A petition was presented signed by R. B. Margetts, which represented that in 1873 he purchased a tract of land situated on sec. 4, township 1, N. R., I W.; that the patent to said land was given to George R. Jenes, and that Jones had sold the land to the city. The petitioner asked that the council deed the land back to him on such terms as they may consider just and book to him on such terms as they may consider just and book to him for the Court Room, about 4

John W. Jones and 14 others, residents and taxpayers on Grape Street, Seventeenth Ward bench, presented a petition representing that said street was too narrow and very irregular, and asking that it be graded and widened to a uniform width of 33 feet, from Samuel Cooper's corner to that of Wm. Hyde. Referred to committee on streets and alleys.

Two remonstrances were presented, one signed by Wm. Watmough, the other by J. Gallacher, protesting against the widening of Apricot Street as prayed for by Frederick Bolwinkle and John Platts, representing that if the street were widened, it would materially damage their property and therefore John W.
