

HARPER WOULD ENDOW ATHLETICS

President of University of Chicago
Is Working on Such a Scheme.

TO PURIFY COLLEGE SPORT.

His Report Contains Suggestions of How to Free Students Contests from Presence of "Sporting Types."

President Harper of the University of Chicago has not forgotten the plan of two years ago to endow college athletics. In his biennial report soon to be issued he says:

"I desire to emphasize a plan which, although not new, has not yet been fully considered—namely, the endowment of college athletics. At present the audiences at the most popular college contests are not typical college audiences, but 'sporting' audiences. Many students are deterred from attendance by high admission fees, and in their stead come men, women, and children for a better time, who, for lack of a better term, I may designate as the 'sporting type,' which lowers the tone of intercollegiate meetings."

"If by a system of endowment, we could accomplish two things—first, to secure the presence of all students, and second, by restricting the attendance from the outside, and exclude the college only, we should have a more desirable environment for athletics."

"A better environment for athletics would induce safer methods. Managers, freed from the pressure for larger and larger gate receipts, could adopt a higher grade of policy than expediency or greed dictates."

"None of us expects the new system to be immediately adopted. Endowments may not be so easily secured, and complications may arise if they are attempted. Yet I am confident that if the plan were strongly presented, friends could be found to aid with enthusiasm. Furthermore, in the case of contests between two institutions, in one of which athletics were endowed and one of the other not, a definite gain could be secured by the endowed in lieu of the share in the gate receipts which is given under the present system."

"If the system of endowment be meritorious, it is reasonable to believe that a number of colleges could take concerted action to secure it. Four or six such strong institutions could find ample field for competition within their own membership, and avoid the necessity of subsidizing college athletics. At present the audience 'to my mind the scheme offers an opportunity for real advance in the management of college athletics, a step in the direction of democracy and safety."

"The idea of endowment of college athletics has been actively working in the minds of the athletic authorities of several western institutions, especially among those connected with the University of Chicago. It has been duly considered by committees, and for nearly a year has been in the hands of the trustees."

"Discussing this scheme, the Chicago Tribune says:

"The chief difficulty is that of making the movement as near universal as to promise some degree of success. It is being pushed out. If one institution were to receive an endowment large enough to supply its needs, it could not endow, to conform to its methods without receiving remuneration which would be approximately the amount it would receive if admission fees were demanded."

"C. A. Woodward, director of athletics at the University of Chicago, has proposed a plan that several leading colleges should try to raise an endowment of $100,000 each, and then, according to their needs."

"This plan, while rather Utopian in nature, is an indication that the heaven is within reach."

WHAT TO DO FOR HEART TROUBLE

I Back Up My Advice With This Remarkable
Offer—A Full Dollar's Worth of My Remedy
Free to Prove That I Am Right.

I ask no reference, no deposit, no security. There is nothing to promise, nothing to pay—either now or later. To any heart sufferer who has not tried my remedy, Dr. Shoop's Restorative will gladly give, free, not a mere sample, but a full dollar bottle.

I am warranted in making this unusual offer because mine is no ordinary remedy. It does not merely try to stimulate the heart. Such treatments are worse than useless. It goes straight to the cause of all heart trouble—the nerve—restores and strengthens them and vitalizes them and restores them. Then that is the end of heart disease.

For the heart itself has no more self-control than a common sponge. It is made to last up a tender nerve so tiny that it is scarcely visible to the naked eye. Yet ten thousand times a day this delicate nerve must cause the heart to expand and contract.

The heart is about the size of your clenched fist. Open and close your fist a dozen times, even, and you will see the monstrous labor this little nerve must do.

The heart nerve is only one of the branches of the great sympathetic nervous system. Each branch of this system is so closely allied with the others that weakness or irregularity at any one point will cause trouble elsewhere.

may also follow. For each of these or other nerves.

The bond of sympathy between the nerves that operate the vital organs has a useful purpose, as well. For what will cure weakness in every branch—what will restore one center, will surely restore them all.

There is nothing new about this—nothing that a physician would dispute. But it is new to the general public. It is new knowledge to put it to practical use. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the result of a very long life. It does not dose the organs or leaden the pulse—but it does at once to the nerve—the inside nerve—the power it serves—and builds it up, and strengthens it and restores it well.

If you have heart trouble, and have never tried my remedy, merely write and I will send you an order on your bank for a full dollar bottle of my Restorative. You will find it on your shelves a standard sized bottle of my Restorative, and will send it to me. This offer is made only to those who have never tried my Restorative. Those who have tried it, there are no conditions. It is the supreme test of my Restorative. It is all that I ask you to do is to write me today.

For a free order, Book 1 on Dyspepsia, for a full dollar bottle of my Restorative, you must Book 2 on the Heart, or Book 3 on the Kidneys, or Book 4 on the Stomach, or Book 5 on the Liver, or Book 6
