Will Return .- W. H. Dickson the District Attorney who went back to San Francisco, is expected to start for Salt Lake again to-day. His journeys to Frisco have occasioned many queries as to the reason. It could be easily explained, if necessary. It is to be hoped that the gentleman will return this time quite well. It is a long distance to travel.

For "Pastures New."-Mr. A. L Horner one of the most genial and popular of the attaches of D. & R. G. Quite an enjoyable time was spent, and the congregation extended a vote of thanks to Superintendent Thomas Garrard and his assistants for their untiring labors on the Sunday school.

What is Wanted .- According to the letter from Inspector [of Buildings A. H. Raleigh, which appears in .to-day's issue, it is something else that is wanted than an inspector for Salt Lake City. Perhaps so, but some of the residents of Salt Lake Jity whose valuable property, outside of the "fire limits" has been jeopardized by the limits" has been jeopardized by the close proximity to which "fre-traps" have been erected, have had an idea that an inspector iwas wanted for the entire city and not for that select por-tion only which wis is included within the fire limits, to prevent the erection of such dangerous structures. Of course, the first thing necessary is the amendment of the ordinance, and as Brother Raleigh doubtless possesses the ability to act for the entire city, we shall not urge the appointment of a successor, but rather endorse him as well as give publicity to the free adver
