

NEWS OF THE WEST.

A New Church Started in San Francisco.

GUARANTEED FUNDS REQUIRED.

Snow in Northern California—Killed by a Clash—Frank Radcliffe Add—an her-hands.

Laramie Bommangs Fred Hesse Jr., has received a call from the manager of the Wyoming football team at Park City, Utah, sending to arrange a game. The season is over in Laramie.

The southern house of the Grand Tent-planters' Orphans' Home at Valley, Calif., was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. It was a two story building and cost $10,000 and insured for $12,000 worth of school books and furniture.

A Spanish girl, named Patricia Quinones, employed as a servant in a boarding house in San Francisco, was unmercifully assaulted by Herman Cahn, her employer's son, early Monday morning. The man was under the influence of liquor. He hit her about the head and right arm with a pocket knife.

An Oakland, Calif., audience was greatly surprised on Sunday by an earthquake shock, which shook the building just as the procession was about to end when they would render at the judgment day. Some ran for the stairs, others fled through the streets, while others with faces pale, stood waiting for what they supposed to be imminent death.

An accident in a prospector hole, near Eureka, Montana, last evening, resulted in the death of a miner named Frank McHugh, who had been married only four months. He had been working at a depth of 1,000 feet, when a rock and timbered the roof, and before he could get away the last went in. His back was broken by being struck by a rock.

Ninety-eight Chinese were arrested early Sunday morning by Sergeant of Police Berger and men of the North Pacific police force, on suspicion of having violated the laws concerning the conduct of business. The ordinances prohibit the operation of laundry on Sunday. Sergeant Berger and his men visited several Chinese laundries on Park, China, Washington, Jackson and Pacific streets and caught the men at work.

John M., a single and uncommunicative soul, by drinking too much and at one time on the Hastings road, Santa Rosa, Cal., Sunday evening. He was seen in the morning, still groggy, and after another, died last night, and when death struck so deeply, it was supposed to have caused the act. He was in the house when the mounts and came home a few weeks ago.

Abner Lester, a shepherd at Thermopolis, Big Horn country, Wyo., was still here last evening, but had to return to cut out by the side of the animal. Lester's dog came to his rescue and, although the man had no weapon, he succeeded in killing the lynx, which was 4 feet long. Lester was a good boy, but he had never cared for. Towards the end he suffered very much, and the Lord saw fit on his release from earth and made him home to receive his reward.

He was buried in the cemetery on Sunday, January 20th. His remains were sent to a large carriage of relatives and friends.

In his 80th year, was father of ten sons and four daughters, 72 grandsons and 22 great-grandchildren. A man of strong physique, fond of athletic exercises, and an excellent player for several battles and all manner of sports and fun. Old men and women who have not left us in thirty forty years, since they came to the country, will remember him. He was a good citizen, and a good husband to the church. Mrs. Eira Williams.

The Deseret Evening News said its first edition ever sold, says on Saturday San Francisco Church. Metropolitan hall was only partly filled to hear the message. Harriet Boice however, is consoled to give it in men. Whether San Francisco will continue to do so, depends upon whether the church's subscription of $2,000 for the first year's expenses can be secured by next Wednesday. This will be the amount necessary to the movement than $1,000 for the year will be required, but if three-fifths of that amount is subscribed by the middle of the week, the church will be able to meet the demand. Mr. Boice will be present to assure people of San Francisco do not want or need a work of this kind, and this first meeting will be the last. Printed programs of the service were given to the members, as well as cards bearing extracts from articles of incorporation as to the purpose of the movement.

Bargains Simplicity.

The Jeffersonian method of riding is a Capitol reason, biting the horse and going quietly up the steep to be taken off at the top. It is dramatic, aristocratic, and very interesting. The fact of a president-elect's walking about town, shaking hands with old neighbors, and making himself accessible to everybody, is pleasant and witty.

But there is always a certain amount of crankiness in the world, irrespective of party, which ought to be exhibited upon and around the new Lincoln. Yet in full view of thousands of the low-downs, and considered himself safe among them, but Death sat with him. Garfield went to the station the same day a private citizen, to take the train for Los Angeles, but did not really consider for the grave. A president of Framed drive through crowds of people in an open carriage, and was murdered by one of them.

Deseret Evening News, which candidates for the presidency were most easily accessible to any body was right with to remove them from the world and distract the plans of their enemies.

When a man has had invested in his trade and expense of educating or rearing him, it is a pity to let him go. He should not be allowed to enter a place now, or whether in certain business, but he ought to be given a chance to get out of danger. Every Where in the country.
