EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - - June 11, 1887.

FESTIVE DEPUTIES.

Unsuccessful Raid on a Sanpete Town.

SPRING CITY, Sanpete County, Utah, June 8th, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

This morning a little after 4 o'clock, a raid was made by deputies Dykes and Rasmus Clawson at the house of Mr. John Frantzen, but not finding that gentleman at home they subpoenaed his legal wife, his daughter and his hired man, to appear before U. S. Commissioner Jacob Johnson, of this city, at 9 o'clock a. m. Being disappointed in finding the object of their search they proceeded to the house of as she is commonly called, an old lady aged nearly 76 years, and here they met with the same success as at the former place, which did not seem to please these functionaries very much. The old lady was also told to appear before the commissioner at 9 a.m.

They next started for the house of Mr. James Christensen, but, no doubt to their surprise, met with the same disappointment as before. They found the nest where the bird, no doubt, had nestled shortly before, but he had disappeared. They subpœnaed his legal wife to be at the commissioner's office at 9 a.m. They also went to a house on the lot belonging to Mr. J. Christensen, which they found locked, as nobody was at home. In order to they broke off the casing on one side of the door; otherwise the marshals were gentlemanly in their behavior. From there they went to the house of Mr. Jos. C. Wright, a son-in-law of Mr. Christensen, but with the same result as before.

The witnesses all met promptly at the Commissioner's office at the appointed time, but not having the defendant in court, the hearing was postponed till 10 a. m. on Monday, the 13th inst.

The crime that these brethren are accused of is cohabiting with their wives. The complaints in both cases were sworn to by Albert F. Ether, a defunct deputy marshal; at least it is rumored that the said Ether has been discharged.

The query here with many is: "Can deputies go and break open any house that they may find vacated and force an entrance at their pleasure?"

Fraternally yours, SANPITCH.

PACIFIC COAST NOTES.

CULLED FROM LATEST WESTERN EXCHANGES.

The sealing schooner Lottie, which is fitting out at Port Townsend for a northern cruise, is owned and manned by Indians.

The New Northwest says that the grading for the narrow gauge railroad from Elk Rock to Portland will be finished by August 20th.

The Albuquerque (N. M.) Democrat says land jumping is becoming so frequent in the vicinity of Tempe, A. T., that lynching is talked about.

The presence of catfish in the Sacramento is believed to account largely for the decrease of salmon. The catfish prey on salmon spawn.

The Coroner's jury summoned in San Francisco, on the 7th, to inquire into the circumstances connected with the death of Hansel E. Hallowell, returned a verdict of death by suicide.

A bitter war of steamboat rates on Puget sound between the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company and the Wasington Steamboat Company is just beginning.

At Rio Vista, Cal., June 4, news was received of the sinking of J. G. K. Sprague's boat, containing himself and son, and the drowning of Sprague, about two miles below.

An Oregon paper says that smelting works to cost $50,000 are to be erected at Tacoma, W. T., and will be the only institution of the kind on the Pacific coast outside of San Francisco.

The Walla Walla (W.T.) Union says: Lots of strange things float down Snake river during the high water. A big warehouse from Almota and a fine-appearing dwelling, with green blinds and a chimney, passed Riparia Wednesday.

A railroad direct from Yuba to San Diego is under consideration by the Southern Pacific people, the scheme including the reclamation of an immense tract of desert land, through which the road will pass, by turning the Colorado river into it.

Last Saturday night burglars entered Kirkman's store at Acampo, in the northern part of San Joaquin county, Cal., and blew open a safe in the post-office, which is in the same building, secured about $125 in coin, $117 worth of postage stamps and some cigars and some cigarettes.

The San Bernardino Times of the 4th says: Colonel Sim Lucas captured on his ranch yesterday a bug that stalls all the bugologists in the city. It is not more than half an inch long, and yet it has a stinger a quarter of an inch in length. It will bite like a dog and hold on like grim death.

Word reached San Diego, Cal., June 6, from Paris, that a middle-aged German named August Huffman, had put an end to his existence on Saturday night by blowing his head and a part of his body to pieces with a shotgun. The cause of the act is said to have been family difficulties.

The Florence (A.T.) Enterprise says: The skeleton of one of the ancient people who inhabited this country in the ages of its prehistoric prosperity was unearthed at Aaron Mason's camp on the Florence canal recently, in the solid rock formed by the bed of the old canal of that ancient period.

A dispatch dated Santa Cruz, June 6, says: At 8 o'clock this morning two ladies, while strolling on the beach, were horrified to see the body of a man lying at full length, the face up turned, on the sand. A bull-dog pistol was at his side and a hat on his breast. A gaping wound in his temple told too well the manner in which he had met his death. Coroner Mordan was notified, and the remains were removed to Scott & Ely's undertaking rooms. His pockets were searched in a vain endeavor to discover some clew as to the identity of the deceased. Nothing except a handkerchief, pair of gloves, a nickel-plated watch and an oroide chain were found. From the meagre evidence at hand, it is fair to presume that the deceased lay on his back on the sand, placed the pistol to his temple and sent a bullet crashing through his head.

According to the Los Angeles Times, a farmer in that vicinity combines the faculty of adapting the means to the end desired in a degree that makes the successful inventor and engineer. He had a tract of land useless without irrigation, which he was unable to provide for in the usual way; and he also had a family of twelve children. In his case the rising generation of family offshoots were the means, and irrigation the desired end. He had money enough to dig a well, buy a low-priced pump and a gigantic family swing, of the picnic order. He connected the pump to the swing, gave the youngsters full liberty to amuse themselves with the latter, the result being a stream of water that makes the arid soil fairly smile. Nothing less than enough measles or whooping cough to go all around will stop the supply of water.

A comparatively new method of heating hotels is this: A well-dressed guest pompously registers, throws down a check and orders the clerk to send for his baggage. He goes to his room, and the clerk reports that the baggage cannot be found. The guest gets very indignant, and the search for his trunk is renewed. The next morning, after having had a dinner, a night's lodging and breakfast, the guest goes away and leaves his check which it is found represents no baggage, but was procured for the express purpose of beating hotels.

Facial neuralgia and toothache are instantaneously relieved by St. Jacobs Oil.

NOTICE

Is hereby given that Sam Levy, manufacturer of fine Hand Made Cigars, can compete with the east or west. Having been established for the past fifteen years in this city, I am in a position to know what the public want, and I claim my Home Made Cigars are made of a finer and purer quality of tobacco than any of my competitors', and dealers that want a good article should not fail to patronize Home Industry when it can be bought at home for the same price, and thereby you will give employment to men and boys, and the money remains here, instead of sending it away.

Dealers should try and build up their own city, and all I ask is a fair trial on any of my brands, such as "The Famous," "My Own," "Old Crow," "La Crema," "La Calidad," etc., etc., and then you will be convinced.
