"THE FATAL GLASS."—Last night, the last of the appearance of Mr. E. T. Stetson at the Theatre, the drama entitled "The Fatal Glass" was performed. The piece is designed to illustrate the dramatic career, some of the very worst phases of which it does most effectively, under the similitude of a dream. The lesson intended to be conveyed is wholesome, but the piece is inferior to some others of the same class which have been presented here before. The various characters were well sustained especially those by Messrs. Stetson, Graham and Thorne and Miss Walters.

Next night will be presented the spectacular extravaganza, "The Seven Years' War," a piece received in this city with considerable favor on the first engagement of Mr. Geo. D. Chaplin, some years ago, in which that gentleman appears this evening as "Mrs. Pisto," supported by Miss Clara Walters, as "Tartarin," other characters, humorous and mortal, by Messrs. Thorne, Marden, Harris, Misses Belle Clawson, Susie Spencer, R. Joy and numerous others. This piece should and will be a success. Its dances, marches and singing are very attractive, and some of its tableaux are very fine, the last—being that of the Battle of Waterloo—being one of the most beautiful ever witnessed.

THE SHOW.—The employees of "Yankee" Robinson's big show have been busily engaged to-day in erecting the big tent and making other necessary arrangements to open at seven o'clock to-night. The tent, which is a big one, being 110 feet in diameter, is pitched on the same ground as was occupied by the San Francisco Circus—Farnsworth Little's lot. The Robinson show includes some fine stock, which appears to be in excellent condition. Only three performances will be given here, which the company will proceed to Ogden, and then to San Francisco, direct.

MISCHIEVOUS.—A gentleman informs us that while he was walking, in the 17th Ward, last night, he came in contact with a string stretched across the sidewalk from the fence to a tree, placed there by some mischievous boys. The string was on his line with his eyes, and snapped across his face with a sharp sting. Stop it, boys. This species of joking is altogether too practical. Try and amuse yourselves some other way, without causing pain and inconvenience to others. Parents in that vicinity should read this to their sons.

NEW STAND.—The post office opened business at the new premises at 10 o'clock this morning. The removal from the old premises having been effected yesterday. The public will take notice of the change of location—three doors north of Z. O. M. I. produces department.

GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN was expected to address the Cheyennes, on his return from San Francisco, at McDaniel's Theatre, on Wednesday last, Aug. 22.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last Tuesday night, Brother Robert Walker, of Draperville, in the employ of Gilman & Salisbury, at the Mail Station, Point of the Mountain, received a kick from a mule in the breast, which resulted in his death a few hours afterwards. Brother Walker bore an excellent character, having been much respected by all acquainted with him. He leaves a wife and six children.

THE Bay District Agricultural Society's Fair opened on the 25th inst., at the Agricultural Park, San Francisco. The entry of thoroughbred horses was fine, as also that of sheep; but the chief attraction of the fair was the display of cattle. A small lot of milking short-horned Durham cattle was entered, the proprietor of which, Mr. J. P. Redmond, of Lafayette, stated that one of the lot would milk seven gallons in twenty-four hours.

PLEASURE EXCURSION.—The people of South Cottonwood, Willow Creek and Mill Creek Wards will join in an excursion to Ogden to-morrow. The excursionists will be accompanied by a band of music, and other necessary adjuncts on such occasions. The affair, we understand, has been got up under the auspices of the Sunday Schools. If the storm, which seems to be impending, keeps off, the excursion will be very favorable; for if the clouds remain they will break the scorching rays of the sun.

TELEGRAPH.—Superintendent Musser has run a branch of the Deseret Telegraph line into the Townsend House, where an office was opened to-day. The advantage of this connection over any other that could be made is apparent. From the fact that the Deseret line runs to the mining camps of Utah and of Southern Nevada, and also carry all the Utah business of the U. P., C. P., U. C., U. S. and U. N. telegraph. This is the kind of telegraphic communication most generally in demand among hotel patrons in this city.

RETURNED.—We had a call yesterday from Brother James Fennimore, who arrived on Wednesday evening, accompanied by Prof. H. C. De Motte, and Captain F. E. Bishop, from the Colorado, the three gentlemen being members of Major Powell's expedition. They left the river Aug. 15. We learn from Brother Fennimore that the expedition will take a trip through Grand Canyon, to the Grand Wash, which will take them about three weeks.

The reason why Brother Fennimore is taking the trip, only think of the thermometer at 115 in the shade in the day time, with dry hot winds at night, and cool, pleasing breeze in the morning.

Major Powell, being Indian commissioner for the southern tribes, will hold a grand council with the leading chiefs at Kanab about the 1st of September, after which he will proceed to Washington, where he will remain for the winter, while Prof. Thompson and his party run a new line from the Upper Sevier. After this later work is done the results of the expedition will be published and illustrated. The work, when published, including maps, etc., will be of the greatest interest of the kind.

We have also, since writing the above, had a pleasant visit from Prof. De Motte and Captain Bishop.

above the mouth of the canyon, freighting iron, ties, etc.
 A concert for the benefit of the blind musician, Deane Rowley, of American Fork, was held on last Monday evening at that place and was largely attended. The entertainment consisted of music by the American Fork brass band, and the local string band, and comic and sentimental songs by a large company of the friends of the beneficiaries. Everything connected with it passed off in the most agreeable manner, and the affair was a success pecuniarily.

As soon as the Utah Southern reaches their town the people of American Fork and adjacent settlements purpose giving the children a treat in the shape of a ride to this city on the cars, and an evening at the Theatre; the whole affair will under the auspices of the Sunday School. An afternoon at the Theatre would be better for the children than an evening.

THAT SPRING.—That is considerable of a spring that lately burst forth in the rear of St. Mark's church, close to the foundation. A ditch, which is from four to five feet deep at the upper end, has been dug to convey the water to the water race on the street. Quite a large body of muddy water gushes up from the earth at the head of the ditch. Fears were entertained yesterday that the foundation of the building would be undermined, as the water could be heard bubbling up from the ground under the floor of the school room; since yesterday, however, this has stopped. Water also came up at several points around the foundation of the church, besides at the main spring, but those minor indications have nearly all subsided, and apparently only the main opening, at the rear of the building, is in operation.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.—A most cowardly attempt was made last night to assassinate officers B. Y. Hampton and Alexander Burt, in the saloon kept by E. B. Zabriskie, East Temple street. The officers had occasion to visit the saloon, and while there a short conversation, of a perfectly friendly character, passed between a person named Watkins and Mr. Hampton, after which the latter and Mr. Burt turned and were walking out of the bar room, Mr. Hampton being a little in advance of Mr. Burt. The latter happened to look behind him, over his shoulder, when he was surprised to see Watkins with a pistol in his hand and an individual known as Dutch John grasping the barrel of the weapon, saying as he did so, "No you don't. I wouldn't do that to a dog," referring, of course, to shooting the officers in the back. Mr. Price, the bar keeper, obtained possession of the pistol and handed it to Mr. Burt. Watkins was at once arrested and placed in the jail. The case was to come up for examination this afternoon. This attempted assassination, being without an apparent shadow of provocation, and being made behind the backs of the intended victims, is one of the most cowardly that has come to our notice for some time. We understand Watkins' friends are considerably ashamed of the affair.
