

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE PRESIDENT AT LOGAN.—By Deseret Telegraph line we learn that the President held meetings at Logan yesterday afternoon. About four thousand persons were present. He also held a meeting at 10 a.m. this morning at which interesting discourses were delivered by Elders Geo. Q. Cannon and B. Young, Jun. The following persons were called on missions. A. King, and L. V. Howell from Franklin; Jeremiah Hatch, Thomas Richardson, and William Douglass from Smithfield; Thomas Talbot from Logan.

The afternoon meeting was addressed by President B. Young. The Word of Wisdom was the subject of his discourse. Meeting adjourned about 3 o'clock. About 4,000 or 5,000 persons were present. The President then called Aaron Thatcher to go on a mission to preach the gospel until he would consent to get married and fulfill the measure of his creation. This evening the party will drive to Wellsville.

FRENCH AMBASSADOR.—We had a call to-day from the Baron Gaudreux Boileau, formerly French Consul General in New York, but now Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of France to Peru. He is now en route to Lima, having just returned from Paris. About 15 years ago, the Baron, then Secretary to the French Embassy at Washington, was one of a hunting expedition to the Rocky Mountains, and was within 50 miles of Salt Lake. He expressed himself much pleased with the appearance of Salt Lake City, and is deeply interested in learning the particulars of the rise, progress and destiny of "Mormonism" and the "Mormons."

HARTZ.—Last night Professor Hartz introduced a number of new and startling illusions into his performance, all of which were characteristic of the skill and dexterity of this prince of illusionists. We were especially pleased with one of his illusions where he produced four rings in a small wreath which, rings, but a moment before he had beat up in an egg and emptied into a hat. His entertainment far exceeds anything we have ever seen elsewhere.

The performance, to-night, will conclude with experiments in psychology, showing the power of mind over mind, causing persons from the audience to sing, dance, fight, or anything they are told, no matter how ridiculous.

One of our California exchanges referring to an exhibition of this kind, recently given by M. Hartz in San Francisco, says, take it all in all, no burlesque or farce ever filled Maguire's Opera House with such free, hearty, uncontrollable laughter as did Hartz' experiments in psychology. The experiments were made upon several volunteers from the audience, who, at the will of the magician, were made to believe that they were Heenan, Sayers, Richard the Third, Macbeth, etc., and to act the roles of these respective worthies. The following experiment it is said caused a great deal of fun. One of the volunteers, while under the influence of the operator, was ordered to leave the theatre and go to the first store he could find and bring the first article he could lay hold of. Away he went out of the theatre at break-neck speed and soon returned carrying a pitcher, closely followed by a clerk who tried to overtake the supposed thief, but failed to do so until they both stood before the footlights, when, the influence being removed, the bewilderment of the involuntary thief was overwhelming.

Rare entertainment and fun may be anticipated to-night.

To-morrow night is the last night but one of M. Hartz' appearance, on which occasion he will take a benefit.

ARRIVAL.—Mr. George D. Chaplin, the distinguished tragedian, arrived last evening from the East. He is engaged to appear on the boards of our Theatre next week.

The gentlemen composing the sub-committees will meet these gentlemen at the City Hall on Monday evening next, to complete the arrangements for the celebration.

ACCIDENT.—The night before last, as an old gentleman named John Andrew McMin, aged 88 years, residing in the 4th Ward, of this city, was riding towards home the mare on which he was riding, suddenly plunged and threw him. Dr. J. J. Davis, who was called in to attend him, found him suffering from very serious internal injuries. He lingered until 10 o'clock this morning, when he departed this life. Deceased obeyed the gospel in September, 1894, and emigrated to this Territory in 1895. His funeral will take place at the 4th Ward school house at ten o'clock to-morrow morning.
