

JUDGE BOTKIN AT PORT LOUIS.

Writes Interestingly of the People of the Island of Mauritius.

THEY RESPECT AMERICA.

The Judge Says He Hopes the Sensible People of Salt Lake Will Get Together and Boast.

Judge Theophilus Botkin, U. S. consul at Port Louis, Island of Mauritius, has written an interesting letter to the State Statisticians of this city, in which he says: "My health is, and has been good. At Port Louis, as well as along the coast, the atmosphere is oppressive with its constant heat and great burden of moisture, and the whites long ago quit trying to live anywhere on the coast, but have established their houses in country along the railroad, and go back and forth, to and from their daily business in Port Louis. Trains run down about every hour to an hour and a half in the forenoon, and back up country at frequent intervals in the afternoon.

"I established my own residence at Curapape Road—12 miles from Port Louis, where, in writing this letter, The altitude is 1,300 feet above sea level, and the air is always pure and the nights cool. Except perhaps seven or eight nights, I have never under a sheet and three thicknesses of blankets every night since I arrived. I was advised by everyone not to undertake to sleep at Port Louis. So I came up here, and at once wrote to the state department telling them the situation and the conditions, and received permission to reside here—a kindness which I fully appreciate.

"So far, my work has been light, but I have been making efforts through the state department to have our American goods—supplies and store put in at Port Louis, with retail branches at Rose Hill, Phoenix and Curapape, and I hope by the middle of next summer, to have some American ships coming here with occasional cargoes of American goods. No retail branches have come this way for over three years, except one little 25-ton whaler which a year ago, after loading up with butter and corn, for the south coast, here for mail and for fresh supplies to go home.

"I am in good favor with every one here, from the governor, Sir Cavendish Boyle, down to the soldiers and the everyday citizen. My office is on the ground floor fronting the walk along which everyone must pass to and from the central railway station, and from the United States consular office, and I would estimate that I have seen a real American consular office, with some of the faces of the men who did things.

"Everybody has the highest respect and consideration for the United States, and they all seem to think that our country can, if it will, decide the fate of the rest of the world for good or for evil. They think our navy is a most wonderful force, and I often have heard the expression, 'If that American navy takes a hand, the European troubles will soon be over.' And they are not guessing the fact, that everybody knows they have to respect us. They also know that we are not hunting for trouble, but that we will never run away from it.

"We get very meager news here, and often none at all, as the whole 13 daily papers published at Port Louis have not entered into any club together, and get cable news from Europe. All we get are the dispatches in cipher which come daily to the colonial secretary's office. They are literally translated and given to the newspapers, but never spread out. So we never know their full meaning.

"I saw not long ago in an English magazine, a reprint of one of Allan Love's cartoons about the president of the New York Mutual, and the policyholder. The former is represented as an old woman with a head of broad marked 'Surplus' and the latter as a large, stout, and somewhat portly man, who was watering as it stopped her and began begging for a piece. It was all very good, and I was glad to know that my old friend Love's fame had crossed the ocean.

"I hope all the sensible people of Salt Lake City are pulling together, in stop that everlasting row, and build up the manufacturing industries. There is not much sense in boosting for a 'Greater Salt Lake City' unless the property owners and business men, the capitalists will do something to make it greater. They can't do that on wind. They can work up a feverish boom that will soon collapse after my arrival, and build a chain of visitors. They should, however, build a boom on the solid enduring foundation of mills, factories, work shops, etc., where constant and lucrative employment may be had by the industrial classes."

In closing the judge observes, somewhat timidly, "I took up the study of the French soon after my arrival, and I am making such progress that every one commends it." The judge writes also that he receives and reads carefully the semi-weekly Deseret News, and is very much interested in everything going on in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Everett Buckingham entertained at luncheon today.

Mrs. Marlow L. Cummings left on Monday for a month's stay in Los Angeles.

Miss Charlie Stewart entertained at dinner at the Manhattan last night, her guests numbering about a half dozen.

Mrs. Sol Siegel has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in the east.

At the Seekers' Literary club yesterday an excellent program was given, consisting of a paper on Rosa Bonheur by Mrs. R. H. Thompson, and a review of Kate Douglas Wiggin's book, "Reveries of Sunnyside Farm," by Mrs. T. C. Brennan.

At the Wasatch Literary club yesterday

Pure Food

Is certain if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine cures those eruptions, pimples and boils that appear at all seasons; cures scrofula sores, salt rheum or eczema; adapts itself equally well to, and also cures, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles; cures rheumatism and catarrh; cures nervous troubles, debility and that tired feeling.

SPECIAL.—To meet the wishes of those who prefer medicine in tablet form, we are now putting up Hood's Sarsaparilla in chocolate-coated tablets as well as in the usual liquid form. By reducing Hood's Sarsaparilla to a solid extract, we have retained in the tablets the curative properties of every medicinal ingredient. Sold by druggists and sent by mail. 100 doses one dollar. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

Today's election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Byron Cummings; vice president, Mrs. Hauxhurst; secretary, Mrs. J. C. McClain; treasurer, Mrs. Cummings. Mrs. Brown gave a paper on "The Steel Industry," and Mrs. McNeice gave the topic, "Our City Beautiful." An informal musical program was then given by Mrs. Hall. The next meeting will be held on April 17 at the home of Mrs. White, on east Second South street.

Mrs. John E. Hansen and children, who have been spending several weeks in Los Angeles, returned today.

The Sons of the American Revolution will give their annual banquet at the Commercial club on Lexington day, April 19.

Miss Genevieve Horlick is in California for a short stay.

Mrs. Squire Coop leaves for Europe this evening at 5 o'clock.

The wedding of Leo E. Woodruff to Miss Eda Tornback occurred at 1 p. m. today in the Temple.

A SOUVENIR OF THIRTY YEARS AGO TONIGHT.

Many old time memories will be stirred by a perusal of the program printed below. It was 39 years ago this evening that the concert referred to took place in the Social Hall. Mrs. J. D. Spencer, who loaned the program to the "News," and who was the Miss Clara Young referred to in the numbers, found it in going through an old family portfolio. The event was for the benefit of the eighteenth ward Sunday school. Bishop Lorenzo Young, brother of that time, was present, and being at that time Bishop of the ward. The leader of the choir was Prof. C. J. Thomas.

Some of those named in the program have passed to the great beyond and nearly every one of the young ladies have assumed another name.

Social Hall concert, to be given for the benefit of the eighteenth ward Sunday school, on Tuesday, April 4, 1876.

PROGRAM.

Glee, "The Forester." By the Choir Quartet. "Beautiful." Eight Male Voices. Duet and chorus, "Fawn Footed Nannie." Misses Ida and Lizzie Young and chorus. "Where has Ida gone?" Miss Thomassen and choir. Recitation, "My Kitchen." Miss Laura Whitney. Quartet, "Young Good Old Days of Yore." Five Young Ladies and Four Young Gentlemen.

Duet, "Wandering in the May Time." Mrs. A. B. Dunford and Miss Mabel Young.

Catch, "Celia's Charming." Catch, "The Young Men, Owen, McAllister and Thomas.

Song and chorus, "Oh Happy Eyes." Miss Clara Hanks and choir. Recitation, "Evening at the Farm." Master John W. Young.

Song, "Be What You Seem to Be." Mr. C. Smith. Glee, "Rain on the Roof." Choir. Song, "The Old Maid." Miss Mira Young and Mr. O. F. Whitney.

Duet, "Till We Meet Again." Misses A. B. Dunford and J. Young. Song, "Is My Darling True to Me?" Miss Della Young.

Recitation, "Miss Clara Louise Smith Duet, 'Singing Lesson' and Mr. Thomas.

Serio-comic song, "Mr. H. Gardner Duet and chorus, 'Only a Dream of Home.'" Misses Mira and Julie Young and choir.

Select Reading, "Mrs. A. B. Dunford Catch, 'Chairs to Mend.'" Messrs. Lewis, Owen and Thomas.

Song and chorus, "There's a Letter in the Candle." Messrs. Young and choir. Scotch duet, "Hunting Tover." Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Thomas.

Finale, "The Village Chorists." By the Choir Quartet. Prof. C. J. Thomas. Accompanists, Mrs. F. Thatcher and Miss R. Young.

Doors open at half past seven p. m. Concert to commence at 8 o'clock.

Tickets, 50 cents each, children under 12, 25 cents. To be had at Calder & Careless, Daynes & Son's music store, and at the doors on the evening of the performance.

INCORPORATION ARTICLES.

The Intermountain Fair association of Ogden today filed a copy of its articles of incorporation in the secretary of state's office. The capital stock of the company is $25,000, divided into shares of $5 each. Neph Sargent is president; Frank Evans, secretary and treasurer. The company owns the Climax group of 18 claims, located in Summit county.

A copy of the articles of incorporation of the Climax Mining company of Coalville was filed in the secretary of state's office today. Its capital stock is $10,000, divided into shares of $10 each. Neph Sargent is president; Frank Evans, secretary and treasurer. The company owns the Climax group of 18 claims, located in Summit county.

At a preliminary hearing before Judge Diehl he was discharged. He was re-arrested and held to the district court. The latter now finds that the evidence was not sufficient against Jensen, and he has been discharged from custody. The money was never recovered.

NEW PROBATION OFFICER.

Frank J. Lucas, a retail grocer of this city, who has been serving as probation officer for Judge Brown's juvenile court for the past year without pay, was asked Jensen to put the money away for him, and Jensen placed it in the safe in the office of the McCoy lawyers. The next morning the money was gone, and Jensen was arrested on the charge of embezzlement. At a preliminary hearing before Judge Diehl he was discharged. He was re-arrested and held to the district court. The latter now finds that the evidence was not sufficient against Jensen, and he has been discharged from custody. The money was never recovered.

ENERGY for ALL day.

"There's a Reason."

Grape-Nuts

For Breakfast or Lunch—

ENERGY for ALL day.

"There's a Reason."

"There's a Reason."

"There's a Reason."

"There's a Reason."

"There's a Reason."

"There's a Reason."

ANOTHER CHAPTER IN M'DANIEL CASE.

Youngster Was Again Taken Into Custody Today.

RELEASED BY THE COURT.

He Has Habeas Corpus Petition Pending in the States Highest Tribunal—Order by Judge.

Clarence McDaniel, the boy over whom there is now a habeas corpus petition pending in the supreme court for his release from the state industrial school, was in the city for a brief moment again today. He was found at work by Trust Officer Clayton of the board of education and did not have the necessary permit to remain out of school. He was taken to the office of the superintendent of schools where the officer was informed that the boy had been a ward of the industrial school and was instructed to ascertain from Trust Officer Joseph what should be done in the case.

Mr. Joseph at first stated that he would send the boy back to Ogden, but it was later ascertained that the youngster had been placed in the custody of his mother by Judge Moore pending the determination of the habeas corpus matter. Accordingly he was sent back to the superintendent of schools, who gave him a permit to remain out of school and work in order to help his mother earn a living and was thereupon released from further custody by the trust officer. The boy was committed to the reform school by the judge of the juvenile court.

Important Damage Suits—Associate Counsel George H. Smith, J. G. Willis of the Short Line is in Ogden for perhaps the remainder of the month, to defend the interests of his company in the numerous suits brought in the local district court. He is being assisted by two stenographers, Miss Alice Wolfgram, and E. P. Jones of the Salt Lake offices.

Test of Ability—According to the statement of City Superintendent Christensen, candidate for position as teacher in the local district court, he is being required to stand a test of their knowledge of and ability to give instructions in music, drawing, manual training and physical education, as well as the regular subjects in school work.

Court Commission—A meeting of the juvenile court commission was held today in Mayor Thompson's office at which the following resolution was adopted: "Be it resolved that the judge of the juvenile court shall not accept himself from the city for more than three days at any one time without permission from the chairman of the juvenile court commission."

In New Offices—The D. A. & M. society is now comfortably located in its new offices on the ground floor of the Temple block, facing south on South Temple street, where Secy. Ensign is smiling on all comers, and at the same time handling an increasing amount of correspondence connected with the society's affairs. The offices are nicely furnished, and the walls adorned with Culmer's paintings of Utah scenery.

Girl Disappeared—Minnie Wallace, a girl 15 years of age, who was recently committed to the State Industrial school by the judge of the juvenile court, has disappeared. The girl was shadowed to the depot by the stenographer, and she told him that she had an appointment with her mother a short distance away and would return in a few moments. She left and since then has not been seen at all.

Mrs. Derr's Funeral—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Derr was held at the residence of her son, Mr. George Derr, on First street at 11 o'clock this morning. The exercises were brief but impressive, the only speaker being Elder George Ensign, a life-long friend and neighbor of the deceased, who bore a strong testimony to her worth and deserving character. The casket was literally covered with floral offerings of friends and relatives, among a quartet consisting of Messrs. Pyle, Whitely, Ensign and Spencer, rendered several beautiful musical selections. The interment took place in the City cemetery.

Good Weather Now—Fair weather has come at last, and the indications are that it will remain for several days to the general relief of the community. The registered minimum thermometer this morning, was 31 degrees, but on the outskirts of the city it went down to 25, and ice formed half an inch thick. The "wind blew great gusts" last night, 30 to 40 miles an hour, for a time, and cleared the valley of all haze and smelter smoke, leaving pure, cold air from the northwest for breathing. It was very cold in Wyoming yesterday, the thermometer at Lander registering 16 degrees. The center of the recent storm is today over the Dominion of Canada.

PERSONALS.

Mr. P. H. Lamm has returned from a pleasant five weeks' trip to the Pacific coast.

Supt. Hawk of the Postal Telegraph company has gone to Montana on business of the company.

H. O. Harkness of McCommon, Ida, a prosperous miller of that section, is a guest at the Kenyon.

Atty.-Gen. Breiden goes to Logan this evening, to be absent there tomorrow to look into an estate with reference to the inheritance tax.

Manager Benno Scherck, representing George Musgrave's company presenting "Sweet Nell of Old Drury," arrived in Salt Lake late yesterday afternoon. We spent today here and will continue on his way east in the interests of the company.

AFTERNOON ON EXCHANGE.

Among this afternoon's sales on the mining exchange were:

Alloy, 200 at $3.50.

Daily Judge, 200 at $12.

May Day, 8,500 at 27 3/4.

NEW CATALOGUE OF CHURCH WORKS.

Just issued. Send to Deseret News Book Store, Salt Lake City, Utah, for full particulars. Special terms to dealers, agents and canvassers.

S. P. ANNUAL MEETING.

Louisville, Ky., April 4.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Pacific company, held here today, the old board of directors was re-elected. The stock was mainly represented by proxies.

ONE BIG JUDGMENT.

Abstract of Same Filed Here—Amount Is $1,080,768.35.

An abstract of judgment, which will interest some Utah people was filed with the clerk of the district court today. The case is that of Russell Sage against the Wasatch & Jordan Valley Railroad company, in which a judgment was rendered by the United States circuit court in New York in 1885, for the sum of $1,080,768.35. The purpose of filing the abstract in the district court here is to levy upon any property of the company which may be discovered in this state.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Elise Treu Asks for Separation From Her Husband.

Elise Treu filed suit for divorce in the district court today against John Treu on the ground of cruelty. They were married in this city on April 18, 1895, and it is alleged that on several occasions the defendant violently assaulted plaintiff and struck her with his fists. On one instance it is charged that he knocked out one of her teeth and caused blood to flow from her nose. Plaintiff asks for $25 per month as alimony and for attorney's fees and court costs, and that she be awarded the custody of their minor children.

HUSBAND AND WIFE AGREE.

Former Withdraws Divorce Suit and Litter Files One.

With the understanding that her husband would dismiss his action for divorce filed on March 15, Mrs. Marcetta Wallis yesterday afternoon filed a divorce complaint against her husband. The ground of non-support. Wallis, in his complaint, accused his wife of infidelity and named W. Likens as co-respondent. For the sake of his children, however, he dismisses his action and to consent to a divorce in favor of his wife on the grounds stated above. They were married at Logan on Nov. 2, 1888.

URGES IMPROVEMENTS.

Citizen Makes Some Timely Suggestions for Observance of Arbor Day.

In reading last Saturday's "News" I read the governor's proclamation for the observance of Arbor day. This is a holiday that should be kept both in the spirit and the letter. We live in an arid region where the humidity in the summer time is very scarce, why not everybody plant trees and each help in his own way make it a holiday of beauty. I lament the fact of the beautiful trees that used to adorn Main street especially on the east side, how cool and refreshing they were to the hot sun, with the gentle zephyr playing upon their leaves. Alas are no more.

Let us get back to first principles again and follow the advice of that great leader and colonizer and founder of this commonwealth, Brigham Young, and plant trees on every street so that the shade thereof may be a haven of rest to the tourist and citizen to look at the beautiful inland city of Temple and lake. There is enough water running down the gutters to keep them alive. But it may be argued that the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning up day, clean up the back yards of the accumulation of winter rubbish, etc., where lurks death and disease. Bring in the sunshine and let the sweet, fresh air get at them, put them upon the Arbor day funeral pyre, and eradicate all that is contagious and dangerous to health. Let the merchants and all close store upon that day so the great majority of the business part of town they could not be tolerated. We had them once, but we have got in their place, ugly telephone poles whose wires should be under ground, let the trees take the place of the unsightly. Helpless poles, let Arbor day not be devoted only to planting trees, but let it also be a cleaning