Big Chief Standing Elk Reilly aware of his position in the field of battle yesterday afternoon.He was real angry.
So angry, in fact, that he turned down a photographer who wanted a picture of the braves.The Indians were not only angry, but they were humiliated. The big battle between Reilly's redskins and Gimlin's pallards did not result as Standing Elk had pictured. He thought he had the hated palldars vanquished. Their scalp were almost within his grasp. They were cheering their songs of victory when Father Gimlin and his trained Indians suddenly made a wonderful and sudden assault, throwing themselves in the midst of the palldars, and in a twinkling crushed them into glorious victory.Talk about the "Last of the Mohicans." Yesterday's slaughter was more and that of Cooper's famous tale of the Indians. At least it was to Reilly and his braves.In the beginning of hostilities those who watched the battle felt moved to say a few things about the Gimlinites, not in any way as complimentary as must be said that some of them were guilty of pretty dumb work. However, Kallackey, Gimlin and Eslick, who were about the only ones who seemed to realize that it was necessary to get in the game and stay in it until the last Indian was down.But toward the latter end of the affair everybody woke up and made a dying rally.The last half of the ninth was our last chance. That may seem strange, but the fact is that the Indians were so badly beaten that they were not in a position to make a rally. The net result was that Clark, Kallackey, Bruyette, Eslick and Miller scampared a runaway going down in a vain effort to stop the rally. Chief Standing Elk relieved Clearwater, Dummann, and put in two knives, Carney and Eslick.Following is a confirmation of the Score of 9 to 3.Boise, Ida., May 10.—The opening game between the Butte and Boise was a poor exhibition, being hitless and unexciting.

Starkeles was batted out of the box and was taken out after the second inning.
Blewett did much better, but the Butte men touched him up also pretty lively.
The fielding was good. Score:

Uses Herpelidol Successfully in Treating Syphilis of the Beard.He says: "I recently treated a case of syphilis (similar to Barber's) with the lower lip, with Newbro's Herpelidol.
There was an extensive loss of beard with inflammation extending well down the chin. The result of the application of Herpelidol was most gratifying.
The loss of beard ceased and a new growth of hair is now taking place over the once inflamed area."

WHAT ABOUT THIS?

Rumor That Portland Ball Team Would Like a Franchise Now.Rumor hath it that the Portland Baseball club would like very much now to have a franchise in the Pacific National league, and according to the Spokane Press, the team may be in the P. N. league before the end of the season.It will be remembered that this team deserted our city for the then then then laws, but the Portland fans have discovered that it takes a large deal of money to keep up the rumor that the team will assume management of the Portland club if it gets into the Pacific National.

HERE IS A GOOD ONE.

A Portland Judge Who Certainly Knows A Good Ball Game.A Scripps-McRae dispatch from Portland says:
Deputy District Judge Adams in the police court this morning refused to prosecute Peter Sater, who was arrested yesterday at the ball game between Portland and Oakland of the Pacific Coast league, for striking a base ball.The Portland team has been guilty all season of petty police taking money from the fans, said Judge Adams, "and I will not prosecute any man for trying to get even. They are not even good amateurs. Yesterday's game was such a miserable exhibition of baseball that I think a man is justified in striking a ball. Any team that can't win more than eight games out of 37 should expect such treatment."

ON THE RACE TRACK.

Grand Circuit Organized as a Corporation To Purify the Turf.New York, May 10.—The grand circuit of race tracks was organized as a corporation at a meeting here today of representatives of twelve of the most important tracks in the country. The object of the organization, according to its secretary, Albert H. Moon, of this city, will be the purification of the turf and the appointing of racing to the highest possible plane. It will not interfere with the parent bodies, the National and American Trotting association, but will act in harmony with them.The twelve tracks incorporated in the grand circuit will be Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo, Empire City and Brighton Beach, New York; Rondville, Boston, Providence, Hartford, Columbus, Cincinnati and Memphis.The articles of incorporation were signed by Daniel J. Canavan of Detroit, James Butler of New York, C. K. C.
Billings of Memphis, John E. Chayer of Boston, F. Perkinson of Providence and H. J. Hanna of Cleveland. The six named were chosen as stewards of the grand circuit and four other officers were elected: Daniel J. Canavan, president; John E. Chayer, vice president; D. J. Canavan, C. R. Bentley of Buffalo and Albert H. Moon were appointed a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws for the organization. These will probably be similar to those of the National and American Trotting associations.

BRITT AND McGOVERN.

Conqueror of "Young Corbett" Promises Terry a Chance.James Edward Britt, the Pacific coast boxer, who recently defeated Young Corbett, and Terry, who was defeated by weight champion, have been practically matched to meet in the future. Willie Britt, acting for himself and Sam Harris, for McGovern, tried to come to some kind of an agreement at the office of the American Athletic Union.Willie Britt agreed that McGovern should have the first chance at Jimmy Britt. The latter, however, Corbett have had their second meeting."I want to show the public that Jimmy Britt is a man of his word. Terry will have to wait until this match is settled before we can give him a chance," said Britt.In speaking of McGovern, Britt said that he considered him just as good a man as Corbett. He said that he had went down to defeat twice at the hands of the man from Denver."I know McGovern is a man of his word and that his word is as good as gold. He is a man of his word and that Terry could be assured in meeting Jimmy after he had finished with Corbett."Should anything happen to an Britt from coming together, why, then, Terry will be the first man to meet him. "The public will be able to see that Terry is making a match can be talked over later," said Britt.

SIELOFF LEAVES TODAY.

Accompanied by the Veteran Manager Billy Go—Here Friday.Otto Sieloff, known as the "Fighting Pitcher," will leave for his home in Chicago, accompanied by his manager, Billy Go, who is also a well known member of the boxing profession. They will probably reach Salt Lake Friday morning. In the evening Sieloff will appear at the Rose-Griffis wrestling match at the Salt Palace theater.Sieloff had many friends here who he has met since he was here. He was more by his clever and fast work against McCarthy. The latter is training hard every day for a second match, scheduled for the 24th.

BOXING IN NEW YORK.

Dispatch from Gotham Confirms Story Published in Saturday's "News."New York, May 10.—Boxing bouts, which the sporting element here has been awaiting for three years, are being planned by a new club at Union Hill, N. J., about half a hour's journey from upper Broadway. The promoters promise to give their first entertainment within 30 days. The bouts will be limited to six rounds, with no decision as prevails in Philadelphia.

CHANCE FOR BIG MEET.

Colorado College Track Team Wants to Meet U. of T. Boys.The management of the track team of the Colorado college, of Colorado Springs, has written to the university track team manager, making a proposal for a dual track meet to take place here on the 25th of the month. The Colorado teams make to guaranteed $25 for expenses, which is a most reasonable request. The matter is looked upon favorably by the local athletic, and it is quite probable that the challenge will be accepted. The Colorado team is regarded as being the strongest in that state, and a meeting between the two teams would certainly be interesting.

A FEW SPORTING NOTES.

The Lamentations and the Palefaces will fight it out again this afternoon. Jensen will likely be pitted against Hahn-Heinrich Face Hogs.Talk about showing improvement in hitting. Think of what our batters did yesterthat makes him a star man in his hand in a short, driving way, and he

Members of Negro Conference so Acted, Said a Delegate.Chicago, May 10.—When the committee on credentials recommended the un-seating of a delegate today at the general conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church, half of the members of the conference jumped to their feet, demanding the floor. The committee on credentials recommended that C. S. Long of Orlando, Fla., be unseated as a delegate from the Windward island conference and that Richard E. Moore of Chicago, be seated. Bishop C. S.
Smith obtained the floor and attempted to make an explanation, but was hissed and cried down by the delegates. "We are acting like a lot of monkeys," shouted J. L. Low of Arkansas, "and I think it is time the negroes were learning some sense."The confusion became great, but the chairman by vigorous use of his gavel restored order. The question presented by the committee on credentials was then referred to a special committee for consideration.
