Rev. Father Cashman' and party have returned from Park City, where they spent a very enjoyable day. Father Cashman gave his illustrated lecture on Ireland to a great audience at the Park. The party visited several mines, the Silver King being one of them. The distinguished visitors will return to Chicago this evening.

Powers, Straup & Lippman this morning sent complaints in condemnation suits to three Montana counties. These complaints are in the interest of the Postal Telegraph company and against the Western Union. Judge Powers says that this is only a part of the fight that is being waged in behalf of the Postal throughout the West. That company, he further says, will have a line into Salt Lake the coming summer.

A rather exciting runaway occurred on State street last evening. Charles Carlson, the cigar man, was out driving with a lady, and on passing the Stude-baker building the horse was frightened at something, and ran down the street Both of the occupants tried to subdue the animal, but of no avail. On cross Second South street the buggy dashed into a cart containing two men, who were knocked out. Both vehicles smashed, but none of the people were hurt seriously.

SUCCUMBS TO PARALYSIS. Mrs. Bodmer Passes Away at Her

Home-Was the Third Attack.

Mrs. Julia B. Bodmer of No. 304 east Second South street, died of paralysis yesterday. She had sustained two simllar attacks before, and when she was selzed with the third last Friday night she was rendered absolutely helpless, and was found in that condition by her 14-year-old daughter Julia. Mrs. Bod-mer's condition gradually grew more critical until the vital spark went out. She was 53 years old, and is survived by a husband, Herman Bodmer, who is in Montana, a son, Herman J. Bodmer, tions who has a situation at the J. H. Leyso company, and her daughter Julia. Th The family emigrated to this country from Switzerland ten years ago. The father, after considerable difficulty, located and appraised of the sad event, and will come home at once, The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, from the Twelfth ward meeting house. The local Stone masons' Union held a meeting last night, and decided abolutely to demand an increase of wages from $3.50 to $4 per day, of eight hours. And May I was the time fixed upon to begin the higher wage. The new con-stitution and by-laws of the union were adopted, in which is provided a payment of $50 toward defraying the funeral expenses of any member who dies in good standing. The membership of the union now numbers forty-five, but an increase to sixty is expected by Monday evening next. But very few of the members are not employed.

AN IGNORANT JURY. "The Creation of Ambitious Lawyers, Not of Law."

"Why do they need an ignorant jury?" The writer of this was asked the above question a few days ago by a little nephew in Salt Lake City who had been imbibing rather freely of court notes during the trial of Benbrook. This young man naturally concluded that who do not read the newspapers nor hold opinions of their own are prac tically incapable of either and therefore very ignorant. To have answered the question logically and consistently would have been to plant in that boy's mind the seeds of disrespect and contempt for one of the most important branches of our government. That boy will never serve as a juryman on an important case. He will read and post himself as to what is right and wrong; he will, as do all intelligent men, behold. ome conversant with the purpose law, and all the flowery eloquence of the most expert lawyer will not deprive him of the faculty of thought and the power of reasoning for himself, hence he will become a subject for that thorn in the side of justice, "peremptory challenge," and be excused from service for no other fault than common intelligence. Expert lawyers owe their reputation for winning cases, not so much to their knowledge of law as to their knowledge of human which enables them to select jurymen whom they can sway by argument into the belief that black is whit or white is black at their will. At ignorant jury is the creation of am-bitious lawyers, not of law.—Beaver County Blade.

couraging remarks. DR. MAESER'S ADDRESS.

Dr. Karl G. Maeser felt gratified to meet with the teachers and workers of the schools of the Stake. He has just returned from a visit to the schools in Mexico and intermediate points. He enjoined upon teachers and offlcers the close observance of the sug-gestions given in the Sunday School Treatise. Teachers' meetings should be held regularly and in strict conformity with the program given in the Treatise on pages 20-21. The Treatise should be carefully studied and dis-cussed in the teachers' meetings till they become familiar with its instruc-

Concert recitations should be prac ticed every Sunday in every school Among the concert lessons suggested are the Ten Commandments, Articles of Faith, the Lord's Prayer, Blessing on the Sacrament, testimonies of the witnesses to the Book of Mormon, prominent passages of Scripture, etc The proper position of the teacher efore his class determined much of is success. The class should be so his success. arranged that the teacher can look in the eye of every pupil without turning the head. The teacher can say more with his eyes than he can with his lips in the matter of maintaining disipline, and the children can learn as much by reading in the teacher's eye as they can by the hearing of the ear. The doctor illustrated his remarks by apt stories and anecdotes, drawr from his own experience, which were much appreciated by the audience. The Twenty-third ward school was requested to furnish the musical exercises at the April meeting of the Union. Benediction was offered by Elder Geo. M. Cannon, and the meeting adjourned.

ADOPTS A LITTLE WAIF.

Baby Left on the Doorstep of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clark. Mr. and Mrs. William John Clark, residing at 418 south Second West street have petitioned the district court to allow them to adopt a male child, left on the doorstep of their residence December 13, 1899. Judge Hiles yesterday signed a decree granting the pe-titioin. When found the babe was about twelve hours old. On its clothing peared a note worded as follows: " "Wax born Tuesday, December 12, 1899, F take me in, for I am a little waif." Please to the Lambert Paper Company. There are continued proofs of the stiffening of real estate figures and the desire to secure property near the upper or north end of the business district. Many substantial improvements are following in the wake of the "News" building now in course of erection at the corner of East and South Temple streets. Among these may be noted the Mrs. Judge store into which R. K. Phomas has just moved his big stock of dry goods, the Cunnington and com-pany warehouse and store across and farther up the street, which is se be built, the contemplated addition to Z. C. M. I. and other improvements. All of these considerations contributed to a deal that was closed today between the Lambert Paper company, George C. Lambert manager, and Mrs A. Clayton, in which the former night from the latter for $15,560, the old High School building, near the corner of Richard street and South Tem-ple.
