

compose the European mission. I have endeavored to magnify my calling and prove a blessing to those amongst whom I have labored since my arrival in Liverpool on the sixth day of July, 1878, and I wish to thank my brethren, one and all, who have aided me by carrying into effect the counsels which the Spirit has led me to impart for the government of affairs in this mission. If there has been one thing more gratifying than another in my labors, it has been that so many good, useful, faithful Elders were chosen to labor with me, for if any good results have followed my efforts, they are to a great extent due, next to the blessing of the Lord, to the very careful manner in which my views and desires have been met and carried out by the priesthood, as well as to the good feeling in which they have been received by the Saints throughout the mission.

Other duties requiring my immediate departure for home, Elder Charles W. Stayner has been appointed to take charge of the mission until my successor shall arrive. All matters requiring the attention of the President, will therefore be submitted to him until other instructions shall be given through the Star.

In conclusion, I will add, that while affairs throughout the mission are satisfactory, they will doubtless continue to improve under the care of those who shall follow me in carrying on the great work of spreading the gospel and gathering the scattered Saints to the Zion of God. Praying that the choicest blessings of the Father may rest upon their labors, and that his work may increase and prosper, I subscribe myself your brother and fellow-laborer in the cause of truth."

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 14

Seriously Ill.—We regret to hear of the severe sickness of our esteemed fellow-townsmen, Chas. Lambert, of the 7th Ward, who is suffering from pleurisy. We hope to hear of his speedy restoration to health.

Settlers Wanted.—Brother Robert Greenwood, of Egin, Oneida County, Idaho, writes under date of the 12th inst., in regard to matters in that little settlement started about a year ago. There are about 15 persons there now, and more good families are wanted. The valley of the Snake River, (from which stream they take water) has a climate about like Ogden Valley. There is a stretch of level bench land 15 miles long by five to six miles wide, and room to settle for a thousand families. Some of the land is to be irrigated by a ditch, yet unfinished, about three miles long. There is plenty of good timber at hand and all kinds of game. Good crops of corn, wheat, barley, oats, etc., were raised this year, and when the water facilities are improved, still better results will be obtained.

Arrival of Missionaries.—President Taylor to-day received a letter from Elder W. Budge announcing the safe arrival on the 31st of October of the following named missionaries after a longer voyage than usual owing to stormy weather: Otherwise they had a pleasant trip to Liverpool:

George Stringfellow, Moroni F. Brown, Frank H. Snow, Isaac Duffin, David Spilsbury, Wm. Probert, Jr., W. S. Harris, W. G. Davis, Joseph L. Robinson, John R. Baxter, W. S. Brighton, David Cook, Richard Stringfellow, Lars N. Larsen, Jens Jensen, Wm. H. Butler, Joseph H. Butler, Thos. D. Reese, David West, B. M. Harman, M. J. Thomas, Morgan Brown, Joseph P. Larsen, A. Amundsen, Hans E. Nielsen, J. Hansen, Nils R. Lindahl, Jas. H. Hansen, James J. Hansen.

Traveling Theatricals.—On Monday morning, Mr. Phil Margetts, the well known comedian, and a company of professional players, including Messrs. Wilton, Taylor, Olsen, Horsley and Mesdames Cogswell and Jones, will take a trip through Tooele County, with the design of presenting a series of dramatic performances in the principal settlements in that region. On Monday and Tuesday nights they appear in Tooele City, on Wednesday and Thursday in Grantsville, and on Friday and Saturday in Stockton. His plays are "A Wonderful Woman" and "Chimney Corner," in both of which Phil has specialties and a number of laughable farces, with whose main characters he is also identified. They will be gone about a week. Our friends over the mountains have a treat in store! Mr. Margetts is very popular wherever he goes, and we bespeak for him and his company a warm reception, notwithstanding the cold weather. Those who are out of fuel should go to see Phil, and laugh themselves into a vapor bath. If successful out west, the troupe will make a tour of some of the southern settlements.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 20.

Off for Indiana.—Elders James McGhie and G. D. Nebeker, left yesterday morning on a mission to Indiana. We bid them God speed.

Our Agent.—Brother William Bramall, our agent, will start during the first part of next week, on a business trip through the southern counties of the Territory, in the interests of the DESERET NEWS. We commend him to our friends everywhere.

Weather at Coalville.—At 7 o'clock a. m., the thermometer was six degrees below zero. It was the coldest sunrise during the past 15 Novembers, except November 30th, 1871. T. B., Observer.

COALVILLE, November 13, 1880.

Fatal Accident.—The following came over the wires to-day:

PAROWAN, Nov. 20, 1880.

Editor Deseret News:

A young man named Hans P. Hanson, aged 20, went yesterday morning after wood. About 2 p. m. two men helped him to load, and soon afterward Hanson told another who was passing, that he would start in an hour. Last evening, as he had not arrived, persons went in search. They found Hansen about 2 o'clock this morning, lying on his back dead, by the side of his wagon. No marks of injury. The wagon was loaded, the whip and axe were in place, and the team still hitched on. An inquest this afternoon decided that he was killed by falling from the load of wood.

Heirs to Property.—We have received De Bernardy's Next of Kin Gazette, (London) for November, which contains an extended catalogue of names of persons thought to be in this country, who have fallen heirs to property in Great Britain. Among them are the following:

Alcock, Samuel, supposed to have gone in 1861 with his mother to Salt Lake City, Utah.

Davies, Juliana Eliza, otherwise Sims, supposed to have resided in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Ebsworth, Richard Nathaniel, last heard of in Salt Lake City.

Goble, Mary, left England for Salt Lake City many years since, and who is believed to have died shortly after landing in America. Children of.

These persons, or their next of kin, should write at once to Messrs. De Bernardy Bros., 28 John Street, Bedford Row, London, England.

"Children's Hour of Pleasure."

This is the title of a new music book just received from the publisher, by Mr. David O. Calder. It contains Franz Abt's celebrated sixteen songs for children and fifteen melodies of the most popular of Sullivan and Claribel's songs, arranged in an easy manner for the piano or organ. As a writer of songs for the people and children, Franz Abt stands pre-eminent and has a reputation as a master of his art in Europe and America. In the present collection his versatile pen has been made to contribute in a pleasing and easy manner to the enjoyment of youth. The instrumental arrangements of Sullivan and Claribel's songs are bound to please young performers and lead them to a thorough appreciation of good music. The book is printed from new plates, full music size, with illuminated covers and title in two colors. Its cheapness will also recommend it to teachers and parents—only 75cts.

From the South.—Brother Silas S. Smith, of Paragonah, presiding over the settlements of the Saints in Colorado and the San Juan region is in town, and made us a brief call this morning. He is at present located at Manasseh, which is within three miles of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad, concerning which so much is being said just at present. He has no contract on the road, but is acquainted with those who have. He says, in respect to the dissatisfaction which has arisen among those who have been out there and could not get work, that it is due to their not getting a proper understanding of the situation before starting from home. Those who have refused them employment, are the foremen of the various camps along the line, and not the contractors. They should have first visited the contractors, who live in the cities, and made known their business, and Brother Smith thinks they would then have been successful in obtaining the work they sought. He will leave for Colorado on Monday or Tuesday next.

Poems and Songs.—We have received the following communication which is self-explanatory and to the point:

SPANISH FORK, Utah Co., Utah.

Many of my friends have repeatedly expressed a desire to see the productions of my pen in print; and believing it to be a duty, I have consented, although with much diffidence, to publish a small volume of poems and songs, prefaced by a brief autobiography.

I lay no claim to poetic ability, but have written just as I have been moved upon by the spirit of inspiration.

The book will contain upwards of 130 pages, bound in cloth; embossed cover; gilt lettered, and the price will be one dollar.

In undertaking the enterprise, I sincerely solicit the kind support and patronage of my friends.

Very respectfully,
HANNAH CORNABY.

November, 1880.

A Narrow Escape.—The Logan Leader of Friday has the following:

On Monday last Brother Wm. Chugg, an employe at the Union Flour Mill, met with a painful accident, and narrowly escaped being ground to pieces by some large cog wheels. It appears he was filling with water a barrel that was situated in the upper room near the roof and used to contain water for wetting wheat. The water is usually pumped into it by machinery, but when the pipes freeze up water has to be put in by hand, and in order to pour water into the barrel it is necessary to lean over a large shaft to which is attached several sets of cog wheels. While in the act of emptying a bucket of water in this position, the coat of Brother Chugg was caught in the cogs, and before he was aware he was being drawn. His right coat sleeve was torn off, and the muscles from the elbow to the armpit were laid bare, and it was with almost superhuman strength that he threw his left arm around another shaft, thus preventing his right arm from being torn completely off and perhaps his whole body smashed. A workman near by rushed to stop the machinery, which he did just in time to save the life of Brother Chugg. His injuries were painful, but not dangerous.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, NOV. 22.

Wanted.—Mary Elizabeth Taylor, who came in the last company of emigrants, is wanted at Bishop Hunter's office.

Postal Change.—The name and site of the postoffice at Batesville, Salt Lake County, has been changed to Argenta, with J. T. Monk as postmaster.

Case Commenced.—The Case of the Brigham City Co-operative Institution vs. O. J. Hollister, for the recovery of the tax money assessed on the scrip of that institution, commenced in Ogden this morning.

Left for the South.—Elder's William H. Bakes, of Beaver, and William C. Hanks, of Charleston, Wasatch County, left by this morning's train on missions to the Southern States. The former is assigned to labor in North Carolina and Virginia; the latter to labor in Mississippi.

Another Death.—Shortly before going to press, the sad news was brought of the death of Daniel J. Clayton, a son of the late Elder William Clayton and his wife Augusta, a young man well known and highly respected in this community. His disease was typhoid fever, from which he had been suffering since the 25th of October. Since then, he has been much better once or twice, and it was almost a decided fact that he would recover. He had two relapses, and the last proved fatal. He died at 2 o'clock this afternoon, at the residence of his mother in the 17th Ward. He was naturally of an excellent disposition, kind heart and generous nature, and a general favorite wherever known. A large circle of friends, besides his bereaved relatives, will deeply feel his loss. The deceased was aged 23 years; born December 29th, 1857, and died in full faith of the gospel. We extend to all our sincere condolence. The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 10 a. m., in the 17th Ward Assembly Rooms.

A New Monument.—Messrs. J. H. Brown & Son, the enterprising and efficient stone and marble workers, of Logan, Cache County, have nearly finished a monument for the Thatcher family, which is described by our Logan cotemporary as the finest piece of work of the kind in the Territory. It will consist of three base pieces and a die, cap and spire. The spire will be 12 feet, and the whole monument nearly 25 feet in height. The die, cap and spire are of Franklin stone, with sides inlaid with panels of the finest Vermont marble. The word "Thatcher," in rustic letters, has been executed on one of the marble panels by Mr. Harry Brown, the junior member of the firm. This lettering is said to be unexcelled by any home artist. Apostle Moses Thatcher pronounces it beyond criticism. The young man is said to possess unusual ability in this line, and intends going east this winter to study the art of sculpture. We wish him every encouragement and success.

Runaway and Accident.—This morning, about 11 o'clock, an accident resulting from a runaway occurred on the street dividing the 14th and 15th Wards, one block south of the Court House. Sister Wallace, wife of Elder Geo. B. Wallace, was coming to town with her two young boys, from the family farm over Jordan. They were in a two-horse wagon, which was driven by one of the boys. As they reached the place described, one of the horses became frightened at something, and wheeling around ran through a deep ditch at the side of the road, over upon the sidewalk and came to a sudden stand against a tree. The two boys retained their seats in the wagon, but Sister Wallace, by the sudden halt, was thrown over the endgate upon the ground, and sustained a severe contusion on the temple. She was picked up senseless by Mr. Henry Heath and his son, and carried into the residence of Mr. Beers near at hand. The team, after the accident, turned around and ran for some distance, but were finally secured. At 12 o'clock, the injured woman, still senseless, was lifted into a vehicle and taken home. The extent of her injuries we have not learned, nor whether she has since become conscious. We trust, however, that the case is not serious.

Mother Teasel Dead.—Sister Francis P. Teasel, mother of our esteemed townsman S. P. Teasel, Esq., died in this city at 6 o'clock yesterday morning. She was quite aged, being in her 84th year, and for about two weeks has kept her bed. She had no particular ailment, but died of old age and passed away peacefully as though she were taking her nightly sleep. Sister Teasel was well known and highly respected. She was born May 3, 1796, at Sommerton, Norfolk, England, and was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints by Elder Thomas Smith, at Norwich, in the same County, on the 6th of June, 1850. She was, therefore, a member of the Church over 30 years. She was the first to throw open her doors to the Elders in the county of Norfolk, and as long as she remained there her house was their home. She emigrated from Europe in January, 1853, and arrived in Utah on September 22nd of the same year. She was faithful to the last to the gospel, and has gone to a better world to receive the recompense for good deeds done in this. We sympathize with those who are left to mourn, but are assured that with the departed all is well. The funeral will be held at the residence of Bro. S. P. Teasel, 20th Ward, at 11 a. m. to-morrow. Friends are invited.

Various Causes.

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointed, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. 3dsw

A Sensible Lady.

Not long since one of our principal physicians was called on to visit a patient who was suffering from a severe cold, and which had become seated on her lungs. He continued for some time prescribing expensive prescriptions for the lady, and she, poor thing, gobbling down the nauseous preparations, with no improvement. At last she was induced by her uncle to try Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, and before she had used one bottle of this wonderful medicine, she could see a decided improvement, and three bottles cured her.
