Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup for the cure of Consumption, Coughs and Croup.

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure.

Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, for the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, etc.

The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite for food, and curing the most obstinate cases of indigestion.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the cure of Liver Complaint, etc.

These Pills are alternative, and produce a healthy action of the liver, without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more efficacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

This medicine is a certain cure for Consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of consumption.

The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explained, will cure every case of consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicines persevered in.

Notice.—We desire the Relief and Betterment Societies that have wheat stored for Zion to report the same as soon as possible. There are several warehouses in the city that have not yet reported. There will be a General Meeting on the subject of Storing Grain, in the Council House, on Saturday, at 2 o'clock, Nov. 27. We have been asking, through the Express, for these reports for some time, so that we could have sufficient time to get up a correct and concise estimate of all grain stored by these different organizations in the whole Territory.

We regret exceedingly that the Secretaries have been so slow in reporting. It is certainly a subject which should not be forgotten. An invitation is cordially tendered to those who wish to attend the meeting from the different branches of the Relief Society in the city and near localities. It is expected some of the brethren of the Twelve and of this Stake of Zion will be present on that occasion.

E. B. WEIX.

Organizing the Priesthood. President A. M. Cannon and Counselors D. O. Calder and J. E. Taylor met with the Elders, Priests, Teachers and Deacons of the Farmer's Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh wards, in the Sixth Ward Meeting-house last evening, when the following brethren were unanimously sustained in the positions named, and all set apart excepting some who were absent.

Robert R. Irvine, President of the Elders' Quorum, composed of the Elders in the five wards above named; Thomas Winter and John R. Wilson, Counselors.

Wm. Brimley, President of the Deacons' Quorum in the Fifth Ward; Timothy Winters and Hyrum Marcroft, Counselors.

Wallace Fenton, President of the Deacons' Quorum in the Sixth Ward; James C. Poulton and Orson W. West, Counselors.

David Lambert, President of the Deacons' Quorum in the Seventh Ward; Henry C. Foster and John Cowley, Jr., Counselors.

The Deacons in the Fourth Ward were not fully prepared, so their organization was deferred.

The Presidency of the Stake will meet with the Priesthood of the Nineteenth Ward this evening, at seven o'clock, in the Meeting-house of that Ward, for the purpose of organizing the Quorums there.

The Festive Season.—The season when pleasure and social parties are in vogue is approaching. Dancing appears to be preferred, especially by the young people, more than any other amusement.

A word to the Latter-day Saints with regard to the nature and management of social parties may not be out of place.

Care should be taken to exclude from such gatherings all objectionable characters. We mean, those who by their course of life and conversation have not shown a proper regard for the principles of chastity and virtue; who are in the habit of taking the name of the Deity in vain, or using any blasphemous or unchaste language; who are habitually intemperate and dissolute.

There need be no reasoning upon the advisability of such exclusion, the example of old and contact with characters of that stamp never failing to have a pernicious effect upon the innocent, the young and unwary.

In our view, dancing or other parties should not be prolonged to unreasonably late hours, as such a practice has a deleterious effect upon the health as well as the morals of any community. The good sense of all persons should be sufficient to admonish them that to expose themselves to the cold raw air of a winter night, with but little addition to the generally light clothing worn in the ball room, is not only injurious but positively dangerous.

Many hundreds who have been prematurely cut off, perhaps in the prime of life, have dated their consumptive tendencies from this cause.

No exhibitions whatever of rough ungentle or unseemly conduct should be tolerated or permitted at any social party composed of Latter-day Saints.

It should not be understood that because wisdom and judgment should be exercised we think it necessary to be sombre and rigidly restrained. There is nothing inconsistent between the observance of a gentlemanly and ladylike deportment and the utmost freedom (not license) sociability and happiness.

The parties of the Latter-day Saints should always be conducted so that the spirit of peace, the spirit of the Lord will be present. The pleasure enjoyed under such circumstances is inconceivably greater than under any other.

In the matter of amusements, however, we think those of an intellectual tendency should be encouraged. They have a more elevating tone and influence than dancing parties, at which, unless from the social intercourse enjoyed, the exercise is almost entirely physical.

THE DEJECTED FOUR.—This afternoon four live Salt Lake men marched into the City Hall and stood in a "row" before Justice Pyper. They were armed with a legal document, in the form of an affidavit against Lawrence A. Bethune, of Stockton, Tooele County. Lawrence is an official representative of the "Republic of Tooele," being a justice of the peace, we believe, in that part of the world. According to the allegations of aforementioned affidavit the accused obtained considerable quantities of goods from the affidants under false pretenses, with a plain intention of perpetrating a fraud.

Bethune, it is alleged, represented that he was about to commence the mercantile business in Stockton with the goods he was purchasing, and that he expected means from various quarters to pay for them. All these representations were characterized by the complainants as false, and, on their showing, a warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Returned Missionary.—To day, we were pleased to meet with Elder M. W. Dalton, of Box Elder County, who returned a few days since from a mission to the North-western States and Territories. He left here last April, and labored, in conjunction with the late Elder John Hubbard and Elder Anthony Navarre, in Kansas and Indian Territory. They were everywhere received with kindness by the people, both whites and Indians. The Lord had previously prepared the minds of many they visited, by dreams and visions, and there is an excellent opening for the spread of the gospel in that field.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 12.—During the morning hour a number of bills were introduced and referred to appropriate committees, among them the following:

By McDonald in relation to distilling and rectifying spirits.

By Garland, to authorize the election of a delegate to Congress from the Indian Territory.

Booth, chairman of the committee on manufactures, was, at his own request, excused from further service in that committee. He also submitted a resolution calling upon the President to inform the Senate of the cause of the Nez Perce war, the number of Indians and soldiers engaged therein, the number of lives lost, cost of the war, and what disposition had been made of Chief Joseph and those who surrendered with him; agreed to.

At the expiration of the morning hour, Chaffee called up the resolution submitted by him last week in regard to the management of the Pacific Railroad, and spoke at length in regard to the subject.

French Politics.

PARIS, 12.—There is much anxiety in consequence of the violent terms in which the motion for inquiry into the elections concerning the cabinet. All the great powers have advised President MacMahon to be conciliatory. It is emphatically denied that President MacMahon, in reply to a delegation from groups of the Right, which waited upon him on the night of the 5th inst., said, as was reported at the time, that he was right to rely upon the support of the Senate for a conservative policy, which was the only one he was able to follow.

President MacMahon declared, yesterday, to the ministers, that in the presence of the violent accusations brought against them in the chamber, and which actually affected the whole government, he could not accept their resignations, and begged them to remain at their posts.

MANITUA, Box Elder Co., Nov. 11, 1877.

Editors Desert News:

Manitua, situated on the Box Elder in a fertile little valley, from which there is no ingress or egress save by mountain passes, is a thriving settlement with a population of 400. The meeting house has been much enlarged and nicely finished this season. For the purpose of completing the organization of the Latter-day Saints, Pres. G. Snow attended meetings here to-day. The forenoon meeting was occupied by him and Elders A. Christensen and L. Mortenson. In the afternoon, Bro. Lars Halling was appointed clerk of the ward, thirteen priests and five teachers were ordained; and a deacon's quorum was organized with Frederick Jacobson as president, Peter J. Petersen and Lars Jensen counselors; and the following brethren were set apart as acting teachers, viz: Peter Olsen, James Ison, R. N. Jorgensen, Johannes Nielsen, M. Schow and N. Andersen. Pres. Snow instructed the priesthood also regarding their duties and privileges. The Sabbath school was also visited in the forenoon and found to be in an excellent condition. Hereafter the school will meet at 10 a. m. and the public meeting be at 2 p. m. P. C. Jensen is the Bishop of this ward.

Most respectfully, A. C.

SHORT AND SHARP.

A man winds up his clock to make it run, and his business to make it stop.

What is that which no one wishes to have and no one wishes to lose? A bald head.

The verses, "I love to steal awhile a weigh," are supposed to have been written by a grocer given to short measures.

A tailor, speaking of the winter fashions, says, very correctly: "There is not much change in gentlemen's pants this month."

There is a shop kept by an old maid in New York, in the window of which appear these words: "No reasonable offer refused."

A book publisher's advertisement reads: "In press—Against Her Will." Some women do object to being squeezed—sometimes.

Slanders issuing from red and beautiful lips are like foul spiders crawling from the blushing heart of a rose.

"Why did you pass yesterday without looking at me?" said a beautiful woman to a tall, dark man. "Because, madam, if I had looked I could not have passed."

"What's honor?" asks Falstaff. "The only honor is to be behind another woman in church and tell what's on her in two minutes."

A Richmond negro who pawned his shot-gun for a marriage license, said, about a week after the ceremony was performed, that he was always afraid the gun would be the death of him.

The circus season is past and gone, and the man who sold his ticket for two for a fall and a half ticket, now steps around to the sunny side of the house to warm his feet. But his heart goes with honest indignation when he remembers how the baby enjoyed seeing the animals.
