and SALVATION ARMY. ably Organization Will Take Possession of Many New Properties On Jan. I. A CHAIN IN TWO STATES A $17,000 Building Planned for Ogden formance. --- Work Upon it to Commence at Once-A Large Undertaking.

Jan, 1 the Salvation Army takes possession of a chain of properties located at Boise, Weiser, Pocatello, Idaho Falls, and Ogden, upon which will be constructed or planned permanent homes for the army.

Tomorrow night Staff Capt. Dale, who has charge of the intermountain district, with headquarters in Salt Lake, will leave for Boise, to make out the legal papers necessary to the taking over of the Masonic temple at that place, recently bought by the Army. The Temple as it stands is well adapted to the Army's needs, and will be moved into at once, as a permanent home. At Weiser, Idaho, the staff captain will close negotiations for another building upon which he has held an option for some time.

At Pocatello the city council has added in the procuring of a home, the papers and deeds for which now await ligning and recording, The property at Idaho Falls consists of several city lots, in a desirable location, donated by the city council. Funds for the crection of a suitable ding have been raised and it will be begun at once.

At Ogden a $17,000 building is planned, and work upon it will begin at once. It will be 50x150 feet in size, with three stories, the ground being a donution from the city council, and the plans for the building a gift from Fire Chief Graves. In returning next week from his trip to the north Staff Capt, Dale will let the contracts for the buildng, which, he states, will be modern n every particular and entirely adapted to the needs of the Army.

"This chain of buildings through the mountain country," said the staff cap-tain today, "will add greatly to the Army's work, and possibilities. It leaves Salt Lake as the only city where our work is not under one roof, and on our own ground. We are pay-ing heavy rental here for unsuitable buildings, and we could afford to pay a good rate of interest to anyone who would undertake to build us a home I hope to find such a person within the next few months as it is imperative that conditions be bettered if possible,

Local hotel stewards are in a stew over announcement from job printing establishments that it will be necessary for the stewards to get out their Monday and Tuesday menus immediately if not sooner, as there will be no print-ers at work on Monday next. As the itewards do not know what will be market Saturday or Monday night, they are up a stump as to what to do, as must needs now figure by pure guess work.

Fred Klink, who was arrested at Bingham Junction some time ago on the charge of grand larceny and released on bail, has jumped his bond and the sheriff and his deputies are now looking for him. Ben Steinman and A. J. James, of Bingham Junction, are his bondsmen and unless Klink is apprehended in the near future they will have to pay the amount of the bail The men went on his bond through sympathy for Mrs. Klink and her children who are in rather poor circum stances and needed some one to support them.

Deputy County Clerk David B. Davies, who for some time past has been in charge of the probate business of the cletk's office, has tendered his resignation to County Clerk James to take effect on Dec. 31. Mr. Davies has accepted a position in the office of a mining company in this city and will enter upon the duties of his new position on the first of the year. Mr. Davies has made a good record during his stay in the clerk's office and all lawyers who have had business in the probate division will regret his departure, as will also all of his associates in the office.

John Crook, a ploneer resident of Heber and for many years correspondent of the "News" in that section, left Salt Lake today for a three months' trip to California. Before leaving Mr. Crook dropped into this office and reported Heber in a very prosperous conlition. He says the town has just comleted a splendid waterworks system The water coming from a spring 300 feet above the city and being conducted into the city through an 8-inch pipe which carries plenty for all. The improvement cost $12,000 and is rauch appreciated by the citizens of that flourshing neighborhood. The town also has a bank, which was opened on Mon day last with James C. Jensen, formerly of Salt Lake, as cashler. Heber, says Mr. Creek, has a population of about 1,600 and is rapidly pushing to the front and putting on metropolitan airs. Mr. Crook is 73 years of age and shares the distinction of being one of the first to stick a plow in the ground in that
