ortification Bill-Mining Statistics.

WASHINGTON, July 26 .- The House committee on appropriations has completed the fortification appropriation bill. It provides for the altimate expenditure of a little more than $15,-000,000, but the apprepriation for the current year is limited to $6,202,670. Provision is made for the creation of a Provision is made for the creation of a board of three civilians and three army officers, the first named to be appointed by the President by and with the consent of the Senate. The army officers may be appointed from either of the three branches of the service, the object being to allow the President to select men best qualified for the work. This board is authorized to contract with gunmakers for the supply of 12 fourteen and sixteen-inch steel rifles, the guns to be accepted after a com lourteen and sixteen-inch steel rifles, the guns to be accepted after a competitive test which shall demonstrate that they are equal in every respect to the best service guns. The expenditure on this account is limited to $2,-500,000 annually, and the beard is required to contract for not less than 50 guns for this sum, outside of this appropriation. The bill makes provision for the purchase of fifty cast from mortars and twenty twelve inch from rifles. An appropriation of $750,000 is also made for equipping the Watervliet (New York) arsenal for the finishing of neavy ordnance. With a view to preventing differences between the civilian and army members of the board,

WYOMING SCHOOL LANDS

The House has passed a bill with mendments permitting Wyoming Ferritory to select, protect and lease its school and university lands, and the Senate has concurred in the tmendments. In the discussion in the the Senate has concurred in the timendments. In the discussion in the House on the bill, Toole (Montana) offered an amendment that other Territories be included. Holman, chair man of the committee, said if the amendment prevalled the bill would be taid aside for the present.

Carey (Wyoming) said he believed the measure a wise one; that he had tramed the bill with great care, and that, as amended, it is strongly enlorsed by the land department. That while he would be glad to see it made applicable to other territories, he was not willing to delay its passage now, as this might defeat the measure fingly; that he had labored three years so pass such a bill, and that it would mable his territory to select, protect and lease for school purposes about 1,500,000 acres of land.

Toole then withdrew his amendment.

MINING STATISTICS.

Davis T. Day, chief of the division of mining statistics, has submitted a summary of the mineral products of the United States in 1887, in advance of the official report. The total value $538,056,345. It shows a wonderful cain ever 1886, and is $100,000,000 creater than the output of 1885. The United States leads the world in the production of minerals. The principal cains in 1885 were in the production of netallic ores and fuels necessary for smelting them.

mission was practically concluded today. General Manager Clark of the Chicago & Omaha, and Receiver Truesdale of the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroads were examined, and Attorney Bunn of the Kansas City road made the closing argument. The Commissioners' decision of the case will form an authoritative interpretation of the long haul and short haul clause of the fourth section of the Inter-State law and also of the 'just and reason able' clause and the extent to which a railroad may cut rates and thus injure competing roads.

The State Department was informed today of the establishment of telegraphic communication between the Dutch colony of Curaco and North America. A friendly telegram was sent by the governor of Curaco to the President, and a reply returned by the Secretary of State.

The Colored Conference. Indianapolis, July 26.—The negro emocratic conference was called to order this morning with all the differ-

Chairman Clark opened the proceedings with a scholarly address giving his reasons why a negro should become a democrat. He said the republicans declare in favor of a free ballot and a fair count, but know full well that the evils of which they complain are ones that cannot be controlled by federal actions. The decisions of the Supreme Court have repeatedly shown that fact. One wonders why the republicans do not follow the path so plainly shown by the events of the past 20 years, and why they do not resort to state action, to state agitation for the establishment of any rights that are now denied them. The party of denunciation and hate had been fully tried. Let us try the oppo-

J. Miller Turner said: "The republicans toink this movement is a joke. In some sense it certainly is, but it is a pretty serious joke, as will be shown next November."

He closed by declaring "that in the He closed by declaring that in the He closed by declaring the week ending July 26. republican party today there are more men greasing the wheels for us than there are in the democratic party. My doors were besieged last night by republicans."

The committee on resolutions was then appeinted, with Thomas Fortune of New York, chairman.

The committee this evening reported resolutions reviewing the political condition of the negro and the promises made by President Cleveland touching a full enjoyment of their rights, of which the following is a summary:

Miss Mollie Korbel on Wednesday o'clock this morning on the fron-clad night under circumstances of peculiar night under circumstances of peculiar atrocity. She was a domestic in the sheriff's employ and had been entrusted with the management of the household during the temporary absence of the family. She had just given the prisoners their supper, when Elmer, who boarded in the house, asked her if she intended going out that evening. She replied that she would do so if she chose, whereupon Elmer shot her three times, causing instant death. He had not been paying her attention and no cause is known for his act.

He was at once locked up. A crowd gathered and tried to storm the juil, but the ringleaders were arrested before anything was done.

Speech by Marrison Indianapolis, July 26 .- Over 2000 strangers paid their respects and shook hands with General Harrison today. The principal delegation came from

The principal delegation came from Clay Coanty, Indiana, and vicinity, and was composed of coal miners and other citizens not all of whom are interested in the mining industries. Conspicuous in the delegation were a hundred or more negro miners. It was by far the most imposing demonstration that has been made by any outside delegation. It was under the auspices of the Harrison miners' club of Brazil and partook largely of a labor demonstration. They carried banners with inscriptions decidedly favoring protection. Mayor Carter, of Brazil, delivered the welcome address, to which General Harrison responded to which General Harrison responded at some length. He spoke strongly on protection to American industries and labor and was loudly applauded many times. Among the things he said was: Some resort to statistics to show that the condition of the American workman is better than that of any other country. I do not care now to deal with statistics. One fact is eaough for me—the tide of immigration from all European countries has been and is toward the shores. The gates of Castle Garden swing inward. The production of pig iron alone was nore than $26,000,000. The high price of copper caused a metallic expansion in that industry. The product of coal is the largest ever recorded. Taken as a whole the report shows great prosperity for the mining industry. The grand total value of more than half a billion dollars," the report says, "resulted not only from the increase in quantity of minerals used, but also from the general advance in prices in the metals. It may be several years before this total is exceeded, and the year 1888 will fall considerably below it. Among the many reasons for the lecrease this year is the decline in railroad building.
