Daylight burglars yesterday after-100n ransacked the home of Mrs. Isahelle Shepherd in east Eighth South street, securing two gold watches, a diamond scarf pin and about $7 in cash. Sixty dollars in currency, se-creted in a hat, and belonging to Mrs. Lydia Brown, a sister of Mrs. Shep-herd, was overlooked by the thieves. The home was entered during the ab-

Rector to Discuss Play—Rector C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's church will speak this evening in Federation hall on "The Servant in the House." Liquor licenses were increased from $750 to $1,200 a year in the county yesterday by the county commissioners when a new saloon ordinance was passed placing more stringent regula-tions on the saloons. This will add something like $16,000 to the revenue of the county if the conditions remain the same. The Sunday closing law will also be enforced to the letter. It is extend that tweathirds of the Leave For the Fair-Henry Gardne of the Utah commission for the Yukon frin, and Mrs. Gardner, left last night, for Seattle to be present prior to the opening of the fair. Badgers Meet Tonight—The Badger club meets this evening at the Com-mercial club to arrange for entertain-ment of Wisconsin veterans in the It is stated that two-thirds of the saloons in the county are owned by the Salt Lake Brewery company. The total wavenue, in the total revenue from the salpons in the county is now $27,600 but under the new ordinance it will be $43,000. The proposition to incorporate Bingham Junction as the city of Midvale, will take some of the revenue from the county. The commissioners are considering Auto Ride For Children—The Free Kindergartan children were given a two hours automobile ride around town yesterday by President Lane of the Bell Telephone company and Col. The commissioners are considering a plan to place a telephone exchange in the building on the county's side. The cost of the installation of the ex-change has not been figured out yet but it is believed it will be cheaper

MAY REQUIRE NEW SITE.

The Baptist church people have made such changes in the plans of their proposed new church edifice that it may be necessary to seek another location than the one intended, at Second South and Fourth East streets. The church has grown so rapidly since the consoli-dation of the two Baptist congregations into the Emanual organization that a material enlargement of the original plans has been found necessary. an enlargement that the lot mentioned canot well conform to.
