LOCAL BASEBALL IS ON THE ROCKS.

The Pacific National League is Even Now Being Dashed to Fragments.

SALT LAKE HELD RESPONSIBLE.

Has Sold Three Star Men, Tozier, Weed And Muller to Shreeveport, Louisiana.

TWO LAST NAMED REFUSE TO GO.

Announcement Causes Excitement and There May be no Game This Afternoon-Story of the Deal.

The Pacific National League is due to fall to pieces this week unless Helena steps into the breach and Boise keeps a stiff upper lip

The coming catastrophe was predicted 10 days ago when Salt Lake endeavored to get from under and dispose of three of her best men to Shreveport, La. She placed her men all right and today Weed, the best third baseman in the league, and Muller the star outflelder have changer hands for the consideration of $500. Tozier also is slated for sale to the same club, if the sale has not been already made.

Weed and Muller today declined to go and accordingly were suspended and fined all that was coming to them in salaries-in all about $300. They consequently will not appear against Butte this afternoon.

Had Manager Wilmot of Butte been aware of the state of affairs he would not have brought his team to Salt Lake on this trip. It is lso confidently predicted that Bolse will not be on hand Tuesday next and that, as far as Salt Lake is concerned, the league is now in the course of dissolution

The contracts of Weed, Muller and Tozier of Salt Lake have been placed in the safety deposit vault at the Deseret National bank. As far as the first two men are concerned they do not belong to Salt Lake, they are the property of Shreveport. Just as roon as they sign the papers Salt Lake will get .the money which has been wired to the While Tozier is willing to go the other two men are holding out for higher salaries with Shreveport and W. T. Crawford, president of the club, is in communication with them. At first the two named expressed the desire to go, but it was the wire of Crawford which changed their minds. They think they can get bigger money by holding out. This the boys deny and state that they have been treated shabbily.

On the other hand free transportation and part of the sale money was offered to them by the treasurer, as well as half of the fare of Mrs. Weed to Whittier, Cal., her home, Weed, however, now refuses to go and in consequence loses two and a half months' back pay coming to him.

The life of the Salt Lake nine has been a very thorny highway. The club has been losing money for some time. With a salary list of $2,300 a month it has been dropping behind right along and now that Mr. Newhouse gone to Europe, there is no one to throw out the life line. Mr. Newhouse is credited with having sunk several thousand dollars in an effort to give Salt Lake good ball, while five other gentlemen have gone it from $100 to $250 apiece on the venture The big army of critics, knockers and kickers have been content to put up their 50 cents only and then roar with an exceeding strenuous complaint,

Among other things it might be mentioned that Mr. Meredith, the famous southpaw, who failed to materialize, cost the club $900, Hannivan $200, and others purchased along similar lines.

It is believed that Weed and Muller will eventually go to Shreveport, as there is no alternative for them unless they desire to be blacklisted.

Weed, however, this afternoon stated that he was through with baseball, and if he could only get enough money to get himself and his wife out of town and home he would quit baseball and go to work. "I have had enough of it," he said. "You work yourself to death, and then get thrown down." What Muller said would not look well in print. "I have done my best to please the crowd and worked like here he became obsolutely vehement it his language.

SALT LAKE ANTLER RETURNS HOME.

Joe Enzensperger Back from the Elks' Convention at Cincinnati, Ohio.

Gathering Was One of the Most Pleasant Ever Held by the B. P. O. E.

Joe Enzensperger, de legate from Elks lodge No. 85 of this city to the annual convention at Cincinnati, returned yesterday, from his official pilgrimage, mightily pleased with his trip. He says it was the greatest convention in the history of the order. There were registered as present 1,346 grand lodge Elks, and the parade included 45,000 Elks. During the parade, one might look north, east, south and west from Fountain Square, and nothing could be seen but vast seas of faces. But the direction of the parade was admirable, and with all of those thousands, no one was injured, though, of course there were occasional instances of collapses from the heat. And for this there was ample provision. The committee of arrangements left no stone unturned in the matters of detail, and hospital conveniences were ready at a moment's call, ice water and other emergency aids were within immediate reach, so that the instant a fainting person was noted an ambulance was straightway on the spot, and the sufferer hurried to the nearest hos-

Mr. Enzensperger says that the procession was two hours and 20 minutes in passing a given point, of the 935 lodges, 600 being represented. The police arrangements were admirable Mounted police and police patrols marched ahead for the full width of the streets and acted as a sort of mowing machine to clear the roadways, so that the paraders were not interfered with by the crowds. The first prize of the parade was taken by the Covington lodge whose members appeared attired as Kentucky colonels. Every colonel was six feet and over. The Philadelphia Elks came next attired in the garb of Quakers; and the Louisville lodge appeared as Uncle Sams. Marked ingenuity was displayed in the general styles of garb, so that the crowds were never tired of looking. The Nashville lodge paraded in the uniforms of horse jockeys. Mr. Enzensperger says that the pro-

The Elks wanted for nothing. A feature of the occasion was the 11 p. m. meeting at Fountain square, when for onfe moment as the town clock struck the hour of 11, everybody in Cincinnati stood stock still. Mr. Enzensperger says he never saw anything. zensperger says he never saw anything more impressive in all of his life.

THE CHORAL CONTESTS.

Prof. Ap Madoc Writes to County Clerk James Concerning Them.

County Clerk James is in receipt of letter from Prof. William ApMadoc. dated Chicago, July 22, in which he refers to the choral contests at the world's fair. The professor says that only nine choirs competed for the $16,000 offered in prizes, when, he contends, there ought to have been 29 at least. Two prizes went to Denver. Dr. Houseley's "Denver Select Choir" did Houseley's "Denver Select Choir" did the most perfect singing of the whole lot. They took first prize, second grade, Scranton carried off the $5,000 in the first grade, and a supero choir it is, says Mr. ApMadock. Two prizes went to Ravenswood and Evanston, Ill., both fine choirs. Gwilym Thomas' "Denver horal society" secured third prize, first grade, and the Pittsburg Cathedral grade, and the Pittsburg Cathedral choir got the second prize, second grade. Three choirs falled to get any prizes. They were inferior to the other

STEAMERS SUNK BY RUSSIAN CRUISERS.

Matter Fully Discussed at a Meeting of the British Foreign Office.

KNICHT COMMANDER INCIDENT.

Attracts Official and Public Interest-Negotiations Have Been Conducted In Conciliatory Manner,

London, July 26 .- The sinking of the British steamer Knight Commander by Russian cruisers off Japan was fully discussed at a meeting of the cabinet today, held at the foreign office. Before this meeting Count Benckendorff, the Russian ambassador, was closeted with Foreign Secretary Lansdowne and discussed in detail the operations of the Russian cruiser in connection with neutral shipping but as the Russian ambas. sador had not been officially informed by the Russian government of the de-struction of the Knight Commander, the ambassadow was unable to make any statement to the foreign secretary. The Knight Commander incident is one that is attracting much official and public interest, for the reason that in the British official view it is one thing to seize a ship having contraband on board and another to sink her without proper legal inquiry to establish whethshe is a good prize. The Britis vernment is desirous of obtaining al The British the facts before approaching Russia of the subject. The British authorities in Japan are obtaining testimony which will enable the British government to make up its case. It is said in a reli-able quarter that Great Britain will make earnest representations to Rus sia with the view to securing repara tion, and to prevent interference with neutral commerce, such as it has been subjected to recently.

NEGOTIATIONS CONCILIATORY. London, July 26.—While the negotia-tions between Great Britain and Russia respecting the Red sea seizures have been carried on in the most conciliatory manner, the Associated Press learns that in the representations to the St. Fetersburg government, Foreign Secy. Lansdowne declared that Great Britain could not, in view of her treaty alli-ance with Japan, allow any interpreta-tion to be placed on treaties relating to the Dardanelles which would permit of the free passage of vessels of the Russian volunteer fleet from the Black sea of their subsequent employment for war

Premier Balfour, replying to a tion in the house of commons today in regard to the sinking of the British steamer Knight Commander, said inquiries were being made on the sibject but he was not yet in position to make a statement replying to another ques-tion, the premier said the government was not aware of any convention con-cluded in 1901 between Turkey and Russia providing special conditions for the passage of the Dardanelles by special Russian ships.

RUSSIA'S RIGHTS.

S. Petersburg, July 26, 4:35 p. m.—While entirely without advices regarding the circumstances surrounding the sinking of the British steamer Knight, Commander, Russia, the Associated Press is informed at the foreign office, maintains the right of her warships to sink a neutral vessel carrying contra band where her papers show that she is clearly confiscatable, and when circumstances render it impossible or too dan-gerous to attempt to get her to a home port, and in such case liable for damages to the value of the ship is not ad

A SEARCHING INQUIRY. Tokio, July 26.—(2 p. m.)—Sir Claude Macdanold, the British minister to Japan, has instituted a searching quiry into the sinking of the British steamer Knight Commander by the Russian Vladivostok squadron. He will take the testimony of the crew of the Knight Commander and examine the officers of the steamer Tsinan, the officers of the steamer Tsinan, which brought the Knight Commander's crew into port.

SEIZURE OF THE FORMOSA.

London, July 26.—(6:27 p. m.)—The fereign office had not heard of the selzure of the steamer Formosa this afternoon, and while expressing registry to the selection of the selec gret it says the only possible expl tion consists in the fact that the Rus-sian government's order to cease in-terfering with neutral vessels have not yet reached the commanders of the volunteer fleet steamers, as the Russian government has given the most explicit pledge that there shall be no more Red sea seizures. The Formosa left London July 3 and Suez July 23, bound for Yokohama.
