Court Decision There Classes Them With Public Nulsances That Need Removing-

That the coming spring will grow another erop of protests against Suit Lake's billboard stands is a practical

Interest in the civic wolfabe of the city is growing capidly, and the num her of people who are ready to take up questions affecting its beaulification, is larger now that ever before The Civic league, which flourissed on the Galveston Idea of government, le now preparing for another crushde against the billboards.

now preparing for another cluster fighting the billboards. The league carried on something of a warfare last year, and the renewal of hope at this time comes from a Col-lier's editorial series, giving various views of the billboard, including a California court decision to the effect that they are a nuisance for the same reason that a purely would be, placed up against the public street.

DO THEY PAY.

One paragraph of this crusade in-norporates the following letter on whether or not billbourd advertising morporates the information provides the information of the pays:

"An infimential editor in the west wrote to an inquirze a lotter of which the following is an extrant."
"Billboard anyertheling doesn't pay. We can base that on our own experience. Of course, we have been opposed to the billboard unisance, and perhaps ought not to have yielded to the softer of some advertising of that kind on a special foame of the Sunda.
We special foam our experience that if does not perhaps ought not to have yielded to the softer of some advertising in the effect of some advertising it takes a not not available for an experience that if does not perhaps not perhaps on the softer of some advertising is an of that kind or advertising is not only a nisance but does not give returns.
"If billboard advertising is had busines will make it worse."

EFFECT ON BEAUTY.

EFFECT ON BEAUTY. This is followed by a desseriation on the general subject of nature's beauty in which the argument is advances that the beatules of Athens could not have made themselves so keenly feit in architecture, sculpture and art "If signboards of corsets bad obscured the landscape of Greace." Orson Hewlett, a member of the Civic league board of managers, de-clared today that the former agitation against billboards would be resumed at once, and that with it agitation for other improvements calculated to make Sait Lake a better city will be com-menced.

menced. The league last year worked hard to secure the paying of Sixth East street in its present form of a macadam drive-way with its parked center.
