

W. BELL IS NOW IN COUNTY JAIL

Bogus Policeman Who Figured in $10,000 McWhirter Robbery Arrives in Salt Lake.

ARRESTED IN KANSAS CITY.

Good Work on the Part of Dick Eddington Who Went After His Man and Landed Him.

After spending over a thousand dollars and traveling as many miles or more in an effort to escape the authorities, W. W. St. Clair, alias W. W.
Bell, the bogus policeman who was implicated in the robbery of the McWhirter brothers in this city last September of more than $10,000, is now behind the bars of the county jail and will have to stand trial for his part in the most sensational robbery in the history of the city. Sheriff Emery and Deputy Sheriff Eddington returned last night with their prisoner, who was captured in Kansas City after being trailed by the sheriff and his deputies and County Atty. Hanson for the past eight months.

Bell is rather short and heavy set, and is about 28 years of age. He is undoubtedly the nervous one of the gang implicated in that robbery, as it was he who started with Alexander McWhirter to the police station after the robbery and attempted to give the young Scotchman the McWhirter's money. He was, however, finally compelled him to go to the police station with him. It was there that Chief of Police Shedd took a hand in the matter by sending Bell out to get rid of the money back from the gang which had fled the two young men.
Bell went out and after several hours returned with $750, which was not accepted by McWhirter. Bell was then sent back after more money and brought $250 more, making $1,000 which was given back. This amount was apparently satisfactory to the McWhir-ters, who were hustled out of town that night for Los Angeles. After reaching the latter city they sought advice from an attorney and decided to come back here and attempt to locate the men who committed the robbery and to prosecute them.

WORK OF SHERIFF.
The story of how they carried out these plans is familiar to the public in general. With the assistance of Sheriff Emery and his deputies and the county attorney they succeeded in locating and arresting W. H. Parrent, Jim Donaldson and finally Bell as principals in the affair and Chief of Police Sheets, Detective Raleigh, Atty. William Newton and Nick Razzano as conspirators in the case. There are still two principals in the robbery at large.
They are Jack and Larry O'Brien.

That Bell was captured with the valuable assistance of W. H. Parrent, who has worked with Bell in the gambling business, is without question.
A tip was given the sheriff that Bell was working in and around Kansas City, whereupon Deputy Sheriff Eddington was sent to that city to look for him. After several days and in searching for his man he was finally located.

HOW ARREST WAS MADE.
Eddington learned that Bell frequented a rooming house known as the Baltimore at 1314 Baltimore street. He went there and ending under the presence of looking for a room and while he was talking with the landlady Bell came along the hall. Eddington at once recognized him and placed him under arrest. He placed the handcuffs on him and took him to the county jail, where he stayed until brought back here.

Sheriff Emery was notified of the arrest and left this city at once with requisition papers. As soon as he landed in Kansas City he and his deputy went at once to Jefferson City and presented the papers to Gov. Folk.
The governor wasted no time in honoring them and the officers went back after Bell. The latter's wife was in the city and called on him several times while in jail. She had employed counsel for her husband and it was anticipated that habeas corpus proceedings would be instituted. But the trip to Jefferson City and the honoring of the requisition were done so quickly that the attorneys for Bell did not have time to act. Before Bell was taken from the jail to the depot his wife permission to see his wife. She was called and rode to the depot with him but decided to remain in Kansas City for the present.

NO DELAYS ON TRIP.
There was not a single delay on the trip, which was made as quickly as possible, and Bell is now behind the bars. He has refused to make any statement whatever concerning his part in the robbery, and the sheriff has not yet allowed him to be interviewed by representatives of the press. The sheriff has the highest praise for the work done by Marshal A. H.
Heath of Kansas City and his three deputies, who rendered every assistance possible to the Salt Lake county officials in their search for Bell and in running down evidence against him, all of which was greatly appreciated by the sheriff and his deputy.

Just when Bell will be arraigned is not known, as County Attorney Hanson is going to Salt Lake tomorrow business and will not return for several days. It is probable that the arraignment will take place the first part of next week.

CASE OF LEPROSY IN SALT LAKE CITY

Patient is a Korean Who is Being Detained at Holy Cross Hospital.

There is a case of leprosy in the city.
The patient is a Korean man aged about 40, who came to this country nearly a year ago, when it is believed he had already contracted the disease. Dr. Tyndale reported the case to the state board of health, and the man is now detained at the Holy Cross hospital awaiting disposition by the state health authorities.

The Korean came to the state director from the Hawaiian Islands, and since last January has been working for the San Pedro road. He called on Dr. Tyndale last Saturday to see what could be done to better his condition, when the doctor noticed the man's hair falling out, and presently diagnosed the case as one of leprosy. Under the law, the Korean cannot be shipped back to San Francisco, and the steamship company that brought him to this country be compelled to carry him away again. Dr. Tyndale, however, believes that the Korean society existing in San Francisco will take care of the patient and see that he is returned to his native land to die.
Physicians here are of the opinion that danger from leprosy, in fact the patient in question can ride in the street cars without danger of communicating the disease to any one. Close and continued contact is necessary to communicate leprosy. All the same, when it was suggested to Immigration Inspector Long that this morning he would meet the Korean at the pleasant job of escorting the Korean back to the port of San Francisco, he pretty near collapsed at the prospect, and exclaimed, "Not on my life!"

DUNKARDS IN TOWN.

Company of German Baptists on Their Way to Los Angeles.

Rio Grande train No. 1 came in from the east today, bearing a large party of Dunkards, en route to Los Angeles, where a national convention of the order will be held during two days next week. The Dunkards came from all parts of the country east and south, and are traveling in first class style and making good time. They carry with them a large brass band, which paraded the streets this morning, followed by members of the order, all uniformed in light grey suits.

The order known as "Dunkards" is really a religious denomination of German Baptists, who have numerous colonies in this country and Canada. At 2 o'clock today the members of the order, numbering 100, will take in the sight of the "seeing car," and will leave for Los Angeles over the Salt Lake Route on a special train this evening.

RED FLAG CAUSES INTERCLASS BUSH

Lawn in Front of L. D. S. U.
Buildings Scene of Lively Scrimmage.

TRUANTS VIOLATE TRUCE.

After Armistice is Arranged Youngster From High School Cries Pole and Removes Emblem in Dispute.

The lawn in front of the L. D. S. university buildings was the scene of much animation for a period of two hours this morning, when several hundred male students of the school engaged in a lively scrimmage. A red flag, floating from the top of the campus flagpole, was the occasion of the mixup, and the contest was between pupils from the business college on one side, and members of various classes in other departments, on the other.

The flag was hoisted last evening by boys from the "big" end of the university group of buildings, and knowing that there would be trouble this morning, all members were on hand at an early hour prepared to resist any attempt to remove the emblem. The trouble came as expected, and the husky fellows tumbled each other about in a good natured but vigorous manner.

Honors were about equal until the appearance upon the scene of members of the faculty, who soon began arranging an armistice, promising that if the belligerents would cease hostilities until 3:30 this afternoon, the school might continue uninterrupted so far as the faculty was concerned. This was agreed to, and the boys soon afterwards went to their respective classes, except a half dozen who played "hooky." The truants, disregarding the terms agreed upon, went down and secured a pair of poleclimbers, and going back to the pole, one of their number, George Lambert, buckled the instruments to his feet, and began the ascent of the pole. He was well up before the college boys caught on, and as the pole was "greased" his work of cutting loose the flag went on uninterrupted. He secured the emblem, and in his hand he held down the pole to the ground, amid the cheers of the high school and the jeers of the business college boys.

FEELING STIRRED UP.
The last incident caused much feeling among the rival classes, and it is expected that hostilities will be resumed later in the day. The only person hurt this morning was a young man named Christensen, whose head was injured in one of the scuffles, but he was not seriously injured.
After he descended from the pole, young Lambert's clothing was lit only the grease vat, and his cheering competition at once contributed to and quarters for the purchase of new apparel. He was the hero of the hour, despite his besmeared appearance.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—Since Billy Emerson vanished, and George Thatcher went in for the drama, only one minstrel remains who can draw an audience in Salt Lake, such as might make Henry W. Savage himself envious; that minstrel is Lew Dockstader, and the overwhelming outpouring of people that he faced last night must have been flattering to him and his company. But the great attraction of the program of the day, Col. Willard Young yesterday received the following courteous communication:

Sir: Your letter of May 9, 1907, addressed to the governor, regarding the long of a red flag placed in the corner of the celebration of former Gov. Brigham Young's birthday, has been referred to me by the governor.

We will be pleased to let you have a gun together with a small gun detachment from the guard properly mounted, uniformed and equipped to fire such salutes you may desire.

Kindly advise the number of salutes required, time and other details, so that I may issue the necessary orders.
Very respectfully,
E. A. WOOD.

The entire program for the big gathering at the celebration of the birthday of the late President Brigham Young will be announced later by the committee. Numerous descendants of the late President Brigham Young will be present, and the Golden Gate companies which will be among the features of the day at the big Mill Creek resort.

JUVENILE ROVER.

Judge Gowans of the juvenile court held a special session of court yesterday afternoon and committed Clifford Juhl to the state industrial school for incorrigibility.
Garland Nelson, Wallace Hot and Chestence were referred to court for stealing flowers, but their case was continued until Friday. The Nelson boy came here from the Golden Gate, and according to his story he beat his way here. He said that his father gave him $5 and told him to go out and make a living. He then started for the west and has been having a hard time of it ever since.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.

Old Man Accused of Entering Room And Picking Sleeper's Pockets.

In Judge Diehl's court this morning an aged man named Frank Cox was given a preliminary hearing on the charge of burglary. The man, who is about 70 years of age, was arrested in the morning when he was found entering a room in the Montana rooming house and was in the act of picking the pockets of a man who was sleeping in the place when arrested. Judge Diehl ordered the man held to answer to the district court and in default of $500 bonds he was taken in custody by the sheriff.

C. E. BRAY HERE.

Representative of Vaudeville Circuit Drops in to Spy Out Land.

C. E. Bray, personal representative of Martin Beck, general manager of the Orpheum circuit, arrived in Salt Lake last night and during his stay in this city is the guest of J. H. Garrett.

Mr. Bray, who is possibly known to every vaudeville performer on the two coasts, is an old-time newspaper man, who forsook the pad and pen to go into the theatrical business. Ten years ago he brought "Alabama" here, and shortly afterwards forsook the jegimote for "Vaudeville." He is now on his way back to Chicago from a tour of the northwest, where he went to arrange for a chain of theaters at Butte, Spokane, Portland, Or., Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., which next season will be operated in conjunction with the big vaudeville circuit.

Bray's eyes are turned toward the west," he said this morning, "and in the vaudeville field the west is ripe for plucking. I was astonished to see

OPPOSITION TO HARRIMAN PLAN

Bond Issue Scheme to Finance Union Pacific Receives a Severe Jolt.

REJECTED BY COMPANIES.

Looks Like a Concerted Action on Part Of Big Financial Concerns to Block Latest Move.

(Special to the "News.")
New York, May 16.—The Philadelphia North American says:

"The Harriman bond issue scheme to finance the Union Pacific has received a severe jolt in Philadelphia.
Banking institutions of this city which have heretofore counted themselves lucky to participate in the attractive underwritings offered by Harriman through his bankers Kuhn, Loeb & Company, have now balked, and so far from their attitude they whisper a word little used in this town in the last few years in connection with financial matters, the word 'ethics.'"

"The movement to reject the liberal allotments in this underwriting was started by one of the most powerful trust companies in the city. It has been recognized that the success of this scheme might mean the rehabilitation of Harriman as the most powerful railroad factor in the country and realizing this, the institutions have exceptions have promptly turned it down.

FLATLY DECLINED.

"Circulars containing the lines have been sent to the bankers of the city for a sufficient length of time to be passed upon, but aversion of the most significant character has been expressed by the head of the commercial club of the city having flatly declined to take a part of the underwriting.
It became evident yesterday that this turning down of the Harriman scheme by the head of the commercial club having considered not only whether this plan of underwriting gave any hope of profit, but also whether they could in good conscience take a part behind which was the mind and personality of Harriman.

"A protest against taking another part of this underwriting has been heard of by the head of one of the large trust companies of the city to another board of directors."

NICKERSON RESIGNS.

New York, May 16.—H. R. Nickerson, vice president of the Mexican Central Railway company, has resigned from that office. So far no action has been taken by the board toward filling the vacancy. It is said that Nickerson resigned as a result of the New York office have been taken over by the president, Eben Richards. Mr. Nickerson has been vice president of the company since June 1, 1906. It is understood that he will assume the management of the Greene railroads in Mexico.

GUNS TO FIRE SALUTE.

State Cannon to Boom on Pres. Brigham Young's Birthday.

The committee in charge of the celebration of President Young's birthday on June 1 were gratified to receive word from the governor's office that the state would lend a field piece to fire the necessary salute in connection with the celebration.

Sir: Your letter of May 9, 1907, addressed to the governor, regarding the
me by the governor.

gun together with a small gun detachment from the guard properly mount-
salutes you may desire.

I may issue the necessary orders.
Very respectfully,
E. A. WOOD.

NOTHING KNOWN HERE.

Reported Visit of Armed Men at Crandall's Camp Yet Unconfirmed.

Considerable anxious inquiry is being made locally as to the reported visit to the camp of Utah contractors working on the Clark road between Rhyolite and Goldfield.
The rumor is that a number of armed men, who made demands on the contractors with a flourish of guns. Inquiry at the offices of the contractors has failed to disclose any light on the subject, as no word has been received here of any such occurrence.

According to the report, the Crandall Brothers, sub-contractors on the Clark road, who have been doing business under the firm of Deal Brothers & Company, which has been practically all of the road north of Las Vegas in Nevada, were approached Monday evening by six armed men, who claimed to be official representatives of the Goldfield miners' union. They made the demand that the Crandalls pay the miners' scale employed by them the miners' scale of wages which is $5 per day. With their guns in plain view they went about among the men, and told them

PILGRIMAGE OF THE UTAH PIONEERS

SIXTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

At 5 o'clock in the morning the thermometer stood at 44 degrees F.; frost during the night. A partial observation of the sun about noon gave for the latitude 41 degrees 12 minutes 50 seconds. The terrain noted during the day. Although within a quarter of a mile of the river, four or five wells were dug near the camp; abundance of good water was obtained within 50 feet of the surface. In the afternoon the people met for public worship.
The speakers were Willard Richards, Stephen H. Richards, H. P. Rockwood and Heber C. Kimball.

Under this date William Clayton writes: "About noon today, Brother Appleton Harmon completed the machine called a 'mule' which was wrought by adding a wheel to revolve once in 10 miles, showing each mile and also such a quarter of a mile traveled. The machine was a whole apparatus so as to secure it from the weather. We are now prepared to tell the business which was being done theatrically everywhere I went. Vaudeville has come to stay, and when one sees the little cheap, ill kept places of amusement throughout the northwest turning people away nightly, it is not hard to see why.

Mr. Bray was asked what was the secret of success in vaudeville and here is his answer: "Get a good location, a clean theater, keep it clean, have an attractive lobby, a courteous man in the box office, neat and gentlemenly employees around the place, and two-thirds of the battle is won against the sternest opposition. Then, of course, you must put up a good show, and above all keep that clean and refined without a suggestion of coarseness. No show ever presented pleases everybody, but the keynote of vaudeville is that no act lasts longer than 30 minutes, and during the evening there will be at least one act which makes a man with the most captious—this is the age of short stories—vaudeville is a magazine of stories put up in attractive style."

Mr. Bray has been the guest of his visit to Salt Lake. Mr. Bray was as dumb as the proverbial oyster. Beyond the statement that Mr. Beck was watching Salt Lake closely and therefore he thought it a store for the local edition, he preferred to discuss the growth of Salt Lake City.

UTAH TRADE IN DANGER.

Salt Lake Business Men Should Keep An Eye on Idaho Just Now.

Utah business men should be-stir themselves to the danger that exists with reference to a loss of trade connections in Idaho. That state, from its bordering with Idaho, is a strong patron of our local merchants. New delegations are preparing to invade the field from several other states. Accordingly the committee of the commercial club of the city has decided today on the part of the Commercial club to be ably and numerously represented in the business men's excursion to the Gem state.

Elmer Harris, manager of the Commercial club, this afternoon said, in referring to the forthcoming excursion of the business men of this city to some 20 of the cities of Idaho, that the train would leave this city Sunday night, May 19, at 10:30, over the Oregon Short Line, and would return here a week from Sunday, May 26, at 10:30, over the week 20 of the most important trade centers of Idaho. "Among the parties from Utah who will accompany the excursion are Gov. H. H. Wells, Republican president of the Idaho Commercial club, and other prominent business men of the city and state, and a tourist sleeper with the band and orchestra and a brand new motor which for this time put into commission for practically the first time. The Short Line is making elaborate preparations to take care of the excursion, and fresh supplies of fruits and vegetables are ordered for every available place along the route.

"Idaho is growing very rapidly, and for trade of the state is naturally tribute to Salt Lake City. But the commercial organizations of other states are making the territory, and the commercial club of Portland, Oregon, some-65 strong, invaded Idaho on the 6th of May, and the business men of Omaha, 100 strong, will be there about the 6th of June, and it is well for our own merchants and jobbers to look to their territory."

"The people of Idaho are on fire with the idea of this excursion, and we must be ready to receive them. The excusion must make application to the secretary of the Commercial club not later than tomorrow night."

DRAYAGE AGREEMENT.

Produce Men Propose to Make Charges For Delivery of Goods.

At this afternoon meeting of the Salt Lake Produce Exchange it was agreed, that on and after June 1, drayage will be charged on all deliveries as follows: 25 cents on 500 pounds or less; 50 cents on from 500 to 2,400 pounds; and 75 cents for all deliveries over 2,400 pounds. This affects the milling and wholesale flour and grain trade.

Declaring that the exactions of customers have reached to a point where a halt has had to be called. People and goods are being driven out of the city for instance, and expect it to be hailed two or three miles, though the dealer may have a shorter haul. It is not only that, but the dealer will be expected to send a package out immediately to receive a telephone call.
There is no money in this; hence the agreement noted.

MALPRACTICE ALLEGED.

Daniel Conley Files Suit For $10,000 Against Dr. E. S. Wright.

Daniel Conley filed suit in the district court today against Dr. E. S. Wright to recover damages in the sum of $10,000 for alleged malpractice. Conley alleges that his leg was broken just above the knee in an accident in a mine at Altamont, Calif., and that while the limb the defendant allowed the leg to overlap with the result that the leg became shorter than it should have been. He has been rendered a cripple for life because of the negligence of the defendant Dr. E. S. Wright, and asks damages in the sum above.

WHAT REPUTATION MEANS.

In the last few weeks the J. G.
McDonald Candy Company has been getting heavy orders from sections throughout the country which hitherto have not been using their chocolates.
Especially is this true of certain Eastern points. McDonald for some time has been a large shipper to the big cities of the East. Now orders are beginning to come in from small Eastern towns and isolated points.

A dealer in a town in Maine wrote that he had had inquiry for Dutch Chocolates and placed a trial order.
Chocolates in quantities and other articles from the unexpected localities that he was not thinking. As every one knows several of the chocolate makers are located in the east. Their houses are widely known. But Dutch Chocolates, crowding their territory, and made way out in Salt Lake—that is what startles the Eastern manufacturers. "The whole world loves a lover" and the whole world loves a house that is afraid to vigorously go after new trade.

DIST. ATTY. JEROME AFTER THE GAMBLERS.

New York, May 15.—Dist. Atty. Jerome is preparing to prosecute gamblers and poker players and has a section of the penal code which up to now has practically been a dead letter. He is being helped by Corporation Counsel Elison. One of Mr. Jerome's assistants has been appointed a special corporation counsel to bring suits against gamblers in question. This section permits the charities commissioner to institute civil suits against every one who wins or loses at play or betting by a sum of $25 or more in one day. Every such person
