

TIT FOR TAT.—A courtier who boasted that he would put down Beaumarchais, originally a watchmaker, but afterwards the music master and favorite of the royal daughters of Louis Quinze, stopped him one day in the midst of a large group of persons, when he was just coming out of the royal apartment in court dress, and presented a superb watch to him.

Sir, said the courtier, since you know all about watchmaking, would you be kind enough just to look at my watch; it is out of order.

Sir, quietly replied Beaumarchais, since I have given up attending to watches, I have become very awkward.

Pray, sir, do not refuse to oblige me.

As you will; but I warn you that I am very awkward.

On this he took the watch, held it up, under pretext of examining it, and let it drop on the floor; then making a low bow to the other—Sir said he was warning you of my extreme awkwardness, and passed on, leaving the other to pick up the fragments of his broken watch.

THEOLOGICAL NEWS.—There is a catechism in use at the college for Jesuits, of which the following is part:

Q—In what place will each one arise in the resurrection?

A—Each one will rise in that place where the largest portion of his body remains.

Q—In what form will each rise again?

A—Of a middling stature, with well-proportioned limbs, and each according to the sex previously possessed.

Q—Shall the world be inhabited again?

A—Some think unbaptized children will inhabit it; but none else—not even the beasts. * *

Q—Is it a sin not to pay tithes?

A—Yes, it is a great sin. * *

Q—Where is hell?

A—Hell is in the middle of the earth.

Q—Is hell very large?

A—Not very; for the damned lie packed in it, one upon another, like the bricks in a brick oven.

Among certain tribes in Africa, thunder is called 'the sky gun,' the morning, 'the day's child,' and one who is intoxicated is said to be 'taken captive by rum.' A native of Africa, who visited England a few years ago, when asked what ice was, said: 'Him be water fast asleep,' and of the railroad locomotive he said: 'Him be one thunder mill.'

'Tis strange,' muttered a young man, as he staggered home from a supper party 'how evil communications corrupt good manners; I've been surrounded by tumblers all the evening, and now I'm a tumbler myself.'

'I wonder this child don't go to sleep,' said an anxious mother to a female acquaintance. 'Well I don't,' replied the lady. 'Its face is so dirty that it can't shut its eyes.'

An exchange, in a modest dun to its patrons, says: 'Suffer little sums to come unto us, for of such is our income.'

DESERET STORE

AND EXCHANGE

FOR HOME MANUFACTURES,

PRODUCE

AND HOME MANUFACTURED GOODS

Will be received for Sale and Exchange.

Manufacturers, take courage; all you want is a market for the products of your labor.

Farmers, be wise; watch the spirit of the Prophet, keep his counsel, and exchange your grain for home manufactures only, except such indispensable articles as have not as yet been manufactured in the Territory, and to meet those deficiencies, a considerable stock of States goods of a certain class will be kept on hand for a time.

It would be ridiculous to mention what class of Home Manufactures will be required for Sale, or what quantity; for the fact is, we want every article from a mouse trap to a steam-engine, and the quantity unlimited.

Good, fat beef CATTLE taken in exchange for Goods. The cattle are wanted in order to procure fat for the Soap Factory. Holders of stock, won't you assist in this important branch of Home Manufactures? Some have prophesied you will not; I say you will; for there are yet many righteous men in Israel.

Endeavor to communicate with me, and make your arrangements as early as possible. 28-3m W. E.

MANUFACTURERS.

J. L. HEYWOOD,

HAT, Cap and Muff Manufacturer, G. S. L. City, continues to keep on hand the choicest assortments of articles in the above branches, suitable to the wants of the people, for which he will receive in exchange all kinds of furs, grain and vegetables, &c.; fire wood, home manufactures, titling orders, Territorial, county and city scrip. 33-3m

Whitehouse's Tin Shop, directly opposite Townsend's long row, where he will make to order, and keep on hand, Barrels, Tubs, Kers, Wash Tubs, Pails, Churns, Washboards, and every other article in the line of Cooperware. I will receive cash, all kinds of country produce, store pay, &c. Please call, as I intend to sell Cooper Ware cheaper than it has usually been sold in this valley. 29-3m

HERDING.

THE undersigned have established a HERD GROUND in Rush Valley, and are prepared to take stock to herd; and we feel confident in saying that the range is equal to any in the Territory.

The vast amount of Stock lost heretofore through the negligence of herdsman, and the severity of the weather in other valleys has induced us to locate said herd ground, and enter into the business of herding for the benefit of the people—said valley having proved the best and safest range for stock the past winter there was in the Territory. And we shall hold ourselves responsible to parties for all losses through our neglect of stock placed in our charge.

The convenient location of said valley to G. S. L. City will enable us to receive stock on the 1st and 31st Mondays of each month, at the Estray Pound in said city.
