

A HOME INSTITUTION.

Where the Products of Local Labor Are Prepared for Market.

Has Made a Good Season's Run.

The first Superior is Quality and Quantity. Therefore Cheaper and Better for the Consumer.

It is said that when a man beholds the workings of a home industry he cannot help but feel that it is worth while to make things at home, and that the products of local labor are better than those of foreign manufacture. This is a true statement, and it is the duty of every citizen to support the home industry in every way possible.

This latter condition accompanies a visit to the factory of the Woods Crown Canning Company, located at West 10th and Main streets, Salt Lake City.
The factory is one of the most modern in the city, and it is the duty of every citizen to support the home industry in every way possible.

The factory has had its most successful year. The bulk of its product is canned tomatoes. These are packed in the cans of 250 and 500 pounds each. The factory has also canned peaches, apples, and other fruits. The products are of superior quality and are sold at a low price.

The factory also makes canned fruit. The products are of superior quality and are sold at a low price. The factory has
