.

George Spencer was named as chairman of the precinct committee and T. L. Irvine as secretary.

The convention then proceeded to nominate by acclamation the following as members of the committees at the county convention: Credentials, J. D. Adams; permanent organization and order of business, D. H. Wenger; resolutions, Judge A. C. Bishop.

LEGACY TO ROWLAND HALL.

Episcopal Institution Receives a Gift of $33,000—Felix Brunot the Giver.

Felix R. Brunot, a wealthy citizen of Pittsburgh, Pa., who died a year or so ago, bequeathed to Rowland Hall the sum of $33,000. The tardiness with which the gift was presented is due to the fact that the estate of Brunot was not administered until recently, when a distribution of the property was ordered. Bishop Leonard has received notice that the legacy will be sent on within a few days. This gift, the bishop says, comes as a godsend to the institution as it will enable the trustees to make the improvements on the building, and affords means for the putting in of more facilities and apparatus.

Rowland hall is only one out of eight Episcopal schools throughout the West and South.

SPANISH FORK EISTEDDFOD.

Name of Governor Wells and Others in Welsh-American Newspaper.

The Welsh, the American organ of the Welsh people, published every week in Utica, N. Y., under date of September 6th, contains a splendid account of the recent Spanish Fork Eisteddfod. The article is from the pen of John J. Davies, (Jean Ddu) the chief bard of Utah. Governor Wells and the other festive notable are all kindly spoken of, though it is doubtful if any of them would recognize their names in Welsh, to say nothing of being able to translate into English what the paper says about them.

"DOC" KESSLER RELEASED.

Aged Slayer of Private Niebergall Liberated from State Prison.

Daniel Kessler, otherwise known as "Doc" Kessler, convicted in November, 1896, of murder in the second degree for the killing of a Fort Douglas soldier named Niebergall and afterwards sentenced to six years in the State prison, was released from Warden Dow's place yesterday. The shooting occurred at 10 o'clock on the night of Sunday, March 24, 1896, at the corner of Sixth and Eighth East streets. Jealousy was supposed to be the motive for the crime. Kessler, who is quite an aged man, stoutly maintained his innocence all the way through, and said he was a victim of circumstances. He was given two trials, and each time was found guilty of murder in the second degree. His first sentence was fourteen years, and the second six years. Altogether he served three years and six months. The old fellow is quite feeble, and feels thankful for his release.
