A FIEND IN HUMAN FORM.

Assaults a Little Child and then Attempts to Burn Her to Death.

A man named John Plummer, is now uffned in a cell in the city fall with two very heavy charges booked against him, that of rape and arson. In last evening's "News" was a report of some unknown person having attempted to burn the house of Mrs. Elizabeth Read in the rear of No. 262, Twenty-third street, on Saturday night, and had it Bot here for Mrs. not been for Mrs. Read being awakened by the little child, which was sleeping with her, asking for a drink of water, the house would have been burned The bed that she found on fire was usually occupied by a little 11 ear old girl named Mary Agnes Neas. The police had been somewhat sus-picious of Plummer and his actions of late and had been shadowing him. The man came to Ogden a short time ago from Kemmerer, Wyoming, and took adgings at the Read house, where the little Neas child was lodging with her father, the mother being dead. Plummer posed as a friend and took the girl ut fishing and pleasuring with him. A short time ago Mr. Neas was taken ill and went to the city hospital, where he is still in a very critical condition, and the would-be friend, but a demon in the shape of a man, enticed the innocent child to go with him on fishing trips to the river where he brutally assaulted the child, threatening her life if she should tell of his brutality. In order to effectually cover up his crime he tried to burn the bed in which his

SPANISH FORK. HON. WILLIAM CREER

Laid to Rest With Impressive Ceremonies.

Special Correspondence.

Spanish Fork, Utah County, Aug. 12 .-Hon, William Creer was laid to rest to-day. Such a gathering of relatives and friends has not been witnessed here at any previous funeral. Former ac-quaintances from Sait Lake, Provo and from nearly every settlement of the county came here to pay their last res-pects. Hon. Wm. H. King, Hon. S. R. Thurman, Hon. John E. Millner, Judge E. A. Wilson, Judge John E. Booth, Judge Saver and reset the settlement. Judge Saxey and nearly the entire bar association of Provo were present.Black Hawk comrades from Springville, Pay-son, Provo and other places formed a part of the great procession. Noted visitors-among them Elder Joseph W. McMurrin of the presidency of the Seventies, took an active part in the last The funeral services, conducted by Bishop Geo, D. Snell, were held at the pavilion, commencing at 2 o'clock, p. m., consisting of the following program:

Singing by the Spanish Fork choir, 'Hark, from afar a funeral knell.'' Prayer by Judge J. E. Booth, Singing, "Wanted on the other side," Spanish Fork choir.

William Jex, representing the Sev-enties, Joseph A Reese representing the Black Hawk veterans, John B. Miliner, representing the Bar association, C. W. Booth representing the Spanish Fork choir, John Moore representing the Spanish Fork Co-operative store, made fitting speeches respecting their asso-ciation with the departed. Elder J. W McMurrin delivered the funeral ad-dress. Black Hawk comrades rendered an appropriate song and a male quar-tette sang, "Go to thy rest in peace." The Spanish Fork choir closed by singing, "Whe uthe mists are rolled away," and benediction was pronounced by Elder W. W. Dusenbury. After the services closed at the pavilion a procession was formed by members of the several organizations of which the deceased had been a member followed by the remains in a hearse, and nearly one hundred vehicles and hundreds of pedestrians. At the cemetery the usual ceremonies were performed Elder Milando Pratt of Provo offering the dedicatory prayer impressively. Mr. Creer was born in Preston, Lan and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1844, emigrated to America in 1847, lived at St. Louis. Missouri seven years and came to Utah in 1854. In 1856 the family moved to Spanish Fork where nearly all the surin 1854. viving members reside at present. With the exception of about one year on a mission in Arizona, Mr. Creer has spent his whole life time since 1856 the interest of Spanish Fork specially and the county and State generally. He has filled various offices with marked distinction, among them those of al-derman, justice of the peace, mayor, city attorney, school trustee, member of asylum board, president of Spanish A CURE FOR EVERY ing hoping to burn her to death, but fortunately the child slept that night the Constitutional convention.

48 Feet and Breaks His Foot. Special Correspondence,

Frisco, Beaver County, Aug. 12. -Last Thursday about noon Wat-kin Reese, a miner, was quite seri-ously hurt by the failing of a timber. No bones were broken, but he was badly bruised, and is now improving. The same evening a number of men were on the roof shingling the house being built for Mr. Taylor (who was recently burned out,) when the foot board gave way and three men slipped off the roof. Young Ralph McIntyre had his left arm badly broken just above the wrist.
