

PROVO.

Notes From the Garden City. The Register term of the First district court opened today. Judge King presided.

Charles H. Huggins, of the Haggis Drug Co. left yesterday for Salt Lake City. He will take a course in chemistry in the University of Utah.

The State-Clay House Co. of Omaha, has announced that it will file a bill in the Utah court against the State, for the purpose of securing the right to sell and lease its property.

W. H. Fisher, of Mine, has commenced an action in the First district court against U. S. Marshal William J. Smith, for the purpose of recovering the property of the mine which was seized by the marshal.

Friday afternoon, while some children were playing on the sidewalk in front of Prof. A. B. Huggins' residence, a dog about 12 years of age came along with a large log. It rolled out from under the log, and was run over by the dog.

Free treatment for one week. One who has been treated with this medicine will give you the results which will be obtained in a few days.

Active work has commenced on the new waterworks system, and a large force of men are engaged in laying the pipes for the water works.

The streets have been the gathering place during the week for crowds of people to know what they are doing for the coming year.

Arrangements are being completed at the Hotel King for the meeting of their own citizens again, at the new entertainment hall.

Nothing new in the intention of the Daily West starting on the 1st day, although the frequent visits of J. J. Day lately tend to encourage matters in that direction.

H. C. Chambers has been out during the week with a view to pay the debt of the State to the State.
