Not Even Commenced.

London, Jan. 12 .- The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Mail, wiring January 11th, says that negotiations or the release of the American captive Miss Stone, and her companion. Mme. Tsilka, have not yet been opened with brigands.

M. Gargiulli, the dragoman of the American legation, and W. W. Peet, tressurer of the missionary society in Constantinople (who have left Salon-ika for the interior to meet Miss Stone's captors), have been instructed according to the correspondent, to ne gotiate only with persons bringing letters from Miss Stone, without which it would be impossible to be certain that the prisoners were still alive.

New York, Jan. 13 .- A movement for the fitting celebration of the pontificia silver jubilee of Pope Leo XII, which will take place this year, is now on foot in all parts of the world. Elaborate preparations for the coming celebration already making in England and wil soon be begun in this country. Copies of the appeal just issued in England heive been received at the house Archbishop Corrigan in this city.

Rally 'Round Redmond.

London, Jan. 12 .- The Dublin corre spondent of the Sunday Observer de-clares that the national convention of the United Irish league, which opened in Dublin January 8th, was a great success and that it was the first Irish gathering in that city since the death of Parnell that was really inspired by a spirit of unity as Parnell understood them.

"No one present," says the Sunday Observer, "could fail to note the firm holl that John Redmond had got on the country and no question of an alternative chairman was ever thought of. He was undoubtedly more gen-

New York, Jan. 13 .- The Rev. Dr. Louis Albert Banks, at the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, in a recent sermon, said in part:

"The one poet now living who has the power to speak to world-wide audiences is Rudyard Kiping. And most of us feel that the man who wrote the "Re-cessional' and "The White Man's Burlen' has fairly won the right. But there are millions of his admirers who feel that in the poems relating to the South African war there has been alost a prostitution of his great gifts.

In Mr. Kipling's most recent poem which is a severe arraignment of the English people for lack of loyalty and devotion in pressing the war against the Boers, the line which has caught the popular eye and ear more than any other is the one which calls for public contempt on "The Flanneled Fools at the Wicket.' His point of view is evidently that a man is a light-headed, light-hearted fool who gives himself up to sport and idle jollity when his coun-try needs is service to stop bullets in the Transvaal. But the intelligent middle class Englishmen has not great enthusiasm about the war in South Afri-ca. It does not appeal to his sense of justice or humanity. England is learning what all nations must learn soon

a Buffalo Fire.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 12 .- Henry Pearlstein, his wife and five children, ranging in age from 114 to 12 years, were burned to death early today in a fire that destroyed a two-story frame building. Joseph Supowski, who owned the building, and Karl Bracki, his brotherin-law, have been arrested pending an investigation. Supowski carried an in-surance of $9,000 on the building and

The Pearlsteins and another family lived in rooms above a shoe store and were asleep when the fire started. Supowski told the police today that he accidentally dropped a lamp.

A few minutes after the fire began there was a loud explosion that blew out the front of the building and hurled some of the contents of the store into the middle of the street. Plate-glass windows on the opposite of Broadway were shattered by the explosion and the report was heard two blocks away. The flames enveloped the building in a short time. The family living in the rear flat barely escaped with their lives. The Pearlsteins were awakened, but before they could reach the only stair-way leading from their rooms, the fire had undermined the floor in the hall-way, and it collapsed, carrying them down into a mass of flames. Their charred bodies were found at 8 o'clock, four hours after the firemen had extinguished the flames.

The body of the mother and baby were found together, the little one clasped in its mother's arms. Pearlstein's body was found close to that of his wife. He also held one of the children in his arms. The bodies of the other three children were found huddled together close to the father's body.

Mr. Schieren said: "I think 1 ince Henry should be wel-comed appropriately by the city and the nation, not only because of the graceful courtesy on the Kaiser's part in inviting Miss Roosevelt to christen his new yacht, but more capecially in view of the very pleasant relations ex-isting between this country and Germany. Whatever the German-Ameri-can citzens may decide to do will be done in harmoulous co-operation with the city at large."

Against Arbitration.

Mexico City, Jan. 12 .- The meetings fixed for this morning between the rep-resentatives of the American, Mexican, Argentine and Peruvian delegations to the Pan-American conference for the purpose of definitely settling the ar-bitration dispute did not take place. the Mexican representatives having asked for a further postponement or account of not being able to consult with President Diaz, who is absent from the city.

In the meantime the Argentines and their friends are getting tired of de lays, and say that if they are proonged beyond a reasonable point they will take them as equivalent to a definite rejection of their claims to have the compulsory plan passed through the conference and will therefore withiraw.

The Chileans, on the other hand, have not abated their demand that the compulsory plan shall not be reported to the conference, and they drop all sorts of mysterious hints about what they will do if it is. The Chileans
