KALAMAZOO, Mich., 13.—The day turned out a bad one for the attempt of Jay-Eye-See to lower his record, and resulted in a temporary injury to the horse, necessitating the cancelling of succeeding engagements. The afternoon was cold and raw, with a strong wind. The plan was to trot two slow heats to warm him up, and then one fast, but after the first warming heat he had a nervous chill, owing to which he was brought out to complete the fast mile as soon as possible, in order not to disappoint the expectations of the spectators. He made the first quarter in 34, the half in 1:08, the three-quarters in 1:44 and the mile in 2:20 1/2. J. I. Case is here in person, and orders the subsequent engagements off, as a matter of prudence. The horse being ill. Phallas made two heats in 3:19 1/2 and 2:19 1/2.

Spruance, of Georgetown, auditor; F. F. Osbiston, B. F. Crowell, F. G. Goudy, presidential electors, W. C. Lathrop, chairman of the State Central committee. The committee on resolutions reported as follows: That the republicans of Colorado in convention assembled, affirm and approve the platform of principles adopted by the National Republican Convention, which nominated for president the orator and eminent statesman of Maine, and the most illustrious citizen-soldier of the republic for Vice-President; that the wool interests of the country, now greatly depressed, mainly by the reduction of the import duty by the recent act of Congress, ought to be fostered by the proper legislation to that end. We ask that the import duty imposed by the act of 1867 on wools, be restored at the earliest possible day.

Resolved, further, that the southwestern portion of the State is being devastated by bands of roving Indians, and the lives of citizens are jeopardized; we therefore demand our representatives in Congress to use their utmost endeavors to secure the removal of the Southern Ute Indians from this State.

The report was adopted and the convention adjourned sine die.

INDIANAPOLIS, 13.—In the United States District Court to-day, the motion for a rule on the plaintiff to answer the interrogatories in the Blaine-Sentinel libel suit, came up before Judge Woods. The Judge stated in advance of the argument that interrogatories had long been prohibited in the practice of the United States Circuit Court, and while, personally, he should like to see the rule changed, he would not take the liberty to set it aside at this time. However, if with this preliminary statement the attorneys desired to argue the question, he would listen to them. Senator Harrison stated these interrogatories would be answered, but when Mr. Turpie asked when, he declined to answer. The argument then proceeded, and at the conclusion Judge Woods declined to rule on the motion. The action of the Judge leaves it optional with Blaine's counsel as to answering the interrogatories.

To-day the following answer was received:

NEZ PERCES AGENCY, Idaho.
I do not consider it advisable to allow Chief Joseph and those who took part in the massacre, to return. I think the balance could return with safety to themselves without causing a disturbance on the part of the settlers.

The trustees who hold the voting power upon the 182,000 shares of Northern Pacific held by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company as security, will decide what action they will take regarding the election to the board of the gentlemen referred to.

The following is received by a prominent banking house whose friends are largely interested in the Union Pacific road: "Gentlemen: In answer to your communication, I would state that to pay all the fixed charges and taxes, the amount due the United States under the Thurman act, that to pay all the sinking fund charges, and to pay the annual dividend per cent on the stock, requires $950,000 net per month. The land sales this year to July amount to 2,425,098 acres, equal to $7,451,928. (Signed) JAY GOULD."

An Attachment on the ground of non-residence has been granted by the Su-

Smith's yacht Sigma, of Detroit, arrived at Port Huron. He shows how the engineers enormously under-estimated the cost of construction, and that by refusal of the President to act upon application to the company for the appointment of a commissioner to inspect the additional mileage in '82 caused their banks to refuse to advance any more money, and their refusal shut all the other doors against them.

ST. JOHNS.

AFFAIRS OF INTEREST FROM THAT REGION.

Brother Thomas Goodman, formerly of the 21st Ward, this city, but now of St. Johns, Arizona, arrived in town Sunday evening, on business, and purposes returning south as soon as it is completed. He is collecting material to start a nursery, which he thinks can be made to thrive, naturally as well as financially, in that place.

St. Johns, he says, is admirably situated as a business centre, and cannot fail in time to become a large and five-ly city. The crops are improving steadily, but wheat he thinks could be improved by planting a better seed. Eleven hundred acres of new land were taken up and purchased in one day, about a month ago, by Latter-day Saints, and there is a prospect for 1,200 acres more being secured in like manner by settlers from Utah. Taus, are they coming in rapidly; thirteen families arrived two days before he left there, which was on the 7th inst.

Political troubles are simmering down some. The days of shot-guns and pistols, he thinks, are past, in spite of the blood-thirsty utterances of the Apache Chief, a mendacious and miserable little sheet, edited by one G. A. McCarter, of whom and his inflammatory writings, our readers have heard something. Lewis and Johnson, the two principal land jumpers, who have given the people no end of trouble, have left the country, for good it is hoped, which cannot fail to be the case so far as St. Johns is concerned, if they will only stay away from there; whatever it may be to other places afflicted by their visitation. The Latter-day Saints living there are very good people, he says, or they never could have endured so patiently, what they have had to put up with, in the way of indignities and outrages committed against them by such fellows as those mentioned.

Our informant corroborates the report that seven indictments for polygamy have been found by the Grand Jury of the Third District of that Territory, but President Jesse N. Smith and Bishop Hunt, of Snowflake, are not among them, the report we have heard to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE MOLECULAR TELEPHONE.

THE RIVAL TALKING-MACHINE TO BE INTRODUCED, AND A LOCAL COMPANY ORGANIZED.

"Hello George? What's new?" exclaimed a News reporter yesterday afternoon, as he paused in his break-neck pace long enough to grasp the extended hand of that prince of item-hunters' patrons, George A. Mearns, the latter at the time emerging from, or standing on the steps of, T. R. Jones' banking establishment.

"Well," exclaimed that worthy, with his usual ask-me-what-you-please sort of a smile, "the newest thing, I guess, is the new telephone we are experimenting with and are thinking of introducing here. Come in and see it."

Forthwith, the two entered the building, where the reporter was introduced to Mr. G. F. Prescott, another of the experimentalists, after having previously carried on a conversation with him through the medium of two of the Molecular telephones, temporarily fixed in the rear apartments of the bank, where Col. Hollister, also one of the parties testing the machine, has his office.

Mr. Prescott informed our scribe that it was the intention to organize a local company to take in hand the matter of introducing the new telephone, to derive their right from a party in Ogden (Mr. Brown, we believe,) who has the agency for Utah, Idaho and Montana; the present experiment being simply a preliminary to that end.

"What are the advantages claimed for this telephone over those now in vogue?" asked the reporter.

"One thing," replied Mr. Prescott "is the freedom from buzzing sounds, so noticeable in those instruments having metallic diaphragms. These you will observe, are made of cork. The main point of superiority claimed for this is a more perfect operation at long distances. For instance, it has been used successfully between New York and Chicago."

"You will also see," added Mr. Mearns, "how simple its construction is," and suiting the action to the word, he began taking the diaphragm and ear piece apart, showing the latter to be made internally of wood, and the former, as already said, of cork. "The reason it is called the Molecular Telephone is because the sound is transmitted through the vibration of the molecules of the cork. Of course the metal diaphragm works on the same principle, only its molecules are smaller and produce a different kind of resonance. And then this has two cells to its battery, the extra one doubtless being employed for additional power. The shape is also different to the Bell Telephone, but then that is an immaterial matter. You will see that in this the diaphragm is at the top of the instrument and rests on an incline, thus being very handy to the mouth, while the bells are below, just over the battery."

"Is this the first one of its kind in the city?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Prescott, "but an exchange of 200 subscribers has just been perfected in Ogden."

"What is this we hear about an infringement of patents, claimed by the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone Company, in reference to this later introduction?"

"Oh, that will amount to nothing. The New York company will fight that matter in the courts if it comes to anything," replied Mr. Prescott, "but there is no ground for the charge. It has been mentioned in the East, but that's about all. It has not yet caused any litigation. We shall go right ahead. This machine will be placed in Wells Fargo's bank, connecting with Col. Hollister's office. An entirely distinct system will be established to that already here. These instruments will be furnished at cheaper rates than now prevail, and we will form a local company of our own business men, with a thousand shares, say at $25 a share, thus keeping money at home, in a measure, instead of its going into the hands of non-residents of the Territory."

The reporter here bowed his acknowledgements for the information imparted, and resumed his gliding gait up Main Street.

—Hay is worth $6 per on Beaver.

—A flood is reported from Circle Valley, Piute County, which destroyed nearly all the crops.

—A fight between five Chinese boarding house employees and a miner in Park City was one of the attractions last week.

—Dakota is the only Territory that pays a revenue to the postoffice department, and there are only ten States that do so.

—Bids are called for in a Laramie paper for enlarging a canal which shall bring 100,000 acres of land near that town under irrigation.
