A Scene in the Commons.

LONDON, April 23.—A scene occurred in the Commons this evening on the question being raised by Shaw-Lefevre regarding the increase of sentences in Ireland in appeal cases.

Matthews, home secretary, being pressed admitted that, in his experience, there was not a precedent in England in any similar cases.

Stuart asked Madden, solicitor general for Ireland, how many such cases there had been in Ireland in the last decade.

Madden evaded the question as not coming before him officially.

Stuart repeated the question three times with the same result. After being pressed for an answer, Madden excitedly replied he did not know, which answer was received with loud cheers by the opposition and the Parnellites.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt asked who did know, and declared he wanted the question answered, whereupon Madden promised to get the desired information if a return was moved for. The matter was then dropped.

The customs inland revenue bill was taken up, and after a long debate over the amendment by Gladstone, which was defeated, the bill was passed to second reading.

The Doctor's Denial.

BERLIN, April 23.—Dr. MacKenzie has written letters to the Kreuze Zeitung, the Post and the Cologne Gazette, denying the recent charges against him, stating he had superseded Dr. Bergmann without due courtesy. MacKenzie had a long interview with Prince Bismarck today. The Doctor's letters to the three papers above named were inserted under legal compulsion.

The Samoan Islands.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Representative Morrow of California today introduced in the House the following joint resolution:

WHEREAS, Certain European powers have recently pursued in the Pacific Ocean an aggressive policy of annexation and colonization which has resulted in the almost complete destruction of native independence and autonomy in that quarter of the globe; and

WHEREAS, In view of the growing importance of the commercial interests of the United States in the Pacific, it is desirable that there should be maintained whatever remains of independent government in that part of the seas free from European domination and control; and

WHEREAS, In the Samoan Islands, one of the few remaining independent groups of the Pacific Ocean, recent events have tended to impair if not absolutely to destroy their independence and autonomy; and

WHEREAS, The United States, as a friendly power, having commercial interests in said Islands, and as the first government to respect and encourage their independence and enter into treaty relations with them, is interested in maintaining their autonomy and independence; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the present condition of affairs at Samoa requires that this Government should aid the people of those islands in securing diplomatic arrangement and independent native government, free from the claim of territorial jurisdiction of European powers; to the end that this purpose may be speedily and effectively accomplished, the President of the United States is hereby requested to continue to interpose the good offices of this government in an effort to settle and adjust the present difficulties at Samoa upon a solid foundation, and for the restoration of peace and good order and the establishment of a responsible native independent government.

The Emperor Improving.

BERLIN, April 24, 1 a. m.—The Emperor continues to improve, his fever is decreasing.

The Emperor's general condition is satisfactory. The discharge from the throat is copious. The swelling of the glands has decreased.

The U. P. in Trouble.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Representative Anderson (Iowa) introduced in the House today a bill directing the Attorney-General to institute judicial proceedings against the Union Pacific Railroad Company and other parties. A very long preamble to the bill recites that it appears from the report of the Pacific Railway commissioners that the Union Pacific has for years persistently refused to comply with the conditions of the various acts of Congress relating to it; that the officers and managers have squandered large sums out of the gross earnings in extravagant and unprofitable enterprises and have divided immense sums of money among themselves; that the company has since the passage of the act of 1873 issued new incumbrances without the consent of Congress, thereby impairing its credit and destroying the value of the United States lien; that it has levied excessive charges upon the people tributary to the line, and that the company has by its unlawful acts forfeited its rights, privileges and grants, including the privilege of further time in which to pay its indebtedness to the United States. The bill in substance directs the Attorney-General to forthwith institute proceedings in the courts of the United States, either in law or equity, to enforce the forfeiture provided in the law of 1878 and other acts, and collect the moneys due the United States from the company, its stockholders and officers.

He is also directed to bring suit against the Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific to recover the proceeds of the wrongful issue of stock and bonds amounting to $75,000,000, including in the action John Bailey, Elisha Atkins, Ezra H. Baker and Sidney Dillon, and to join as parties defendant Jay Gould, Fred T. Ames, Russel Sage and others to recover $36,000,000 more or less, the proceeds of the sale of bonds. All claims growing out of the transaction which may be the subject matter of suit are to be exempted from the statute of limitation.

The Pope Denounces Boycotting.

NEW YORK, April 23.—The Catholic News has received the following cable dispatch: The Vatican has issued a decree condemning boycouting and the plan of campaign. The decree distinguishes the national movement from these revolutionary measures. It condemns only the latter.

Shippers Must be Truthful.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Senator Brown today introduced a bill intended as an amendment to the Inter-State law. It provides that any shipper who shall misrepresent the character of the weights or value of his shipment, with a view of securing lower rates than charged other shippers of like property, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished accordingly.

Does it Show Discrimination?

WASHINGTON, April 23.—The House committee on manufactures today resumed inquiry into the subject of trusts.

Mr. Scott, representative of the Pennsylvania Railroad, spoke of the subpœna which had been served upon ten officers of the Pennsylvania Company concerning the transportation of oil, calling for the production of a large number of contracts, etc. He thought the railroad company should not be called upon for such extensive information, which was apparently sought for by some person outside the committee who desired to get information to institute private lawsuits, etc.

F. D. Gowan of the Reading Company, acting as counsel for the committee, proposed to show by information called for by the subpœna, that the Pennsylvania and other roads had been guilty of discrimination by which the Standard Oil Company had maintained the monopoly of the production of oil.

Without final disposition of the matter the subject was laid aside. Malcolm Lloyd, of Philadelphia, testified he recently sold out his independent business to the Standard Oil Company, receiving the latter's certificates equal in amount to the amount of his property. While in business for himself he had received rebates from the Pennsylvania Railroad. The committee requested him to prepare a statement of such rebates.

Tariff Preliminaries.

The democratic caucus tonight discussed the republican committee ultimatum on the tariff debate. The general sentiment was that it was expedient at this time to limit the debate. The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this caucus that the tariff discussion be resumed tomorrow and continued to conclusion, to the exclusion of other business, except that night sessions may be held, and if not required for debate upon tariff shall be employed in current legislation, the direction heretofore given so to arrange amicable arrangement as to the time the debate on the tariff bill to continue in force.

The reference to the "amicable arrangement" refers to the direction of the majority to ascertain the wishes of the republicans, and an adjournment was ordered in the hope that the republican members might be disposed to compromise at the meeting of the committee tomorrow.

Immediate Transportation.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Senator Cullom introduced a bill today to amend the immediate transportation act and general revenue laws, so as to allow of the immediate transportation of imported goods, in case where, by reason of inevitable accident, the consular invoices have not been received with the goods, or where the value is too small to justify the expenses of such invoices.

President Cleveland on Fort Du Chesne.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—In disapproving the sentences of dismissal in the cases of Captain J. A. Olmstead, Ninth Cavalry, and First Lieutenant Montgomery D. Parker, Ninth Cavalry, the President said in his orders that "an examination of these cases tried by the same court-martial has fully convinced me that conditions exist at Fort Duchesne that must, if allowed to continue, result in scandal and demoralization. This condition should and must be promptly corrected by a more effective plan than the approval of court-martial proceedings which rest upon suspicious and weak evidence, and which it may well be feared originated in questionable motives."

Gen. Crook Transferred.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—It has been practically decided at the War Department to assign Major-General Crook to the command of the division of the Missouri, with headquarters at Chicago, and an order to that effect will probably be issued in a day or two. It is said Major-General Howard, commanding the division of the Pacific, desired to be transferred to the Missouri, but it was found the interest of the service could be subserved better by retaining him at San Francisco, and assigning the new major-general to the division of the Missouri.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Lieut.-Colonel C. B. Comstock, to be Colonel.

Major J. A. Smith, to be Lieut.-Colonel.

Brigadier General Geo. Crook, to be Major General.

Col. J. R. Brooke, to be Brigadier General.

J. H. Hubble, postmaster at Jefferson, Neb.

Very Sick.

NEW YORK, April 23.—Max Strakosch, the famous impresario, is lying seriously ill at his residence here.

Two Ships Wrecked.

LONDON, April 23.—The American ship Continental from New York, December 31, for Calcutta, before reported ashore at Palmyra Point, has become a total wreck. Her crew was saved.

The American steamer San Pablo, Captain Reed from San Francisco, March 24th, via Yokohama for Hong Kong, before reported ashore at Turnabout Island, is a total loss. Her crew have arrived at Shanghai.

Is Poaching, in a Legal "Contract Labor" Sense?

NEW YORK, April 23.—In the United States Circuit Court, Judge Wallace heard arguments today in the case of the rector, wardens and vestrymen of the church of the Holy Trinity. The case arises out of the engagement of Rev. E. Walpole Warren of England, as pastor of the church, at a stipulated salary. Mr. Warren arrived here September last. It was claimed the clergyman's engagement came under the law forbidding the importation of contract labor. For the defense it was claimed that the act refers only to those who perform manual labor. Briefs were handed in and the decision was reserved.

Gov. Hill Overhauled.

NEW YORK, April 23.—At the opening today of the state senatorial investigation into the alleged corruption in connection with the work on the Croton Aqueduct, and in other departments of the city, Senator Pierce arose and stated he had received a telegram from Gov. Hill demanding that Hollis M. Squire be required to produce the letters he swore he had received from the governor.

President Spencer, of the aqueduct commission, the first witness, said he had visited Gov. Hill and urged him to veto the bill, reorganizing the board by putting the mayor and comptroller off of it. This was only a few days before the governor signed it.

Hollis M. Squire, ex-commissioner of public works and ex-member of the aqueduct board, was called and produced a number of letters and notes from Gov. Hill and from his private secretary. Some of them were invitations for conferences with the governor. In one Gov. Hill asks Squire to restore a man named Neilson, who had been discharged from the public works department. Another from "Budge" Mullen, the governor's friend, asking that Charles Cornell be appointed to a position under Squire.

Ex-Comptroller Lowe testified that he understood the aqueduct commissioners reorganization was initiated with J. O'Brien, of the contractors' firm of O'Brien & Clark, who it had been alleged profited by the change and aided Governor Hill's canvass financially. Witness declined to accede to the request of Judge Mullen that he vote to award three sections of the aqueduct contract to O'Brien & Clark, and it began to be intimated that witness was to be removed from the commission.

City Chamberlain Irvine related the story of a visit made to Governor Hill, when he laid before him the evidence tending to show that Squire had been guilty of a criminal offense. The Governor, he said, did not think it furnished the basis for a criminal action and appealed to his (Irving's) democracy. He said scandals were bad for the party; that it was disloyalty to the party to bring a matter of that kind out, and that the party would hold the man who did it responsible. Witness told him the party should punish its own rascals, and cited the career of Mr. Tilden. To that, the Governor retorted that the times and conditions had changed, and there had been too much of that sort of thing from other sources. Later, witness had learned that Governor Hill was endeavouring to prevent the matter from being made public, and that he threatened to remove District Attorney (now Judge) Martine unless it was suppressed. Witness managed to bring out the exposure.

Herman, the clerk of the firm of O'Brien & Clark, told of a $10,000 note signed by Governor Hill, and endorsed by his partner and himself. He said payments of $1000 at a time were made on it from time to time till it was all paid. All these sums were charged to the individual account of his partner, O'Brien. He understood that this was some political assessment on the firm and other firms engaged in the work, for the democratic party, and not for Governor Hill.

Ex-assistant District Attorney Nicoll testified that after Squire was indicted Governor Hill sent for him several times, and urged him to bring the case to trial, as the people were saying that he (Hill) was having it put off.

Victoria Greeted at Berlin.

MUNICH, April 23.—Queen Victoria arrived here today on her way to Berlin. Her majesty was greeted at the railway station by Prince Regent Luitpold, Queen Marie and all the members of the royal family now in the city. Members of the British Legation and the Papal Nuncio were all present.

Barns Burned.

CHICAGO, April 23.—Five barns and two corn cribs belonging to the Union Stock Yard and Transit Company burned today. Loss about $100,000; covered by insurance.

A Club Banquet.

CHICAGO, April 23.—The fifth annual banquet of the Iroquois Club was held tonight, it being the anniversary of the birth of Stephen A. Douglas. It was a success from a democratic standpoint. Covers for 350 persons were laid and every seat was filled when President Newbury called the assemblage to order. Many prominent democrats of national reputation were present, the only notable absence being that of Henry Watterson. Among the letters of regret received and read was one from George William Curtis, who wrote among other things: "My engagements already made for the time mentioned compel me to lose the signal pleasure which you propose to me, and I can only assure you of my confidence that the Iroquois Club by their patriotism and independence, will greatly aid the wise and popular decision in the impending national debate of the year."

Chairman Roger A. Mills, of the ways and means committee, writes from Washington as follows, after expressing regrets for non-attendance:

"We are on the eve of another great national struggle and the occasion will be appropriate for expressing our devotion to democratic principles and fidelity to party organization. Our President has boldly planted his colors on the field and challenged our opponents to try conclusions on the issue presented. In this we have done his duty faithfully and has made every effort to redeem the pledges we, as democrats, have given the people, to reduce taxation. He has called the attention of Congress to the heavy and unnecessary burden of taxation now resting on the necessaries of life. He has urged Congress to reduce the rates and make them lighter. These extraordinary rates are bringing to the national treasury an excess of $80,000,000 per annum, and yet the republicans are opposing reduction on food clothing, and implements of labor. It is the duty of every democrat to stand by him and support him, and the Iroquis Club, known all over the Union for its unshaken fidelity to democratic principles, can do good service to the country by speaking out boldly in his support and in support of the democratic House, who are trying to carry his recommendations into effect and relieve the country from the pernicious results of this exhausting taxation on articles that have been produced and consumed by the people. If we stand bravely by the President and force the fighting on an issue joined between those who favor free whisky on the one side and those who favor free clothing on the other, we will win a great victory; if not here, we will before the people next November, and a victory that will be full of the best results to the country and party."

Letters were also received from Senator A. H. Colquitt, of Georgia, Congressman Frank Lawler and Thomas S. Hudd; Governors John W. Davis, Rhode Island, and Thomas Moonlight, Wyoming Territory, and Max Popper, president of the Iroquois Club of San Francisco.

After the menu had been discussed the following toasts were responded to: "Stephen A. Douglas." The Hon. Melville W. Fuller paid an eloquent tribute to the great leader. "Triumph and Democracy"—United States Pension Commissioner John C. Black. "Be it Enacted"—Ex Governor J. Sterling Morton. "Grover Cleveland"—T. M. Patterson of Colorado. "Progressive Politics"—L. D. Thomas, ex-Civil Service Commissioner. "The Boss Trust"—General I. N. Stiles.

Madame Dies De Bar and the "Spook Painting."

NEW YORK, April 23.—With the permission of Lawyer Marsh, four detectives went to his Madison Avenue residence today and took fourteen of the alleged spook paintings which were foisted on the credulous old man by Mme. Diss De Bar. Among the pictures was one said to represent one of Methuselah's ancestors, who lived twenty-four hundred years ago and one of Henry Ward Beecher. Another picture was finished in raw oil and it is said it will not be dry in a year. The pictures will be used as evidence against the Madame tomorrow.
