EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, - - April 26, 1888.

FRAGMENTS.

THE Provo City Council has decided to license saloons at $300 per quarter.

THE Hallen & Hart Company go to Denver after the close of the engagement here.

THERE is a message at the Western Union Telegraph office for Mr. Rollin Wells, deaf mute peddler.

SUIT has been commenced in the justice's court by Wm. Hart against Wm. Davis, for $15.25 for grocery bills.

JESSE TARBOX came in from California today. He returns to San Francisco on Saturday.

THE Fifth Ward, Ogden, is to have a meeting house which will cost nearly $8000. It is to be finished by November.

THE atmosphere was a delightful temperature to-day, after the storm. The clouds have not all cleared away yet.

FRANK KUNKEL has instituted suit in Justice Burton's court against Geo. Russell, for $75 and interest due on a promissory note.

MR. FUNK, of Sanpete County, came in from the south last evening, having 1,500 young carp, which will be placed in the fish ponds of the Jordan and Lake Park Company, south of the city.

THE Chamber of Commerce held a meeting last evening, and appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions for advertising Salt Lake City in the east. One object is to get a low rate from the Missouri River to Utah, that an immense excursion party may be brought in. Representatives from Ogden and Provo were present.

THERE are two special cars in the Utah Central depot today, both being named "Wanderer." One is a Pullman and the other a Wagner. George Charlton, of the Chicago & Alton, and party occupy one of the cars, and Jos. T. Bowen, a Chicago capitalist, and party are traveling in the other. Both leave for the east tomorrow.

"Historical Record."

The current number of this valuable publication is at hand. The contents are of unusual interest, covering as they do the history of the Prophet Joseph and the Church from October, 1830, to November, 1831. This work of historical reference should be in every family. Andrew Jenson, publisher, Salt Lake City.

Independent Company.

We are daily anticipating the receipt of instructions regarding arrangements for this season's emigration. There are a limited number of persons who anxiously desire to leave here for Utah as early as possible, they having the necessary means on hand, and completed their preparations for that purpose. To accommodate these members of the Church who are thus prepared to go, as an independent company, we have arranged for them to sail, per Guion steamship Wisconsin, on April 28.—Millennial Star.

Returned Missionary.

Elder Neils G. Christensen of Mayfield, reached this city last evening on his return from a mission to the United States. He left Utah in April, 1880, and traveled five or six months in Iowa and Minnesota. He was then transferred to Pennsylvania, where he labored until released. In the latter state there are good prospects of the spread of the Gospel, the Elders making many friends, though considerable opposition is manifested. Elder Christensen returns in the best of health and spirits.

Third District Court.

Proceedings before Judge Zane today:

George A. Lake vs. Harriet A. Lewis; ten days' additional time given to answer.

United States vs. Alex. Brown; adultery; defendant moved that the jury be instructed to visit the premises; motion denied; case argued, and jury render a verdict of guilty; thirty days' stay allowed to file statement on motion for a new trial.

United States vs. Peter Tong; incest; on trial before a jury.

Howard Scobee vs. Isaac R. Wright; default of defendant; judgment given for plaintiff.

Probate Court.

Proceedings in the Salt Lake County Probate Court yesterday:

In the matter of the estate and guardianship of Charles W. Needham, a minor; order made appointing R. Winters, Joseph Heywood and William McRae appraisers.

Estate and guardianship of John McCullough, a minor; order made appointing time and place to hear petition for order of sale of real estate.

Estate of William Thompson, deceased; order made appointing time and place to hear petition asking that the whole of the real estate of said deceased be set apart for the use of the widow of said deceased.

Police Items.

Maggie Godwin was tried in the Police court yesterday on a charge of petit larceny, and convicted. She was sentenced to sixty days in jail. She also pleaded guilty to a second charge of larceny, and received a sentence of thirty days in prison. The girl is about 17 years of age, and stated that she had no particular reason for committing the thefts.

Chauncey Kane was taken by the police last night, and this morning was fined $5 for drunkenness.

Michael Fleming is a familiar figure in the Police Court. He was again ushered into the presence of Justice Pyper today, to answer to the charge of drunkenness, and entered a plea of guilty. "Mike" has no place of abode when he is at liberty, and hangs around saloons. He is in a much better condition when kept at the city jail, so the justice gave him the full extent of the law—25 days.

The "Contributor."

In the latest issue of the Contributor, which came out yesterday, the history of the Nauvoo Legion, by R. W. Young, is continued. This paper is a highly interesting and well-written continuation to the literature of this community. J. M. Tanner has an interesting article on "Traveling in Palestine." Prof. J. E. Talmage contributes a philosophical and erudite article on "The Genius of Life." J. H. Ward gives a sketch of the region called Alberta, which Riel, the Canadian insurrectionist, sought to save to his tribe. Under the caption "Familiar Doctrine from a Strange Source," extracts from a sermon by "a surpliced minister," delivered in New York City, are given by "Gloster." A long poem entitled "Jacob" is contributed by Mrs. Crocheron. B. H. Roberts has a paper on "Mormonism and Education." Editorial and selected matter, with "Association Intelligence," completes the number.

THE STORM.

It was Pretty General Throughout the Territory.

The following weather report was received per Deseret Telegraph Line at noon today:

Silver Reef—Heavy wind, clear and cold; some rain yesterday.

Toquerville—Strong wind from north today; slight rain yesterday.

Cedar City—Cloudy; slight frost; some rain yesterday.

Parowan—A little rain yesterday and last night; cloudy today.

Kanab—Cloudy and cold; very slight rain yesterday.

St. George—Some rain yesterday. Windy.

Fillmore—Pleasant. Snowed and rained heavily yesterday; gave the ground a good soaking.

Beaver—Cloudy. Rained and snowed yesterday at intervals.

Nephi—No rain last night or today. Quite a frost last night, cloudy and cold. Slight hail-storm in afternoon yesterday. Rained about four hours Tuesday night, and snowed much in the mountains.

Provo—About two hours light rain Tuesday night, about three hours yesterday of snow and rain. Very light shower yesterday evening. Still cloudy.

Logan—Clear now, but rained all yesterday. No snow.

Brigham City—Fine now, but rather chilly. Rained all day yesterday and all night last night. Some snow on the tops of the mountains.

Paris, Idaho—Rained yesterday and snowed last night. It is stormy today.

Malad—Rained and snowed all day yesterday. Today it is clearing off. Cold; no frost.

Glenwood—Windy and cold. Rather cloudy today. Had quite a snowstorm yesterday afternoon.

The report shows that the storm was pretty general throughout the Territory. This will be good news to the people, especially the farming classes, many of whom were beginning to fear serious results from the comparatively long spell of dry and hot weather.

NEWS NOTES.

Items Gathered from Various Sources.

The strike of the brickmakers and hodcarriers still continues in Denver.

On Monday last, Albert Beller, a miner at Georgetown, Colorado, fell a distance of eighteen feet, receiving probably fatal injuries.

A horrible accident occurred at Bodega, Cal., on April 21. John H. Miller was engaged in mowing hay, and had cautioned the children against running through the clover in front of the mower. Later in the day his three-year-old child playfully attempted to run in front of the machine, when it was caught by a knife, and both legs were instantly severed from the body. At last accounts the child was still alive.

Blanche Connors, a half-breed girl, was convicted at Kansas City on April 23, of murder in the first degree. The crime occurred on Christmas night. Blanche enticed Joe Peters, a colored laborer, into her room, for the purpose of robbery. She had two accomplices, Paul Enders and "Boney" George Thompson. Failing to get Peter's money, she pushed him out on the sidewalk, where she and her accomplices killed him.

Reno, (Nev.), April 23.—Fireman Frank Campbell, on the regular passenger train, was discovered to be missing shortly after the train passed Hunsaker's by Engineer Clark tonight. The train was stopped. After backing up some five miles very slowly, fearing he might have wandered and be lying on the track insensible, and not finding him, the brakeman was left behind and the train proceeded to Reno, arriving here an hour late, whence they returned a special. It is unknown whether Campbell is alive or not. His friends and relatives fear the worst.

Some idea of how badly the United States courts in San Francisco are afflicted with Chinese cases, can be gained by the statement of the fact that on the docket of Judge Sawyer's court there are four hundred cases yet to be heard, and there are 100 in Judge Hoffman's court, besides the 1200 Chinese who are now in quarantine who have no return certificates, and who, to gain admission into the United States, must prove their prior residence. There are twelve syndicates, with offices in Chinatown and Hong Kong, who make a regular business of importing Celestials into this country, and evading the restriction act. It is claimed that one of the companies has a finely fitted-up office in the Orient, and that the coolies are carefully schooled as to what questions will be asked by the customs officers and the courts. If a Chinese learns his lesson well, the agent will guarantee the landing in this country for $130.

Kansas City, April 23.—The Rock Island Railroad has entered Kansas City. For weeks it has sought for peaceable entrance and has been refused. Last night it took the matter into its own hands and determined to come in—by fair means, if possible, but to come in. Last night a gang composed of 75 workmen armed with picks and shovels set to work on the terminus of the road and began to build it across Station Street. During the evening and night considerable work was done, and when West Kansas City looked around this morning one of the first things to meet their eyes was the railroad track of the Rock Island stretching 500 feet this side of State line street. The action has created great excitement in railroad circles and will undoubtedly lead to a bitter fight. Today the intruders have been kept from building the road further, but the move it has already made is a very shrewd one and gives the Rock Island a good foothold.

Zoological Exhibition.

Yesterday the advance car of the New York Aquarium arrived in this city and placed on exhibition a number of animals not often seen in this portion of the world. There were several crocodiles in a tank from which the water had been drawn, one of them reputed to be 60 years of age. The white-faced monkey, hopping to and fro in his cage, and the blood-sucking vampire hanging head downward from his perch, were the most noted curiosities. Parrots, magpies, and a large number of chattering, curious-looking birds attracted the attention of those visiting the car. Hundreds of school children, who had received tickets at reduced prices, were delighted with the living specimens of the animals whose habits, size, shape and color they had studied in school.

This car is arranging the route for the Aquarium, which is composed of six large Pullman cars, that will shortly visit all the localities in which this advance car has given an exhibition. That the people were interested in natural history was manifest by the steady flow of visitors in spite of the unpleasant weather. Col. J. H. Wood, manager of the advance car, stated that he was pleased with the reception he had received. He said he passed through Ogden some years ago, "but I tell you you have a different town today than you had then," was his emphatic conclusion. The animals will be on exhibition again today, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.—Ogden Standard, April 26.

Found Guilty.

The testimony in the trial of Alex. Brown, the ex-"Mormon" who has been before the Third District Court on the charge of adultery, was concluded last evening. This morning the defendant's attorney, Arthur Brown, asked that the jury be permitted to visit the premises where the offense was alleged to have been commited; the request was denied, it being deemed unnecessary by the court. Both sides then made their arguments, and the jury retired. They were out a short time in arriving at a verdict of guilty. The defendant was visibly affected by the result. Thirty days was allowed him in which to file a statement on a motion for a new trial.

IN CACHE VALLEY.

Sayings and Doings in the Neighborhood of the Temple City.

Last week eight car loads of cattle were shipped from Logan to Montana.

Mr. Kletting, an architect of Salt Lake City, was in Logan last week taking a view of the grounds for the city park. He will get out a plan for the improvements.

On Monday evening Andrew Ellison, a young man of the Fourth Ward, had the misfortune to be kicked in the face by a horse causing a gash to be cut in the jaw and a slight concussion of the brain. Dr. Snow was called to attend his injuries.

A young man by the name of Rainey, was brought down from Richmond, late last evening with his jaw broken and face badly lacerated, the effects of a kick from a vicious animal. Dr. Ormsby attended the case, and made the sufferer as comfortable as possible.

Ole Olsen, of Smithfield, who was arrested on the charge of unlawful cohabitation by Deputy Eggleston last week, had a hearing before Commissioner Goodwin on Monday. He was bound over in the sum of $1,000 to await the action of the grand jury. The alleged second wife, Kistine Christain sen, was placed under $200 bonds. John P. Plowman and Ole Olesen Jr. became sureties for both parties.

Hans Olsen, of Millville, who was in the Commissioner's Court on Friday last on a charge of polygamy and who was required to furnish bonds on the charge of unlawful cohabitation for his appearance before the grand jury failed to procure the bonds and was taken to Ogden on Saturday by Deputy Eggleston. On the following Monday the deputy took him to Salt Lake City where he was turned over to the U. S. Marshal and taken out to the pen. It is thought that he will secure bonds today and be released.

Mrs. Mary Davis brought suit in the Commissioner's court on Monday to recover the sum of $299 from William Evans, claimed to be due the estate of William Davis. William Evans is a grandson of the latter, and was left in charge of the farm by the administrator of the estate, with the understanding that one-half the proceeds of the farm be paid to the widow of William Davis yearly. Mrs. Davis claimed that she had not received the amount stipulated, and hence the suit for the above amount. The case was heard before Commissioner Goodwin. It was late in the evening when it was given to the jury, and they returned at 11 o'clock with a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $40 and costs of suit.

On Friday evening a case of scarlet fever broke out in the family of James Furguson, in the Fifth Ward, and on Saturday evening the same disease made its appearance at Mr. Buttercane's, of the same ward. It appears that the family of E. W. Tullidge, of Salt Lake City, came up from that place several days ago to get out of the way of scarlet fever, a case being quarantined in their neighborhood, the day before they left for Logan. Some of the little ones, it is thought, must have been unknowingly exposed. It is strange, however, that one of Ferguson's little ones broke out with the fever first. The Tullidge's are related to the other two families and they are now all in the trouble together. One of the little ones is quite sick. Dr. Ormsby, the city quarantine physician, did not learn of the cases until Sunday morning. In fact it was not known that the sickness was scarlet fever until that time and it is thought that some of the school children have been exposed. On Sunday morning the Doctor strictly enforced quarantine regulations and the greatest care will be taken to keep the disease from spreading. Should any of the Ferguson and Buttcane children this week show any symptoms of fever or illness it would be well for parents to let it be known that the disease may be corralled.—Logan Journal, April 25.

A Variety Entertainment.

The Hallen & Hart Company gave one of the best entertainments seen in this city for a long time. Topack and Steele, in their Ethopian eccentricities create a great amount of laughter. Some features of their performance are unique and irresistibly ludicrous. The little trained dog, exhibited by Alfred Clives, is a beautiful marvel. Jutan performs some sensational feats on the trapeze, and Joe Hart, the monologue and banjo artist, is a great feature. The performance of Ralph Terry, who, with the aid of calcium light, throws shadows, made with his fingers, upon a canvass screen, portraying animals, human beings in conversation, etc., is interesting and wonderful.

Flossy Edwards is a remarkably precocious child, but she is too young and small for the work she does. It is almost painful to think how trying it must be for her to train and perform as she has to.

The Jackley's did some fine and daring acrobatic acts. The same company appear this evening.

The Church Case.

The plaintiff took another step in the suit for Church property today. Messrs. James Jack and David McKenzie were subpœnaed as witnesses to appear before Commissioner Sprague at 10 a. m. today, but a continuation was had till that time tomorrow. Mr. McKenzie was directed to have certain records of the Salt Lake City Street Railroad Company in court. Mayor Francis Armstrong was also subpœnaed as a witness in the same proceeding.

NO CHANCE FOR ESCAPE.

THE PHONOGRAPH AS A THIRD PARTY AT A POPPING OF THE QUESTION.

"Are you in earnest, Mr. Hankinson?"

The lovely girl who asked this question of Marcellus Hankinson sat behind the center table with her hands in her lap and regarded the young man intently.

"In earnest, Irene!" he exclaimed, pale with emotion and chronic dyspepsia, "the whole happiness of my life is wrapped up in your answer to the question I have asked. If you will trust your good future in my hands, my life shall be devoted to the task of making you happy. It will be my main aim to shield you from the rude blasts of all adversity, to smooth your pathway through the world, to interpose my right arm between you and every danger that threatens to disturb your peace and"——

"If I listen to your suit, Mr. Hankinson," interrupted the young lady, casting her eyes with some timidity and confusion to the floor, "you may regret it some day. You would find me ignorant of the practical duties of housekeeping and without"——

"Practical duties of housekeeping!" broke in the enthusiastic youth: "you will have no practical duties of that kind. As my wife you shall not be a drudge. You shall be the queen of my home. You consent, do you not, my dear"——

"Wait a moment, my dear Mr. Hankinson. I am afraid you would find me thoughtless and extravagant in a great many things."

"Extravagant! Irene, it will be the joy of my life to provide you with whatever may gratify your slightest whim. You can never make a request of me that I would not rejoice to anticipate and grant beforehand?"

"And you will be willing to spend all your evenings at home?"

"My angel, I never would want to spend them anywhere else."

"You would never break my heart by joining a club or becoming a drinking man?"

"Hear me, Irene. I promise never to do either!"

"Let me see," said the young lady, meditatively; "I think that is all—Oh! You will agree to have the word 'obey' left out of my part of the marriage service, will you, Mr. Hankinson?"

"Obey, Ha! ha! Why, my own, certainly. I am even willing to promise to obey you!"

"Then, Marcellus," said the lovely girl, as she lifted a full grown phonograph off her lap, locked it carefully in a drawer of the secretary that stood against the wall, turned up the gas, and beamed in a sweet yet business like manner upon the terror stricken young man, "I am yours!"—Chicago Tribune.
