EVENING NEWS

Wednesday, August 8, 1877.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Traveling and Preaching.

BURLINGTON, July 7th, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

Dear Sir—While at Oskaloosa, the place from which I last wrote you, we (Elder Madson, Junr., and myself) were kindly entertained by a wealthy free thinking Quaker, who desired to hear us preach in public, as well as in private. We accordingly visited their public meeting, and by permission, I made a few remarks, stating to the congregation that some two years ago Professor J. Moor, of Earldhano College, and of their Society, had visited our city while on his way as a missionary to the Sandwich Islands, that through my interceding Bishop Woolley, of the 13th Ward, granted him the privilege of addressing our people, and that we should be pleased to have them open their church for us in return. At the close of their meeting, five of their ministers present held a consultation, and replied, that they were willing to take upon themselves the responsibility of closing their doors against us. The only excuse they made for so doing was that our Church was not "evangelical."

I find that the worst enemies we have are apostates who seek to poison the minds of all with whom they come in contact. Next in order come the reverend divines of the day, who, with but very few exceptions, are a unit in their opposition to the work of God.

On June 1st, while at Otumway, we applied to church and city officers for a house to speak in, but, failing to obtain one, we were about to leave the city, when Dr. Paul Castor, the "magnetic healer," accosted us, and invited us to stop over at his hotel for the night, and deliver an address to his patients and neighbors. We consented to do so and an appointment was given out for a meeting at 7.30. Just before meeting time, a leading minister of the town called upon Mr. C. and advised him not to allow us to speak in his house, when he became somewhat alarmed, and calling me to one side whispered, "For this once lay your Mormonism aside, and give us a good gospel sermon from the Bible."

At the hour appointed some seventy-five patients, including their attendants, from different States in the Union (two-thirds of whom were ladies) crowded the large double parlor. We sang, "O my Father," and offered up prayer. I then read a portion of Scripture—1st Cor., 12 c. 27-31 v, and delivered an address of about fifty minutes, with much freedom of speech, to an attentive audience, testifying to the restoration of the gospel, to the organization of the Church and Kingdom of God on the earth, to the divinity of the Book of Mormon, and to Joseph and Brigham being true prophets. Our remarks were well received, and some even bid us God speed. Dr. Castor himself treated us with marked kindness and respect, and before leaving he showed us through his $30,000 establishment.

Dr. C. is quite a remarkable man in his way. He has no knowledge of letters, and has a stammering tongue. He was at one time a poor boy. He is now rich, and making money fast. He calls himself the "old humbug." He claims to cure forty per cent of his patients, some within ten minutes time, others it takes weeks and months to effect a cure. He uses no medicine, but rubs his patients with his hands, trusting to his animal magnetism for a cure. He has been a healer since he was twelve years of age, and has the name of performing some remarkable cures. He said to us he did not know where he got his power from, "whether from God or the devil."

Our labors for some weeks past have been entirely among strangers, and we have taught them gospel truths, at their private homes and from their "sacred desks," wherever and whenever opportunity has offered, holding from two to four meetings per week which are generally well attended. We find much infidelity and unbelief, now and then a person or family who have a little faith. In this city and vicinity we found two families who had once been to Utah, with some sparks of gospel fire remaining in them, who I am confident will yet renew their covenants and gather with the Saints.

Your Brother in the Gospel,
P. P. PRATT.

AN ORDINANCE

PROVIDING FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF CERTAIN OFFENCES.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City: That any person who shall injure, deface or destroy any building or fixture thereof, or injure, destroy or secrete any goods, chattels, or valuable papers of another, or prepare any dead fall, or dig any pit, or set a gin, or arrange any trap to injure another's person or property, or take down, injure or remove any monument, or any tree marked as a boundary of any tract of land, or city lot, or destroy, deface or alter the marks of any monument, or injure or destroy any fence, or fountain, or any shade or fruit tree, or any other kind of public or private property, shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding ninety-nine dollars, or to imprisonment not to exceed one hundred days, or both.

SEC. 2. Any person who shall kill, maim or disfigure any horse or other domestic animal, the property of another, or administer poison to any such animal, or expose any poisonous substance, with the intent that it shall be taken by any such animal, shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding ninety-nine dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one hundred days, or both.

SEC. 3. Any person who shall falsely represent himself to be an officer of Salt Lake City, or attempt to personate one, or who without authority shall perform any official act for or in behalf of any such officer, shall be liable to a fine in any sum not exceeding ninety-nine dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding one hundred days, or both.

SEC. 4. That sections 14, 17, 20 and 23 of Chap. VII., of the Revised Ordinances of Salt Lake City, relating to "Crimes and Punishments" are hereby repealed.

Passed July 31st, 1877.

FERAMORZ LITTLE, Mayor.

JOHN T. CAINE, City Recorder.

TERRITORY OF UTAH, Salt Lake City. }

This certifies that the foregoing is a true copy of an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance providing for the Punishment of Certain Offences," passed by the City Council of Salt Lake City, the 31st day of July, A. D. 1877, as appears of record in my office.

(SEAL.) As witness my hand and the corporate seal of Salt Lake City, this 4th day of August, A. D. 1877.

"SEVERAL REQUISITES" of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of Instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA, 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875

PHILADELPHIA, 1876;

and have thus been awarded highest honors at
