Matrimonial. - On Thursday last the ceremony was performed in Logan which united in holy bonds for time and eternity, Mr. Thomas A. Judd, son of the late W. R. Judd, of Grantsville, and Miss Aroetta Hale, daughter of Brother Aroet Hale, of the some place. They are a highly respected young couple, and start out upon the matrimonial career with the good wishes of a host of friends.

Isaac Langton Arrested. - Isaac Langton, of the firm of Langton & Kuapton, painters and paper-hangers of this city, was arrested this morning on the charge of cohabiling with more than one woman as his wives. He was brought before Commissioner McKay this morning, and waived examination and was placed under bonds in the sum of $1,000, his brothers, William and Frederick, becoming his sureties. Mr. Knapton and Mrs. Langton .were also placed under bouds to appear before the grand jury.

From Old England .-- We had the pleasure of meeting this morning Brother S. E. Hill and wife, formerly of Garston, near Liverpool, England, who, with their three children, arrived in this city on the 22d ult., from their native land, after a prosperous trip by sea and land, extending over a period of seventeen days. Rather a cold time of year for newcomers to arrive, but those who gather to Zion for the love of the truth rather than to better their circumstances are not likely to be daunted by such triffing considerations as cold weather. I

Again in the Police Court .-- Last evening, James E. Fitzgerald, proprietor of the den under the Wasatch corner, was arrested upon a charge of battery upon David Cook, and the hearing of the case set for to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, The offense was committed on Saturday night, about 12 o'clock. Coo's, Lewis and a person known as Curly were in the saloon, when Lewis and Fitzgerald had some words. The latter resorted to blows,'Cook being kaocked down, Lewis receiving a gash three or four inches long, on the side of the neck, from some sharp instrument, and Cpriy getting a blow or two on the side of the face.

"One Gigantic Fraud."-The Idaho Register, published at Eagle Rock, an, who, it will be remembered was aunounces that the citizens of that arrested some weeks ago for the complace subscribed $150 towards the mission of a series of lewd acts in "mammoth enterprise" of getting out the New Year's issue of the Salt Lake subsequently liberated, as the result Tribune, with the expectation that it of the writ of habeas corpus issued by was going to contain something about Judge Zane, was again arrested and the resources of that part of Idaho, cited to appear before Justice' Speirs but to their chagrin found instead at 4 p.m. On presenting himself at "about a column of exaggerationstand the City Hall, his attorney P. L. Wil-liams demanded that the case he left for the grand jury to investigate. Of course no notice could be taken of such a proposition and Mr. Yearian was acpuffs for business houses who had paid from $5 to $20 for the benefit of the town, the entire article being taken almost bodily from the one which appeared a year ago, and men who have peared a year ago, and men who have not been in business for nearly a year were reported as still in the field.
