SUCCESS IN AMERICAN LEAGUE.

SUCCESS IN AMERICAN LEAGUE. The season in the American league was imputitionably the most remunerative of the four years of its existence. The at-tradance at the games in Boston was uppredented in the history of base-shift, and the receipts ware correspond-ney large. In this dity the Greater New York club made a surprising record for attendance, considering the location of the grounds, and in a contest for the championably, which exceeded in bril-lancy and closeness of initish anything that ever has been seen if b baseball, pland idelf on an equal footing with the games greatest teams.
