SESSION OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

William Craig is Elected President—No Canyon Boulevard This Year.

WM. IRWIN IN SERIOUS PLIGHT

Charged With Heinous Offense—County Employees Get More Pay—Burial of John O. Dinsdale.

Ogden, March 27.—At the meeting of the city council last evening William Craig was elected president to serve until the case of Fred W. Chambers is decided in the supreme court. In turn Mr. Craig appointed Councilman Williams, who was elected in place of Mr. Chambers from the Fourth ward, to fill the vacancies on the several committees occupied by Mr. Chambers.

The proposition of building a boulevard to Ogden canyon, and several other matters which would mean a considerable expenditure, were tabled on account of the low finances of the city. In each instance the inference being drawn from the fact that the income from fines and other sources was decidedly small as compared with that of former years, the inference being that this condition is due to the closing of the gambling halls in Ogden. Five sprinkling wagons were ordered purchased instead of two as previously ordered.

A subway for Twenty-eighth street was declared not to be feasible, and the matter was tabled.

An ordinance was presented providing a salary of $1,500 per annum for the city recorder, and it was referred. Bond interest in the sum of $1,542.77 and payrolls to $580.63 were allowed. Forty-three liquor licenses were granted.

Atty. C. R. Hollingsworth appeared for Salt Lake & Ogden Railway company, and had the matter of purchasing land for a right of way south of the Ogden river referred to the law committee. The original option expires March 31.

The railroad and law committees arranged to meet with the representatives of the Ogden Rapid Transit company concerning the proposed 50-year franchise this evening.

WM. IRWIN IN SERIOUS PLIGHT
Must Face Damaging Charges—Arrested in Nevada.

Ogden, March 27.—William Irwin of Ogden, aged 28 years, was arrested late yesterday afternoon on complaint of Sheriff G. A. Sebring for a serious statutory offense. The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff B. W. Wilson at Elko, Nev., where Irwin had skipped.

The circumstances surrounding the case are most pathetic. A young lady named Annie Sigard, 23 years of age, daughter of a prominent Brigham City cattle man, came to Ogden about a year ago to seek employment, desiring to live in a larger city than her home town. Shortly after her arrival here she met Irwin and went out with him. He is alleged to have told the girl he was a single man, and after gaining her affections betrayed her and caused her downfall. Her parents, on learning of her unfortunate condition, took her home to Brigham City, where a week ago today she gave birth to a baby, which died, and the following day the young lady gave up her life. Miss Sigard had been a very good young lady, and was highly respected, and the shame she had brought on herself and her parents caused her such sorrow that it is believed she died more from grief than anything else. When she died Sheriff Sebring was communicated with, and he went to Brigham City, where he met the broken-hearted parents, who turned over to him a number of letters written by Irwin to the young lady concerning her condition, which clearly indicated that he was the cause of her downfall. The girl's father also told the sheriff that Irwin had endeavored to get him to furnish him (Irwin) with money enough to get a divorce from his present wife, so he could marry Miss Sigard, but this her father did not do. His present wife is not living with him, but is now in Oregon with her parents. Deputy Wilson is expected home just as soon as requisition papers can be secured and presented to the governor of Nevada. Irwin has aged and respected parents residing in Ogden.

NEW BOND ELECTION.

Electric Light and Waterworks Propositions Will Be Voted Separately. Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., March 27.—At the meeting of the city council last evening the consideration of the ordinance for licensing drug stores, which was made the special order for the evening, was on motion of Councilman Bott continued for one week on account of the illness of Attorney Whitecotton, counsel for the druggists.

John W. Farrer, chairman of the Utah Commercial club committee on the Utah county horse show, asked for the use of the west hall of the county courthouse for the horse exhibit, April 13. The request was granted.

The committee on judiciary recommended that an act to amend the constitution respecting the bond issue be rescinded, and that immediate action looking to a new election for the issue of waterworks bonds be taken. After some discussion in which the position of the bond buyers, viz., that they would not buy bonds unless voted on separately, and would not buy electric light bonds if they were for a competitive lighting system, was considered, and the great and pressing need for water was brought out, the ordinance was adopted.

The city attorney was directed to draw up a resolution rescinding all actions of the council in regard to the bond issue, and the committee was requested to notify Rollins & Sons and Harris & Co. of the action of the council, and request them to submit bids, together with plans for a competitive lighting system, to be acceptable to them, and under which they will buy the bonds without any appeal to the supreme court. A special meeting of the council will be held this evening to pass the rescinding resolution.

The committee on public grounds and city property recommended the building of a shed for storing pipe and lumber, an addition to the city barn, the erection of a new fence on the west side of the courthouse square, and the filling of dirt so as to prepare it for platting. The committee felt that the city's financial condition did not justify the expenditure of money on these matters at this time. The estimated cost of the proposed improvements is $350.

The report was adopted. The city of Provo, however, presented a communication advising the city of waters of Provo river, below the dam, and the city of Provo, to comply with the law governing appropriations of water, and advising the council that the reason for coming to the city of Provo was to protect another's interest.

The request was made that if the city did not intend to maintain its rights that the company be notified. Referred to the committee on electric light.

An electric light was ordered placed at the entrance of the free public library.

Councilman Bott brought up the matter of a better light being put up by the city for the library, but which only weighs 13 or 14 ounces. He thought something ought to be done to protect the people from this kind of imposition. Councilman Poulton stated that the Butchers and Grocers' association had already taken the matter in hand, and he believed they would be able to remedy the evil. ## A NEW DEPARTURE.

"Taking Time by The Forelock."

All observing people must have noticed a growing sentiment in this country in favor of using only put-up foods and medicines of known composition. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine. This sentiment has resulted in the introduction in the legislature of many of the States, as also in the Congress of the United States, bills providing for the publication of formula or ingredients on wrappers and labels of medicines and foods put up for general consumption.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public generally, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his proprietary medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing a broadsheet, on each bottle wrapper, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into his medicines, "Golden Medical Discovery," the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, debilitated, nervous, invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strong endorsement by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Doctor Pierce's medicines and recommending these ingredients for the cure of the diseases for which Dr. Pierce's medicines are advised. A copy of this little booklet is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. A request, by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., will bring this little booklet by return post. It tells exactly what ingredients are used in the making of Dr. Pierce's famous medicines.

This striking departure of Dr. Pierce from the usual course pursued by the manufacturers of proprietary medicines, at once takes his medicines out of the class generally known as "patent" or "secret" medicines, neither of which term is at all applicable to them, as their formula now appears on the wrapper of every bottle leaving the great laboratory at Buffalo, N. Y. It places them in a class all by themselves. Neither of them contains any alcohol, which fact alone should cause them to be classed all by themselves and as entirely harmless vegetable extracts, made and preserved by the use of glycerine and not with the usually employed strong alcohol, which works so much injury, especially in cases where treatment, even though of the best, must be continued for considerable periods of time, in order to make the cure permanent.

Many years ago, Dr. Pierce found that chemically pure glycerine, of proper strength, was far better than alcohol both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles residing in our indigenous, or native, medicinal plants, such as he employs exclusively in manufacturing his medicines.

Some of these medicinal roots have, since Dr. Pierce first commenced to use them, advanced so in price, that they may be cultivated with great profit by our farmers. This is especially true of the Golden Seal root, which enters into both the Doctor's "Golden Medical Discovery" and his "Favorite Prescription."

It now brings upward of $1.50 a pound, although formerly selling at from 15 to 20 cents a pound. Many tons of this most valuable root are annually consumed in Doctor Pierce's Laboratory.

From "Organic Medicines," by Grover Coe, M. D., of New York, we extract the following concerning Hydrastis (Golden Seal root), which enters largely, as we have already stated, into the composition of both "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription."

Dr. Coe says: "Hydrastis exercises an especial influence over mucous surfaces. Its action in this respect is so manifest that the indications for its employment cannot be mistaken. (Hence the efficiency of "Golden Medical Discovery," which is rich in Golden Seal root, in all catarrhal affections, no matter in what part of the system located.) Upon the liver it acts with equal certainty and efficacy. As a chagogue (liver invigorator), it has few equals. Also in scrofula, glandular diseases generally, cutaneous eruptions, indigestion, debility, diarrhoea, and constipation.

Dr. Coe continues: "Hydrastis (Golden Seal root), has been successfully employed in the cure of leucorrhoea. It is of singular efficacy when that complaint is complicated with hepatic (liver) aberration (derangement). Hydrastis is also of inestimable value in the treatment of chronic derangements of the liver. It seems to exercise an especial influence over the portal vein and hepatic (liver) structure generally, resolving (dissolving) biliary deposits, removing obstructions, promoting secretion, and giving tone to the various functions. It is eminently cholagogue (liver accelerator), and may be relied upon with confidence for the relief of hepatic (liver) torpor. It promotes digestion and assimilation, obviates constipation, and gives tone to the depurating (cleansing) functions generally."

Dr. Coe further says: "We would here add that our experience has demonstrated Hydrastis to be a valuable remedy in bronchitis, laryngitis, and other affections of the respiratory organs."

After reading the foregoing extracts who can doubt the great efficacy, in a long list of diseases, of "Golden Medical Discovery," one of the principal ingredients of which is Golden Seal root (Hydrastis)? And this applies with equal force to Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, worn-out, over-worked, nervous, invalid women.

A Shorthand Typewriter.
M. Rivort of Paris has just patented a shorthand typewriter, which is described by Dr. Alfred Gradenwitz in the April number of Technical World magazine. From one to three syllables of a word are printed in plain type at each stroke of the keys. It is said that fifty words a minute can be written after a few days' practice, while a normal speed of from 125 to 150 words a minute is obtained in less than two months. Speeds of 200 words a minute and more are not unusual among expert operators. Since no conventional symbols but plain types are employed, the "notes" are readable by any one familiar with the process.
