

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Correspondents writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must be in every instance accompanied by their communications, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—No need of saying anything particular about "Under the Gauntlet" to-day, for the rate at which the tickets were going this morning told how the public have talked of its merits and appreciate its sensations. By present indications it would seem as if the Management must keep it on the boards for at least a part of next week, as well as give the Matinee, though we understand other stirring novelties are in course of preparation.

GETTING BRISK.—Business is getting quite brisk, several transactions this morning proving so. Nearly five pounds of fish changed hands in one place, a pound of new potatoes did in another, while a well-known firm invested in a quart of strawberries. Such heavy transactions indicate increasing confidence in business circles, and are looked upon as the dawn of better days, and not much more.

POSTPONED.—The Matinee for children and families is postponed from Wednesday until Friday, that those at a distance may have a better opportunity to attend.

EASTERN.—By letter from Elder John Brown, written from St. Louis, to a friend in this city, we learn that Elder Deaneberry was in Mississippi, in good health and in fine spirits. He had opened a new field and was being greatly blessed in his ministerial labors. Elder Brown says that the Elders have been well received in several States, school-houses, court-houses and chapels being opened to them and but little opposition manifested. There is much dissatisfaction existing among many of the people of the Southern States.

BIO BLOW.—The man who blew the railway whistle in "Under the Gauntlet" has at last succumbed. He had not blow enough to keep it up. That is the reason it was so faint on Thursday night. The place is now open for candidates. A competent person is required immediately; none but the biggest "blower" in the city need apply.

DOCKWATER.—By letter from Bro. Alexander Ross, dated Morgan city, Morgan county, Ark. last, we learn the following:

"This morning this city was thrown into a state of considerable excitement, by the upsetting of a boat on the Weber river, resulting in the death of Bro. John Ager. In attempting to cross the river in a small, flat-bottomed boat, in company with two young men, he ran against a snag, which precipitated the three into the river. The young man got out, with considerable difficulty, but Bro. Ager was unable to do so. Search is being made for his body, which, for the salubrity of his family and relatives, we hope will soon be found. Elder Ager was a native of England, aged 31 years, 1 month and 21 days. He was born in a small town called Walton, in the county of Devon, England. He came to the States in 1857 and emigrated in 1858. His life in the Church has been one of devotion to the truth, faithfulness in the discharge of the duties assigned him, kind and generous to all within the scope of his acquaintance, and in his habits of life and character he has gained for him the confidence and good will of all who knew him. He has left a wife and three children to lament his loss."

MYSTERIOUS.—This morning we heard mysterious and sonorous sounds issuing from the interior of that temple of mysteries—the Theatre. What does it mean? Are there other sensations in course of preparation? Somebody came to the rescue, and satisfy impatient curiosity.

FLOWERS.—Our admiration was won by a magnificent bouquet with which we were presented by one of our types. Its floral beauties could not easily be surpassed. We congratulated him upon the success which had attended his efforts in the cultivation of flowers. He modestly assured us that our praise, though not entirely undeserved by him, was mainly due to Mrs. Hemenway, from whose garden, one of the best we should imagine in the city, he had obtained several of the finest varieties that he brought us. With such flowers, the beauty and attractions of our city must be greatly enhanced.

"THE FLOWERS ARE NATURE'S JEWELS, WITH WHOSE WEALTH SHE DRESSES HER SUMMER BEAUTY; PRIMROSE, PINK, VIOLET, AND ROSE, OF PURE GOLD, ENCHANTING ROSE, THAT IS A VIRGIN QUEEN, SWEETEN THE AIR."

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon as Bro. Joseph Cornwall, of Mill Creek, was coming down Mill Creek Canyon, his team started and ran off with him. He held in the best he could, but being a weak man, was unable to rein them up; and about a quarter of a mile from where they started off he was thrown from his wagon on the rocks, had his leg broken, and was otherwise badly injured. Help was at hand, his leg was secured; he was conveyed home, and Dr. Anderson was called from the City to attend him.

STRAWBERRIES.—We clip the following from an exchange of CLONTSCHON CLONTSCHON: "A Southampton County, Virginia, man has sold the strawberry crop of ten acres, to a dealer, for $10,000, the buyer furnishing the boxes."

Which shows that growing strawberries is a profitable business. We have used one of these countries in the world for it, and ought to be able in a few years to supply sweet-toothed neighbors east and west, when the railroad gives us rapid communication with them.

IMPRISONMENT.—When a man is said to be thoroughly exhausted? When he works hard and gets nothing but dried peaches for pay.

CABINET MAKERS' MEETING.—The committee appointed by the Cabinet Makers meeting, met pursuant to appointment last evening, in Henry Dinwoodey's Cabinet Factory. After freely discussing the general question, it was unanimously resolved that a Territorial Cabinet Manufacturing Company be formed, with a capital of $100,000, in shares of $50 each, to be controlled by legally elected Directors, with the object of importing to Utah machinery and lumber for the purpose of manufacturing first-class furniture for home consumption and exportation, at prices to defy both eastern and western competition. Adjourned till next Monday evening, at half-past six o'clock.
