FATHER IN HEAVEN.

[The following touching lines were written by an inmate of Moccilas' Alms House, Worcestershire, England, by the name of William Jones.]

Father in Heaven!
Transcendent Goodness, Deity profound,
How shall Thy matchless mercy close me round,
Profusely given,
Ceaseless my song of praise shall resound,
Father in Heaven.

The earth, the air, the sea uplifted high,
The azure-arched, ethereal, star-gemmed sky
Reverberate Thy praise, and should not I,
To whom is given
All to enjoy, and more, if thou be nigh,
Father in Heaven?

Father in Heaven!
There's not a pebble laved by purling stream,
Or sparkling rolling o'er some poet's dream,
Or lily of the valley or bright nut-brit beam
From Orient driven,
But grows Thy praise in love-adorning gleams,
Father in Heaven.

Father in Heaven!
There's not an atom o'er the distant hills,
Or mute-mazed melody of mountain rills,
To Jove's proud clamors—but thy presence fills
Creation's round.
For though in silent awe man bosom thrills,
Father in Heaven!

Father in Heaven!
Thy mercy comes to earth's low places like the dew,
That kindles the unbending pride and stately yew,
To sparkle on the fern and humble rue,
By tempest riven,
But like Thy peace, 'tis mighty to renew,
Father in Heaven.

Father in Heaven!
Full many a soul-sick, sinful, sorrowing child
Has wandered from Thee, by sin beguiled;
In desolation mourned, till Jesus smiled,
"Thy sins forgiven!"
In me thy God is even reconciled!"
Father in Heaven.

Father in Heaven!
When Thou shalt sit upon thy regal throne
To judge the living and the quickened dead,
Be this my joy, to know that I have done
And suffered all Love's crosses given,
That I may wear Love's everlasting crown
Father in Heaven!

Coroner's Inquest — Twelve Men Killed—The First Car—The Vasquez Gang.

SAN FRANCISCO, 5.—The coroner's inquest on the body of John Gallagher, who was shot on the night of the third, was concluded this afternoon. Several persons who witnessed the disturbance that led to the shooting, were examined. After an absence of ten minutes the jury rendered the following verdict:

"The deceased came to his death, on Sansome street, on the third day of September, from the effects of a pistol shot wound, inflicted by John F. Jones. We find the said act to be justifiable homicide."

At the conclusion of the coroner's inquest, Jones was remanded to the custody of the chief of police, who will keep him in charge until Tuesday next, when the prisoner will have a hearing in the police court. It is probable that he will then be discharged.

A dispatch from Salter Creek states that twelve men were killed to-day in the tunnel of the Lincoln mine by a big cave.

The property of Rockwell Coye & Co., bankrupts, has been seized by the U. S. Marshal, on petition of the creditors.

The hurdle races to-morrow are exciting great interest among horsemen. Special trains will run within a short distance of the track. An immense crowd of curious people were on hand to-day to see the running of the first car up the Clay Street Hill railroad. The car ascended the hill very slowly and came down at a moderate speed. The cars are moved by an endless chain and a small stationary engine, located at the top of the hill. The superintendent said the experiment was satisfactory.

A dispatch from Battersfield states that Sheriff Adams, who is in command of the Visalia posse, has received information that Vasquez was seen yesterday near Elizabeth Lake. Adams and party will go in that direction.

NOVA SCOTIA.

Loss by Storms.

HALIFAX, 5.—A letter from Sidney, Cape Breton, says the settlement of West Bay, on Grand Lake, was almost demolished by a gale; and in Bayadale twenty houses were blown down. In the port of Caledonia about twenty-five American schooners were more or less damaged. Fifteen of the crew of the steamer Saltcell have arrived at Halifax. Seven more of the crew are missing, and are supposed to have been drowned. Only one has reached the shore.
