

KAIGHN TRIAL ON MONDAY

Slayer of W. S. Haynes to Face the Jury Next Week.

Teamster Dan Hickey Enters Suit for $15,000 for Damages Received From Frightened Horses.

On Monday morning at 10 o'clock Judge Stewart will call the case of the state of Utah vs. Roy Kaighn, who is charged with the murder of W. S. Haynes the Chicago drummer, by shooting him while in the lobby of the Knutsford hotel two months ago.

As there will possibly be some difficulty in securing a jury it is not anticipated that any testimony will be introduced before Tuesday afternoon, or possibly later.

SUES THE R. G. W.

Teamster Enters Suit for $15,700 Damages Against Company.

Daniel Hickey today filed a suit against the Rio Grande Western Railway company to collect $15,700 damages for injuries received Nov. 30, 1900, when he was employed by the Salt Lake Transfer company to unload some freight from cars standing on the defendant's tracks and while thus employed an engine passed by and by negligently blowing off steam, ringing the bell and whistling, frightened the team of plaintiff which began to back and caught plaintiff between the wagon and car and crushed him, thereby injuring him permanently for which he asks $15,700 damages.

Case is Nonsuited.

In the $3,000 damage suit of L. C. Mortensen vs. the Rio Grande Western Railway company, which has been on trial before Judge Morse for the past two days, the case today morning ended the defendant's motion for nonsuit.

The suit was brought to recover the above amount of damages for injuries received by plaintiff being struck by an engine of the defendant company at Fourth South and Fifth West streets on June 10, 1901.

The motion for nonsuit, which, upon being granted by the court resulted in a victory for the railroad company, was made yesterday afternoon and argued last night at a special session of the court.

Crane vs. Judge.

Charles Crane has filed suit against Mary Judge to quiet title to a part of lot 4, block 5, plat A. He also asks for a restraining order prohibiting defendant from trespassing upon the property.

Joshua K. Whitney Estate.

A petition for letters of administration upon the estate of Joshua K. Whitney, deceased, was filed in the probate division of the district court this morning. The petition is signed by John K. Whitney, Mary Jane Groves and Orson F. Whitney, and asks that letters be issued to Horace G. Whitney.

The estate consists of real estate valued at $1,000 and personal property of the estimated value of $3,517. According to the petition there are forty heirs to the estate who are all named therein.

The hearing on the matter of granting letters of administration as prayed for is set for Friday, Feb. 23.

RICHARDSON ON TRIAL.

This afternoon Jack Richardson is on trial in Judge Diehl's court on the charge of petit larceny. It is alleged that Richardson stole a pair of shoes from a State street second hand store, G. Brown, a companion of Richardson's, is charged with housebreaking. It is alleged he broke into the same place and stole some matting.

JUDGE DIEHL'S COURT.

Ed Smith pleaded guilty to being drunk but denied that he engaged in a fight with Ed Kato. The latter failed to answer when his name was called and he forfeited $15. Smith's defense was that he was too drunk to test. He was then fined $5 for drunkenness.

Three boys, William Simpson, Jack Horn and Arthur Penmore pleaded guilty to stealing $1.50 worth of pigeons from a Mr. Rogers. The latter said the boys also broke up some furniture in the coop and destroyed the door. The boys told Judge Diehl they did it "best for devilment." They were discharged.

JOSEPH SMITH, THE MAN.

Subject Discussed Upon by Judge King in Second Ward.

Another large audience assembled at the Second ward meetinghouse last evening to hear Judge William H. King discourse upon the character of Joseph Smith as a man. The address was exceedingly interesting and gave much delight to all who were fortunate enough to hear it. The speaker began by saying that the history of a nation was the history of its great men, and the best study of man is man. The citizens of a country were always interested in the private life and character of their celebrated countrymen and for that reason thousands of people were anxious to learn all they might about the Prophet Joseph Smith.

The speaker then proceeded to trace the lineage of Joseph Smith and establish the fact that he was of Puritan descent, and the Puritans were called the best blood on earth, by the speaker.

Judge King then analyzed the character and personality of Joseph Smith, depicting the latter in a most engaging light, and closed by giving an able exposition of the spirit of the teachings of the youthful prophet.

Thomas Ashworth sang "The Holy City" in his ravest and voice.

NEW SOCIETY EFFECTED.

It is Styled the Universal Associates—J. M. Bowman President.

A meeting of several prominent business and professional men of this city met on Wednesday evening last and effected the organization of a new society called the Universal Associates.

It is a benevolent association got together not only for social intercourse but for the mutual advancement of all its members in every way possible; the taking proper care of the families of deceased members and the succor of any member that may fall the victim of any accident. Both sexes are eligible for membership and there is no secret rite in connection with the initiation of members or any other function of the society.

The officers elected are as follows: President, J. M. Bowman; vice president, Miss M. Y. Hardy; secretary, John James; treasurer, L. G. Hardy; auditor, J. W. Miller; organist, R. N. Galt; guide, H. J. Howe; guard, J. H. Thorne; physician, Dr. J. S. Sharp; board of control, Hon. J. M. Bowman, Ben W. Mayo, Philip Reilly, Hon. Arthur L. Thomas, Maj. M. A. Breeden, Hon. J. J. Stewart.

LATE LOCALS.

J. G. Edwards, the Oregon sheep man, is a guest at the Knutsford.

Prof. J. J. McCellan has removed to 170 E street where he is comfortably domiciled.

Word from Chicago this morning stated that Col. J. F. Woodman was gradually sinking so that he was not expected to live very long.

The R. M. Bell Telephone company has begun stringing wires south from the Cour d'Alene 200 miles to connect with the southern part of the system.

Four architects are competing for the plans of the new First Presbyterian church, viz: W. E. Ware and Fred A. Hale of this city, F. H. Colgan of Pittsburgh, and L. B. Vail of Los Angeles. The plans are now in possession of Thomas Weir, and it is expected that by the middle of the week a selection will have been decided on.

The tenth anniversary of the Orpheus club was celebrated the other evening by a reception and dinner given at the club by Dr. and Mrs. Plummer. The evening was very enjoyably spent.

The new organ in St. Paul's church will be formally dedicated at tomorrow evening's service, and later there will be a more formal function in the way of a concert, at which the most prominent talent in the city will appear.

Prof. J. J. McCellan is arranging for the appearance of the Salt Lake Theater about the 25th inst. of Alberto Jonas, the celebrated foreign pianist, who is making a tour of this country.

Organizer F. W. Murphy of the Western Undertakers' association is a guest at the Knutsford, and states that the next annual convention will be held at the Antlers Hotel, Colorado Springs, Sept. 18 next. The association includes the mortuary artists in five western states and territories.

Flour and wheat are being received in this city from the northwest so fast that local dealers are having their hands full in taking care of their consignments. One commission man and four dealers have flour and flour arriving, and bags of Oregon flour are being stacked up clear to the ceiling of his store.

F. S. Rockwell, the wellknown cattleman, is at the Knutsford hotel from a trip to Death, Nev., from Denver. Mr. Rockwell bought 1,200 head of stock from growers in that part of the state, and will ship them to Colorado for ranging. He says that cattle have wintered finely in Nevada where there has been practically no winter. But on account of the scarcity of snow, the cattle are suffering and the winter is being performed two operations at St. Mark's hospital. Mrs. P. L. Cockran of Verda, Utah, was one patient and Blake Madsen of Ogden, the other. Mr. Madsen was operated upon for appendicitis and both patients are doing well.

George Parks returned last evening from a six weeks trip to Texas with Mrs. Parks. He said he was particularly glad the trip had been made because Mrs. Parks had gained 15 pounds while away, and had they remained longer she would have still continued to gain. Mr. Parks reported the Lone Star state as in the most prosperous condition. A trolley line is being built between Fort Worth and Dallas, 35 miles and another line is projected to the northern towns. Both cities are pushing ahead very fast, especially Dallas, and the cotton prospects are considered as of the best. The railroads are doing a heavy business.

Hon. A. C. Cleveland of Cleveland, Nevada, has recovered his health and is in town, a guest at the Knutsford. He is here to dispose of a herd of 60 horses. If possible, he says he will reach on the range. He says his part of the state is doing well, and is in good shape for the coming summer.

The management of Boardley's Tavern smiled complacently this morning when a "News" reporter asked what was thought of the action of the Cooks and Waiters in the prospective boycott, and said that he would not be found that the Tavern help should be united all of a sudden in the union. The other five restaurants show no sign of giving in, and expect the non-union to help them out.

The clothing department of the Z. C. M. I. completed its removal this morning from the stand it has so long occupied, to the quarters a little further down Main street recently occupied by the Temple of Music.

The furnishing of the new quarters of the Commercial club was completed this morning so that next Monday the members of the same can gather under their own vine and fig tree amid whisperers of Grace, Mercy and Peace. The apartments are very comfortable and suitable in every way for the purpose for which they are intended. President Nelson said today that applications were coming in from every direction and that the talk in a morning paper about railroad men being shut out is nonsense. Railroad men are perfectly welcome and they will join the same as any one else.

The Salt Lake Glee club will give a concert in the Seventeenth ward assembly hall on Friday evening, March 7. A musical treat is guaranteed for all who attend. The club will be assisted by Lizzie Thomas-Edward, Judith Anderson, John Robinson, Little Mills Williams and others whose names will be announced later.

The proceeds of the concert will be used by the club to purchase additional music and further promote the general welfare of that efficient musical organization.

There will be a civil service examination in this city Feb. 26, for the position of assistant in pathology and physiology in the bureau of plant industry department of agriculture at Washington.

The northern and western states have been generously dealt with in the matter of rain, but Utah was left out in the cold in which it has just skirted the northern border and left considerable of a precipitation in Idaho.

There will be a mass meeting of honorably discharged Utah volunteers on the afternoon of March 2, to take suitable action looking towards securing back pay and, and in the matter of taking up homesteads. Volunteers in other states are moving in these two matters.

An official order is expected early in the week from the adjutant-general's office relative to the organization of the First Infantry band. Enlisted men will serve and the number will run from Billy West Dead.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Wm. H. West, known to theatergoers for the past quarter of a century as Billy West, the minstrel, died here today of cancer, early in the morning. He was 45 years of age, and his death was attributed to excessive smoking, was removed from his throat, but he never recovered from the effects of the operation.

Mr. West's home was in Utica, N. Y. His friends in Chicago estimate his estate at $50,000.

PRIVILEGE OF OWNERSHIP.

With most of us the question of ownership is an important one. We like to have something we can call our own and to be able to please with. Children should be allowed the same privilege of ownership. Opportunities of this kind with proper restrictions, result in much benefit to the growing boys and girls, and to the nation which justly and girls on the farm something for themselves and something that will be the means of adding much to their enjoyment of life, and at the same time educate them in the primary principles of farm and business management, as well as to afford them an opportunity to earn some money which they can use as they see fit.

Children have to be provided for by their parents, and it is doing them a lasting benefit to allow them a chance to earn the money by which their clothes or their books may be bought, or a gun, chest of tools, or any other useful article purchased. In this way they learn the value of money, become interested in farm work and learn how to spend their earnings to the best advantage. They should be taught to advise and consult with their parents before making a purchase, and they should be encouraged to make their own selections and to use their own judgment.

The care and management of a few chickens can be made of interest and value to young people. Let them start with a few chickens of their own, and let them care for them and increase the flock. Let them keep an account of their work and also of all grain and feed used, paying a fair market price for it. They should keep an account of all eggs they produce, and the eggs used in the family should be paid for the same as though they were purchased at the market.

Some boys and girls would of course have no taste for poultry raising, but there are a multitude of other things about farming business that could be managed by them, that would be of advantage and value to their business training. The raising of a calf or a calf, or the care of a patch of strawberries, or a garden, offer equally inviting means of giving the young people a new zest in country life.—Orange Judd Farmer.

HEWLETT BROS. CO.

15 to 24. Col. Park is making careful selections.

The revival meetings held the past week in the Liberty Park Methodist church are to be continued through the coming week, with Mr. C. G. Provo, as the preacher.

Mr. F. Dewey Richards, formerly of this city, has written an admirable song to the words of Shelley's wellknown poem, "Arise from Dreams of Thee." The music has been more than repaid for the cost of the Sherman Clay & Co. of San Francisco.

The evening missionary class at the Latter-day Saints university last night surprised their instructor, Elder Benjamin Goddard, with a useful token of appreciation for his labors. At the close of the regular exercises, Sister Erickson, one of the students, arose and made a brief and appropriate address, indicating the good wishes of the class towards their teacher. She then presented Elder Goddard with a substantial arm chair with rockers. Elder Goddard responded briefly with thanks for the thoughtful action of the students. This class numbers about 150 students and meets on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Elder H. C. Iverson will take the class for a sing-along course in about one week. The students are enthusiastic in their expressions of praise as to the character of their teachers, and are receiving, and Elder Goddard feels more than repaid for his labors from this fact alone.

At the Valentine party given in the Ninth ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon one of the pleasantest features was the presentation to Supt. A. M. Woolley, of the Sunday school, of a handsome picture and a bouquet of beautiful flowers. The occasion for this morning, Mr. Woolley was the fact that it was his 42nd birthday, and the entertainment was given under the auspices of the Sunday school of the ward.

Last night some boys broke into a poultry store on West Second South, where they were evidently frightened away before they had a chance to steal anything. The place was found open this morning and the matter was reported to the police and Sergeant Burbridge made an investigation. Upon the search it was found that nothing had been stolen.

Chief Joseph H. Greenough of the Park City fire department, was in town yesterday, talking over fire matters with Chief Dewey.

To obtain the remarkable new pigment of Dr. A. S. Ramage, the waste liquor from iron pickling—usually ferrous sulphate or chlorides with some free acid—is neutralized, and then oxidized by air and steam, alkaline solution and much water being added as the chemical action proceeds. The ferrous sulphate is oxidized into basic ferric sulphate, which is the pigment, and is known as hydrolysis, separates into sulphuric acid and basic ferric hydrate. The latter is the pigment, which is light yellow but easily convertible into the various reds by heat and which has great absorptive capacity for oil and great covering power.

Dyspepsia

What's the use of a good cook if there's a bad stomach, —a stomach too weak properly to digest what is taken into it?

The owner of such a stomach experiences distress after eating, nausea between meals, and is troubled with belching and fits of nervous headache —he's dyspeptic and miserable.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia and have suffered almost everything. I have tried many different remedies, but could get no relief until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. After the use of this medicine I could eat without distress, and today I am as well as ever, but I always keep Hood's Sarsaparilla on hand." Mrs. J. A. CROVELL, Canaboharie, N. Y.

"My stomach was weak. Reading how much good Hood's Sarsaparilla had done other people, I was encouraged to try it. My stomach soon grew stronger and now I can eat almost anything. My husband and I take Hood's for our blood in spring with good results." Mrs. A. J. GAZLEY, East North Yarmouth, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Cure dyspepsia, strengthen and tone all the digestive organs, and build up the whole system.
