

DISCUSSING THE COLLEGE MERGER.

Rep. Stookey of Salt Lake Takes Issue With Rep. Fishburn of Boxelder.

HIS ESTIMATE NOT CORRECT.

Salt Lake Figures that College Per Capita Exceeds That of the University.

That the University-Agricultural college merger is far from being a dead issue is evident from the discussion heard on every hand. There are those who feel that the problem is far from being solved, and that while the late Legislature passed it up to its successor, the matter must be threshed out at an early date. These people argue that the cost of maintaining these institutions separately is becoming more burdensome every year, and that the issue must be met fairly and squarely and the matter properly adjusted for all time.

During the discussion in the Legislature Representative Fishburn stated that the University of Utah was receiving an appropriation of $149 per capita per annum, while the Agricultural college was getting but $40. This statement has been dissected by Rep. S. J. Stookey of Salt Lake, who finds that the lawmaker from Boxelder figured in the University estimate the amount appropriated for expensive supplies and apparatus, which, instead of being but a two-year proposition, as would appear from the argument of Mr. Fishburn, will continue to do service for generations, and thus become a lasting benefit to the state. The college per capita was not figured on this basis. To support his argument Mr. Stookey submits the following:

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.
Number of students in Utah proper	592
Number of pupils in training school	175
Number of students in kindergarten	50
Estimated number in summer school	150
Total number of students, U. of U., at state expense	1,266
Total cost to state for general maintenance, apparatus and supplies, University of Utah, for two years	$159,450.00
Cost per capita for two years	147.00
Cost per capita for one year	73.50

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.
Total enrollment, including those taking special winter course	726
Total cost to state for maintenance for two years	$130,000.00
Income from federal government for two years	50,000.00
Total cost to state and government, general maintenance, supplies, etc.	$180,000.00
Cost per capita for two years	247.00
Cost per capita for one year	123.50

In the latter estimate, viz., that showing per capita maintenance figure of the A. C., Mr. Stookey figures in the sum of $50,000, which the college will receive from the federal government during the next two years. The cost per capita, leaving out this item, is shown as follows:

Total cost for general maintenance, etc., A. C., for two years	$130,000.00
Cost per capita for two years	179.00
Cost per capita for one year	89.50
Difference in cost per capita, U. of U. and A. C., per year, in favor of the University, $59.50, minus $73.50, equals, $14.
Another estimate made by Mr. Stookey also favors the University of Utah. This is based on the aggregate sums that each institution will receive from all sources, as follows:
Total income of University of Utah, 1905-6, including interest from state lands	$401,000.00
Total income of Agricultural college, including federal appropriation	180,000.00
Cost per capita, University of Utah, two years	247.00
Cost per capita, University of Utah, one year	123.50
Cost per capita, Agricultural college, two years	247.00
Cost per capita, Agricultural college, one year	123.50

STOLE FURNITURE.

Carl Madsen Arrested in Act of Carrying Off a Rocker.

Last night Detectives Chase and Raleigh, caught Carl Madsen, a 19-year-old boy, in the act of stealing furniture from the I. X. L. company. The youth has been driving for the firm and had a key to the storehouse. For some time furniture has been missing from the place and suspicion pointed to Madsen. Last night the detectives laid in wait for him and saw him carrying off a rocking chair. He was placed under arrest and lodged in jail.

THE SIMPLE LIFE

Ways That Are Pleasant and Paths That Are Peace.

It is the simple life that gives length of days, serenity of mind and body and tranquility of soul. Simple hopes and ambitions, bounded by the desire to do good to one's neighbors, simple pleasures, habits, food and drink.

Men die long before their time because they try to crowd too much into their experiences—they climb too high and fall too hard. A wise woman writes of the good that a simple diet has done her:

"I have been using Grape-Nuts for about six months. I began rather sparingly, until I acquired such a liking for it that for the last three months I have depended upon it almost entirely for my diet, eating nothing else whatever but Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper, and I believe I could cut it for dinner with fruit and be satisfied without other food, and feel much better and have more strength to do my housework."

"When I began the use of Grape-Nuts I was thin and weak, my muscles were so soft that I was not able to do any work. I weighed only 108 pounds. Nothing that I ate did me any good. I was going down hill rapidly was nervous and miserable, with no ambition for anything. My condition improved rapidly after I began to eat Grape-Nuts food. It made me feel like a new woman; my muscles got solid, my figure rounded out, my weight increased to 125 pounds in a few weeks, my nerves grew steady and my mind better and clearer. My friends tell me they haven't seen me look so well for years."

"I consider Grape-Nuts the best food on the market, and shall never go back to meats and white bread again."

ENDORSEMENT OF PACKING PLANT.

Commercial Club Committee on Manufactures Says it is a Good Thing.

MADE ITS REPORT YESTERDAY.

Commending the Proposition Without Any Reservation Whatever—Pledging Heartiest Moral Support.

The committee on manufactures of the Commercial club met yesterday afternoon, at the club, and after two hours' discussion of the local manufacturing situation agreed upon the following report on the packing plant proposition:

The Commercial club of Salt Lake recognizes that the numerical growth of this city, its trade expansion, manufacturing, and, in fact, its material progress in every direction, is hastened or held back as agriculture and stock raising, in its surrounding territory, increases in scope and volume with profit or loss to the producers of the broad valleys about us.

In this conviction it earnestly supports farmers and stock raisers in their repeatedly expressed desire for an enlarged home market for their cattle, hogs and sheep, as well as the oft reiterated demands of Utah consumers for larger and cheaper supplies of meats of our own make.

As a result of inquiries made by the committee on manufactures, under the direction of the board of governors of this club, it appears to be a well-established fact that within the past ten years important changes have been transpiring in the methods of handling livestock throughout the country, and particularly in that portion of it tributary to this center. Under the influence of these, the available supplies of fat cattle, sheep and hogs are greatly increased, and are distributed throughout the seasons of the year instead of being made ready for butchers' use for brief periods during the summer and fall months. The sugar factories within reach of this receiving point alone fatten 20,000 cattle and 50,000 sheep on their yearly run of pulp, and an equal or additional number of each might be profitably prepared on Utah alfalfa, supplemented by native grain, if local consumption and manufacture encouraged such an enlargement of operations.

No country or climate on earth is better adapted to swine-growing and pork-making than the alfalfa and small grain districts of Utah and Idaho, which are in their early stages of settlement yet, as compared with the tremendous population of farmers and stock feeders these valleys will presently carry. Yet, notwithstanding these natural advantages, Utah imports annually hog products to the value of several millions of dollars.

Some considerable portion at least of these supplies could be made from the products of our own farms and styes if proper facilities were provided to convert the raw material into manufac-

The "Chesterfield"

READY-TO-WEAR CLOTHES

For Spring Are Now on Show

They have that something, to them, that appeals to the man of refined taste, that when he puts on a Chesterfield coat, he can see, and feel, and know that it is not classed with any other line of ready to wear clothes in existence. "Chesterfield" clothes rank with the highest type of Merchant tailors' productions. A garment must have something else besides fit. It must have grace, and a swaggerness, that gets away from the ordinary ready made suit.

If the front of any "Chesterfield" suit we sell you breaks or gets out of shape in twelve months, your money back or a new suit, and there will be no controversy whatever

We are Sole Agents in Utah for the "Chesterfield" Clothing.

Prices of suits and top coats $15.00 to $40.00.

It is our pleasure to show you the correct spring styles of men's wear, whether you are ready to buy or not.
