dicted—The Times on Spain's Demand—Rowies Bros. & Co.

London, 23.—There is no truth in the report that the British war ships in the West Indies had been ordered to Cuban waters.

The Times, this morning, alluding to the report that Spain has made a demand upon the U. S. for the restoration of the Virginius and the survivors surrendered at Santiago de Cuba, says such an action on the part of Spain would be premature, despite the opinion of the attorney-general of the United States, that the Virginius had no right to carry the American flag. Spain must wait until the U. S. court has settled the status of the vessel before proceeding further in the matter.

One of the two lost was the Jacquard, sent up on November 28, 1870. The aeronaut was a sailor named Prince. He was seen by some fishermen traveling westward over British seas, and to drop a letter bag, which was picked up, handed over to the French officials, and regularly delivered. The exir uth Appalling Death of a Medium.

—A late English newspaper has the following account of the manner in which a spirit medium met with his death—

"On Monday evening, at the Athenæum Assembly Rooms, Temple Row, Birmingham, a spiritualistic service was held, and in the course of it a medium named Benjamin Hawkes, a toy dealer of New street, addressed the meeting. He spoke for fully half an hour, appearing to be in his usual health, and then he described with startling vividity a scance in which the Apostle Peter had manifested frimbals. Peter had clasped hands with him, and he (Hawkes) felt the close pressure of the Apostle's grasp. From this he argued it is quite possible that the pressure of lateral current may have carried it over unknown lands. M. Lacaze was a man of fortune, and legal proceedings have been taken by his family to declare him deceased. It is not impossible that the aeronaut may have escaped, as it is reported that a parcel of letters was reported that a aeronaut may have escaped, as it is reported that a parcel of letters was discovered in Natal, Africa, not long since. These letters have been
