LOG ROLLING.

a Lumberman Receives Consequential Damages.

While on a bunting exoursion in the great coal and wood region near Carbondale, Pa. the writer met William Coll, a lumberman Accustomed to life and labor in the forest from early manhood, he was a true Knight of the Are. Many a tree had fallen before his ringing strokes, and fleets of rafts had borne away to market the sawad products. Coil is a oharacter, and if Oscar Wilde is right in say. ing that all movements in unhindered labor are graceful, our friend William, stripped for his work, an attacking a tree as Richard L. assaulted the heavy doors of Front de Eccufe Castle, must have presented an admirable

One day, bowever,—but"let him tell the story himself, as he told it to me:

"I was out in the woods, you know, trying to start a log down a hill. Thinking I could get a better purchase on it from the lower ride, I tackled it there with my log-rolling book and threw my weight on the lever. She started, she did. but as luck would have it before I could get out of the way, she rolled right over me. If it hadn't been for a lot of small limbs and brush lying in the road, which lifted her up, she'd a crushed me flat, As it was I got up without a broken bone, but with some mighty bad bruises."

"Then you were all right," eaid his audi-

"Not by a blamed eight, stranger. I took cold, rheumatism set is, and, if I hadn't heard of BENSON'S CAPCINE PORCUS PLAS-TERS and used 'em, it's my opinion I should never have made another chip fly. But the Capcine took hold quick, and I'm 'bout as good as new. But there's one thing you kin calkilate on:—I shall never wractle with another leg unless I have the advantage of the ground. Fur, as I told you before, if is hadn't been for them brushes I'd been smashed so, you could 'a sold me for a door mat."

mat."
The Capcine is the thing for rheumatism. It doesn't keep you waiting. The word CAP-CINE is our in the center of the genuine. Price 25 cente.
