THE SUN.

1878. NEW YORK. 1878.

As the time approaches for the renewal of the subscriptions, THE SUN would remind its friends and wellwishers everywhere, that it is again a candidate for their consideration and support. Upon its record for the past ten years it relies for a continuance of the hearty sympathy and generous co-operation which have hitherto been extended to it from every quarter of the Union.

The Daily Sun is a four page sheet of 28 columns, price by mail, post paid, 55 cents a month, or $6.50 per year.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is an eight-page sheet of 56 columns. While giving the news of the day, it also contains a large amount of literary and miscellaneous matter specially prepared for it. THE SUNDAY SUN has met with great success. Post paid $1.20 a year.

The Weekly Sun.

Who does not know THE WEEKLY SUN? It circulates throughout the United States, the Canadas, and beyond. Ninety thousand families greet its welcome pages weekly, and regard it in the light of guide, counsellor, and friend. Its news, editorial, agricultural, and literary departments make it essentially a journal for the family and the fireside. Terms: One Dollar a year, post paid. This price, quality considered, makes it the cheapest newspaper published. For clubs of ten, with $10 cash, we will send an extra copy free. Address,

BIDE A WEE, AND DINNA FRET.

Is the road very dreary?
Patience yet!
Rest will be sweeter if thou art aweary,
And after the night cometh the morning cheery.
Then bide a wee, and dinna fret.

The clouds have silver lining,
Don't forget;
And though he's hidden, still the sun is shining;
Courage! instead of tears in vain repining,
Just bide a wee, and dinna fret.

With toil and cares unending
Art beset?
Bethink thee, now the storms of heaven descending
Snap the stiff oak, but spare the willow bending,
And bide a wee, and dinna fret.

Grief sharper stings doth borrow
From regret;
But yesterday is gone, and shall its sorrow
Unfit us for the present and to-morrow?
Nay; bide a wee, and dinna fret.

An over-anxious brooding
Doth beget
A host of fears and fantasies deluding;
Then, brother, lest the torments be intruding,
Just bide a wee, and dinna fret.

NEAR SHORE.

Earth is our little island home,
And heaven the neighboring continent,
Whence winds to every inlet come,
With balmiest scent.

And tenderest whispers thence we hear
From those who lately sailed across:
They love us still; since heaven is near
Death is not loss.

From mountain slopes of breeze and balm,
What melodies arrest the ear;
What memories ripple through the calm!
We'll keep near shore.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 12. — The Vice-President presented a communication from the President, in answer to the Senate resolution and enclosing the report of the Secretary of the Navy of the appropriation for and expenditures by the Navy Department, from March 4th, 1789 to June 30th, 1876; also announcing that a similar statement for the War Department is in course of preparation. Ordered printed and referred.

He also presented a communication from the President committing the statement of appropriations and expenditures on account of the army and navy pensions, from March 4th, 1789, to June 30th, 1876. Referred.

A bill pas passed authorizing the taking of land for public use at the intersection of Pennsylvania and Maryland Avenues, on the west front of the Capitol.

Sargent introduced a resolution asking the Secretary of the Navy to inform the Senate if the revised statutes concerning promotions in the navy are complied with. Agreed to.

The Senate then went into executive session, and adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 12. — The army appropriation bill, as reported from the committee of the whole on Saturday, came up for consideration as the regular order. The first amendment was Schleicher's, striking out the clause prohibiting recruiting of the army beyond the number of enlisted men on the rolls on the 1st of November. Concurred in.

The amendment of Culberson, providing that four cavalry regiments be recruited to 100 men each company, to be employed in defense of the Mexican and Indian frontiers of Texas, provided nothing herein contained shall authorize recruiting 30,000 men, was concurred in—yeas, 133; nays, 128. Republicans voted solidly against the amendment and were joined by Gidding, Mills and Schleicher.

The amendment providing that staff officers shall not be entitled to or receive any additional rank, pay or allowance, was rejected—yeas, 123; nays, 131. The negative vote was given by republicans, backed by Blackburn, Carlisle, Cook, Harrison, Eckhoff, Muller, Potter, Willis and Randolph.

Garfield sent to the clerk's desk and had read a letter from the Secretary of War, defending himself from the charges made against him for recruiting soldiers since the army bill was before the committee on appropriations. The Secretary claims that the enlistment of recruits is expressly authorized by law, and therefore it can be carried on even in the absence of the appropriation. Nevertheless, he had not deemed it best to continue recruiting after the 1st of July, not for want of authority, but because he thought it inexpedient to muster men into service when there was no money to pay them. An order had been accordingly issued to stop recruiting on the 1st of July. Subsequently an urgent appeal had come from Major Gen. McDowell, commanding the military division of the Pacific, approved and urged by the General of the army, asking authority to enlist recruits for cavalry regiments engaged in that department in carrying on the Indian war. The Secretary yielded to that appeal, and recruiting had been for a short time permitted for that purpose. The order for this recruiting was not only lawful but urgent and necessary, and a refusal to make it under the circumstances would have subjected the department to grave censure, especially as the smallness of the force engaged in the Indian war was the occasion of the greatest delay in conquering peace and of the death of many brave officers and men. This order for recruiting had been countermanded as soon as the emergency seemed over, and no enlistments had been made since. The impression that some 500 men had been enlisted recently was an entire mistake growing out of a misconstruction of the adjutant general's telegram. A supplementary telegram from the Secretary was also read stating that the order for enlistment was made, not by himself, but by the general of the army on the 5th of July.

Banning, chairman of the committee on militasy affairs, also sent to the clerk's desk and had read a telegram received, to-day, from the adjutant general, stating that recruiting returns showed 1,023 men had been enlisted since the 1st of July, 1877. The principal part had been enlisted on the Pacific coast by authority of the general of the army, given on the 5th of July to meet the exigencies of the Indian war.

The bill was discussed by Messrs. Hewitt, Garfield, Dunnell and Banning, and was finally passed without division.

A large number of bills were introduced and referred, including a bill amending the laws regarding mailable matter of the third class, the existing banking laws, designating the time for the meeting of Congress on the first Monday of January, to reduce the number of military cadets, for the payment of all cotton seized after the 29th of January, 1865, also to refund the tax on raw cotton collected from 1863 to 1868.

By Hunter, to prohibit, by constitutional amendment, the payment of claims arising out of the late rebellion.

By Phillips, for the payment of import duties in legal tender notes as soon as they are quoted at par with legal tender coin of the United States.

Springer offered a resolution calling on the Secretary of State for information as to the indemnity paid by the Spanish government on account of the execution of General Ryan and others in Cuba, in November, 1875; adopted.

The House then adjourned.

WESTERN.

Disastrous Fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, 12.—The North Point Dock bonded warehouse was almost entirely destroyed by fire this afternoon. The building was two stories high and covered about an acre of ground. The origin of the fire is unknown. The building was being closed when the fire broke out, and the employes were absent at dinner. The contents comprised wines, liquors, sugar, bags, glass, crockery, iron, etc. The loss on the contents is estimated at upwards of a quarter of a million, mostly covered by insurance in foreign companies, as well as the building, which was valued at $100,000; insured for $20,000. The walls of the building are standing, otherwise it is a complete wreck.

A Denial.

The story published in Don Piatt's Capitol, of the mismanagement of the Alcatraz military prison is flatly denied in every particular by the officers at the army headquarters here. Every opportunity is offered to the representatives of the press to inspect the prison and converse with those confined there in relation to the charges.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 12.—A Russian official dispatch, dated Bogot, the 11th, says: The Turks last night attempted to surprise General Skobeloff's positions. The Russians were warned and allowed the Turks to approach to within 100 paces, when they received them with a heavy fire. The Turks retreated to an entrenched position and maintained a violent fire until 2 o'clock this morning. It is reported that heavy fighting, favorable to the Turks, has been progressing at Plevna the last two days. Chevket Pasha has gone to Schipka. Mehemet Ali will take command of the divisions at Orchanie. The importation of rye and flour is exempted from duty by Turkey until March 1st, 1878.

The Russian apports from Gabreva en route to Schipka Pass, being obliged to pass within our range recently, lost 500 killed. Our losses were trifling, but include Lessman Pasha, commandant of the artillery, killed.

Mukhtar Pasha telegraphs under date of Sunday: The Russians are entrenching themselves in the neighborhood of Dave Boyun. According to intelligence I have received from Kars up to the 4th inst., the force investing that place is not very numerous. The principal efforts of the enemy are apparently directed against Erzeroum.
