Ogden Junction, Jan. 24-The Salt Lake press is in habit of making invidious allusions to Ogden as being in the tural outskirts, or as a country village. This is rather brazen faced and inpertinent, considering that Ogden s the terminus of four roads, and that more of busy, active life can be: witnessed at our depot in one day, than Salt Lake sees in a week. Ogden is on the main trans-conti-nental thoroughfare, Salt Lake a point of diversion. Ogden presents a moving panorama of a miniature world with its tumult and throngs, Pacific Coast, in connection with quite a young fellow, entered a Salt Lake is a shifting scene.
