RENEW CRUSADE AGAINST VICE

Police Will Keep Small Boys from Pool Rooms and Other Dives.

FIRST NAT'L BANK OFFICERS

Long Tour from Sacramento to Portland via Ogden—Wife Sues Gambling House for Husband's Loss.

Ogden, Feb. 5.—The police have renewed the crusade that was commenced some months ago against small boys frequenting the pool rooms of the city. A number of boys were taken to the police station yesterday afternoon from a Japanese pool room on Twenty-fourth street. After receiving a fathery talk by the chief they were allowed to go, but warned never to be brought to the police headquarters again.

SAUOON ROBBERY CASE.

As a sequel to the Apex saloon robbery, in which the three proprietors of the saloon are charged with robbing Frank Goff, an old man who had patronized the place, John H. Garrett, who together with B. J. McGuire and R. E. Blamett were arrested and released upon $500 bonds, walked into Sheriff Wilson's office yesterday afternoon and asked to be locked up.

He stated that he was tired and was looking for work, and that Chief of Police Brownell would not permit him to secure employment while resting under the present charge. He stated that he had a family to support and that he would rather be in jail than at liberty under a bond if he could not find work of any kind to earn money needed for the maintenance of himself and family.

Sheriff Wilson took the man at his word and locked Garrett up.

At present Blamett and McGuire are under $500 bonds pending their preliminary hearing in the justice courts. The cases which were to be heard before Judge Murphy of the municipal court yesterday, were continued four days on the request of the state. The hearing of the case against Blamett was transferred to Pleasant View, while the case against McGuire was transferred to Harrisville and the case against Garrett and Fleming to be heard by Judge Murphy has been continued. The confidence in the case is taken on account of the mysterious disappearance of Mr. and Mrs. Loveless, the star witnesses for the state.

HELD FOR CHICKEN STEALING

Once a matador to the crown of Spain but now languishing in the city jail upon the charge of chicken stealing is the fate that has befallen Senator Dan Rodger, the former bull-fighter, who was arrested in the railway yard by Special Officer James L. Yesterday forenoon as the former was making his way along the tracks carrying a satchel which seemed to be loaded suspiciously heavy. The officer stopped the don and made an investigation. When the satchel was opened it was found to contain seven nicely dressed chickens which would make small tamales. When questioned as to what he secured the fowls the Spaniard advised the officer that he would "no tell." He now is held at the jail pending an investigation.

LONG ROUTE TO OGDEN

Three passenger trains of the Southern Pacific of the Oregon and California division passed through Ogden about one hour this morning enroute from Sacramento to Portland, Oregon. The demons of the trains over the Harriman line centering at Ogden is made necessary by the damage wrought by washouts that have occurred between Sacramento and Red Bluff, where several hundred feet of the road bed and track have been washed away. It is expected the repairs will be completed within a week.

SUES TO RECOVER GAMBLING LOSSES.

Mrs. Emma Main Terry has filed an action in the district court for $1,000 against Frank Peterson and Charles G. Baum, proprietors of the St. Louis gambling house to recover $250 alleged to have been lost by the plaintiff's husband, Paul Terry. Mrs. Terry alleges that the money for which she is suing is part of the money, $3,000, for which their homestead was sold.
